WHITES LEAD IN SERIES FOR TROPHY

Inter-Club Match Draws Record Crowd At Midland - Conacher Scores Four Goals.

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

MIDLAND, Ont., Oct. 27.—Despite Charlie Conacher's four goals, Dick Irwin and his "Whites" are leading tonight in the pre-season series for the Ace Bailey trophy...

A record crowd of 2,800 packed Midland's gaily decorated arena to watch the professionals. It was the first time the Leafs had played in this district.

Led by Buzz Boll with three goals, the "Whites," backed by the invincible goal-tending of Phil Stein, had little trouble holding the "Blues" in check.

Conacher scored two of his goals on passes from Harvey Jackson, one on a pass from Joe Primeau and one on a solo effort.

Knucker Irvine, late of Moncton Hawks, scored the only goal of the first period for the "Whites." Conacher got three in the second stanza but Irvin's team kept ahead through goals by Day, Boll and Bill Thoms.

While the Thoms-Boll-Finnigan line accounted for the majority of the winning side's goals, the line composed of Purpur, Irvine and Red Metz pleased the crowd with its brilliant two-way play.

Blues: Goal, Stein; Defence, Howard, Day; Centre, Thoms; Wings, Boll, Finnigan; Subs: Blair, Purpur, Blake, Irvine, Doraty, Kelly, Art Jackson, Metz.

Whites: Goal, Hainsworth; Defence, Horner, Clancy; Centre, Primeau; Wings, Conacher, H. Jackson; Subs: Hamilton, Davidson, Gill Markle, Parsons, Shill, Fitzgerald, Shannon.

Referee: Johnny Mitchell, Hamilton.

Wanderers Lose To Acadia

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

HALIFAX, Oct. 27.—Coming from behind in the second half, Acadia University nosed out Halifax Wanderers 9-8 here Saturday and retained leadership in the City Rugby League.

Scoring two tries and a convert in the first half, Wanderers led by what seemed a safe margin until they played loosed up half way through the final period.

Red Grant opened the scoring with a try for Wanderers soon after the opening whistle and Mahoney booted the convert correctly from a difficult angle.

Neil Sanford scored one for Acadia later, but failed to make the convert. Don Bauld ran over for Wanderers before the end of the half and gave the Halifax team a 3-3 lead.

In the thrilling final, Sanford scored his second one and speedy Jo-Jo Feindl got the winner with only a few minutes left.

Both teams played several first-string men in their intermediate lines yesterday, but Acadia was unable to outmargin the Reds, 3-0, in that game also.

MIGRATING HOCKEYISTS MUST RETURN

Canadians Will Not Be Allowed To Play With United States Teams, Is Verdict of C. A. H. A.

The following is a recent ruling of the C. A. H. A. with regard to migrating hockeyists:

"With respect to the migration of Canadian hockeyists to the United States, the Canadian Amateur Association has reached a very definite and mutual agreement with the Hockey Association of the United States. The movement of hockey players from Canada to the neighboring republic has been placed under the ban. By the arrangement no Canadian will be permitted to play hockey in the United States except under one condition, that is that he has a transfer from his branch. The C. A. H. A. and its various branches are refusing to grant any such transfers. Hockeyists may be able to get by the Immigration Department, but they will be unable to secure playing certificates and will be obliged to return home."

On their return, it is understood that they will be debarred from participation in sport in the City to which they belong.

St. Vincent's High Defeat Moncton High 6-0

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

MONCTON, Oct. 27.—St. Vincent's High School of Saint John advanced to the finals for the New Brunswick interscholastic rugby championship by defeating Moncton High 6-0 here Saturday afternoon in a sudden-death provincial semi-final game.

The victors had a wide margin of territory play but a stubborn defence thrown up by Moncton High held them in check until late in the game. Then Bonner and Lynch scored tries in quick succession, neither of which were converted.

During the vigorous battling in the second period young Isaacs took strenuous objection to Referee Marks Dunphy's ruling and struck that official in the face. Isaacs was immediately banished from the game.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 27.—After a lapse of one year Fredericton High School made a bid to reclaim supremacy in New Brunswick senior interscholastic rugby by defeating Saint John High School 25-3 Saturday. Representing the "big three" section, Fredericton will meet St. Vincent's High of Saint John, in a sudden-death game for the provincial championship next Saturday.

Two hockey teams—Seattle and Edmonton) in the Northwestern Professional League have wired they would be glad to have any players available after Maroons training season is over. Yesterday another amateur came to the Maroon camp. Charlie Malcolm, goalie from Dauphin, Man., performed in goal for a short period.

Maroons now have eight defencemen in action. The main duties are in the hands of Stew Evans, Cy Wentworth, Lionel Conacher and Allan Shields. Their performances shut out any chance of new faces taking a defence position with the world professional hockey champions. Relief roles are handled by Bill MacKenzie and Mulligan Jack Draper and Bill Miller.

Winnipeg, Oct. 27.—Lester Patrick and his 15 New York Rangers entrained tonight for Calgary where they will be engaged in a three-game hockey exhibition series.

Bill Cook, who had an increase in his family yesterday, left Winnipeg a day early to visit his wife at Regina's General Hospital. He appeared at Ranger's camp here yesterday for a brisk workout and hurried westward shortly afterwards. He will join the main squad when they pass through Saskatchewan's Capital Monday morning.

Glen Bryson, a forward obtained recently from St. Louis Eagles, worked on the Rangers' first line with Bun Cook and Frankie Boucher yesterday but before the scrimmage was over he was removed because of an injury. Skating at full speed he attempted to pass Vernon Ayres. He was thrown off balance and crashed to the ice and injured his shoulder.

Rangers' squad was cut down to 15 players today when three of them—Danny Cox, Larry Molyneux and Bobby Kirk were transferred to Philadelphia Rambler's, their farm team.

With The N.H.L. Teams

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

WINNIPEG, Oct. 27.—Bids for players to strengthen Philadelphia Rambler's, New York Rangers' farm team in the Canadian Amateur League, were dispatched over the week-end, said Lester Patrick, Rambler's supervisor. Patrick announced Phil Watson, Montreal amateur, had signed a contract with Rambler's.

Watson, star goal-getter for Montreal Royals, last year's eastern Canada Allan Cup finalist, distinguished himself as Lester Patrick's second hockey school here recently. He placed second in goal scoring during the school's exhibition series.

Patrick offered Tommy Gorman, Montreal Maroons manager, $10,000 for Sammy McManus, former Moncton Hawk, who is wanted on warrants, and coach Herb Gardner's right hand man, went along with Larry Molyneux and Bobby Kirk.

CH'TOWN HUNT CLUB HOLD MEET

The members of The Charlottetown Hunt Club enjoyed a particularly fine drag hunt on Saturday last on properties adjoining the Club premises at West Royalty, upwards of thirty members followed the hounds over an eight mile course, ideally suited for the sport.

The hounds picked up the scent in one of the fields of the Upton Estate owned by Colonel J. S. Jenkins and ran in a south westerly direction across the Upton Road through the portion of the Upton estate just north of the race track bearing westerly almost to the North River. Here the scent was lost for a time and the horses had a well-earned rest. When the scent was picked up again the hounds ran at a sharp pace in a northerly direction through several fields owned by Messrs. Charles and Stanley Hurry, thence east to the Hurry Road and northwesterly again through fields of Mr. James Hurry and on through the Neil MacDonald property. A very sharp run occurred through lands owned by William MacKinnon, first on the west and then on the east side of the Upton Road when the course led across the end of the MacDonald and Hurry properties, over lands of the Hon. J. Bell, Arthur Bell and Benjamin Moore until the chase finally ended on the outskirts of the Club property.

Doctor R. F. Seaman, M.P.H. led the field throughout, while others taking part were Mr. Raul Raymond, Honorary President, C. N. Bisset, G. H. Buntan, Colonel J. Elliot Full, W. F. Hyndman, D. M. Gass, D. L. Mathieson, R. R. Bell, Alfred McNeil, E. B. Fairbanks, Judge Palmer, Major P. S. Fielding, G. G. K. Peake, Miss G. H. Buntan, Miss Nora Longworth, Miss Margaret, Miss Miss Miss Mackenzie, Miss Miss Lillian MacKenzie, Mrs. G. Elliot Full and Miss Avila Mathieson. Junior members taking part were: Miss Yvette Raymond, Frederick and Donald Seaman, George and Tom Rogers and Billy Porter.

The officials and members of the Club appreciated very much indeed the courtesy and co-operation of the property owners over whose land the hunt took place, this portion of West Royalty being, not only the very finest riding country that could be found anywhere, but is also one of the most fertile sections of this Garden province.

The Club has staged several paper chases and cross-country rides in the past few weeks but, when it was found that the Club's pack of hounds was too young to be sufficiently trained for running this autumn, Mr. Raymond very kindly arranged to bring his pack over from Southport for Saturday's chase. Mr. Raymond has brought three of his horses into the Club stables for the hunting season, bringing the total number of stables located at the Club to twenty-seven.

Canadiens got better as this afternoon's match progressed and at the finish held a decided edge over the minor league team which Coach George Boucher will take to Springfield shortly.

Springfield scored twice in the first period, Ted Saunders netting after a pretty combination play with the two Leo's, Bourgault and Murray. Tommy Filmore notched the second on Whitey Field's pass in front of the nets. At the other end little Abbie Cox, goalie last year for Quebec Beavers, was holding the Habitués scoreless.

Toward the end of the period while Canadiens were carrying play to the Springfield nets George Mantha and Marcel Raymond tangled. They clouted each other lightly and before they were separated other players mixed in. When the air was cleared big Jean Gauthier, Canadian defenceman, and George Mantha were sent off with majors.

After a second period in which goalies Wilf Cude and Cox were unbeatable, Canadiens took the upper hand in the third. Again and again they roared in four and five abreast, Armond Mondou wriggled past defenceman Chris Speyer to snipe the first goal and Wildor Rochefort tied the count on Pete Lepine's assist.

The Lineups

Canadiens: Goal, Cude; defence, Lesieur, Buswell; centre, Lepine; wings, Larochelle, Jollat; subs, Mondou, G. Mantha, Goldsworthy, McGill, Haynes, Gagnon, Pusie, Frew.

Springfield: Goal, Cox; defence, Bourgault, Speyer; centre, Fields; wings, Toupin, Lafraize; subs, LeRoux, Alexandre, Saunders, Murray, Filmore, Wilson, Raymond, Runge.

SAINT JOHN, N.B., Oct. 27.—The National Hockey League club of Boston Bruins contented themselves with a single light workout today on the seventh day of their training here.

Yesterday they went through a stiff scrimmage following coach Frank Patrick's expression of dissatisfaction with their condition after they were defeated 3-2 Friday night in a game with farm club players, Boston Cubs.

The Bruins had no holdouts this year, Eddie Shore, last man to arrive at the training camp, completed the personnel when he reached Saint John Thursday. He will be seen in defence against Montreal Canadiens tomorrow night when the two N. H. L. teams begin a Maritime tour here. Until game time tomorrow the Bruins will rest.

The names of any amateurs who graduate into professional ranks will not be announced until after Wednesday, manager Art Ross said tonight. Roy Conacher, Toronto, and Dick Klein, Prince Albert, Sask., have been prominent in workouts of the 15 amateurs invited to the training camp. The only Maritimer in this group is Irvine McKee, Charlottetown.

Q.S.S. Take Summerside Ruggers 13-3

In the second of a home and home series between Queen Square and Summerside High School ruggers, the Charlottetown team avenged their previous 6-0 defeat at the hands of the westerners, and whipped them 13-3 on Saturday afternoon. The game was played at Victoria Park.

Trys by Howatt, Doyle and Coyle, the latter two converted by Pursor, accounted for the Queen Square points. LeBlanc was the only player able to cross the line for Summerside.

It is the opinion of some that the game was a rather mediocre exhibition of football at the Abegweit Grounds Saturday afternoon. The match was the first of a best-of-three series to decide intercollegiate football supremacy for the 1935 season. Saturday's match ended 3-3.

The first half went scoreless, neither team producing any spectacular plays. Several efforts by each back field were highlights of the session.

P. W. C. were the first to score, the count coming about midway through the final session. Grant P. W. C. forward was responsible for the try when he followed up on a ball which had been fumbled by a Red and White player. The try went unconverted.

The S. D. U. squad, with defeat confronting them, made a desperate bid to even up matters. Their efforts were rewarded when after forcing the play to the P. W. C. five-yard line, Tremblay, Red and White, forward, took possession of the pigskin and blasted his way over the line, ending up at the bottom of a wild melee of players.

Frequent infringement of one rule or another obliged Referee Morrissey to halt the play many times throughout the encounter, thus contributing towards the languidness from the viewpoint of spectators.

The lineups were: Fullback, Ganeau; Quarters, W. O'Brien, J. O'Brien, J. O'Hanley, E. Macdonald, Halves, J. Sullivan, A. McDonald, Cullen, Forwards, Howatt, Wood, Callaghan, Tremblay, McInnis, Ayers, Connolly, P. W. C.—Fullback, Lowe; Quarters, H. Stewart, G. Irlan, R. MacKenzie, J. Donahue; Halves, J. Macdonald, D. MacCallan, K. Lawler; Forwards, Gaudet, R. MacMillan, B. Chandler, J. Jordan, J. Smith, A. Macdonald, V. Grant, A. Bulman.

Mr. E. J. H. Morrissey performed the duties of referee in a satisfactory and impartial manner.
