

MONDAY

A SLIGHT ACCIDENT occurred at the Imperial Biscuit Company's plant Saturday afternoon, when Mr. Robert Constable, while operating the cutter and die machine, had the misfortune of having his fingers caught in the cutter. The prompt action of Mr. Constable's hand avoided a more serious accident. Two fingers of the left hand were painfully crushed. He was taken immediately to the P. E. I. Hospital and had the wound dressed, it being found that no bones were broken. The proprietors and staff of the Imperial Biscuit Co., where Robert is a valued employee, together with his many friends regret the accident, but hope to see him back at his position in a few days.

LOSERS HOME BY FIRE.—The residence of Peter Burke at Alma was burned to the ground the early morning of the 24th. Mrs. Burke after arising in the morning lighted the fire in the kitchen range and went out to fetch the creamer. Returning she saw smoke issuing from the building. An alarm was sent out and the family and neighbors succeeded in saving much but not all of the contents. The fire was prevented from spreading to the barn and outbuildings. There is no insurance.

BACK FROM EUROPE.—Rev. Bernard Gillis of the Cathedral staff, this city, arrived home by the late train on Saturday night on return from a most enjoyable pleasure trip to Rome, London, Ireland, Scotland and other points in the Old Country. The tour was made on the S. S. Megantic, in exactly two months, having left Montreal on May 2nd ult. and arrived back on the 28th July. Father Gillis looks and feels in excellent health and entered upon his duties again on Sunday morning. He has some interesting events to report, including the meeting of an iceberg three miles off Quebec, but more of this later, and three days' fog to navigate, which was accomplished safely.

FITZSIMMONS AND MCGUIRK WEDDINGS.—A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in Saint Mary's Church, Waltham, on Sunday evening, July 15th by the Rev. Fr. Baxter, when Catherine Francis Fitzsimmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Fitzsimmons, 139 Charles Street, Waltham, Mass., became the bride of Mr. Joseph Patrick McGuirk, 11 Marton Street, Watertown, Mass., son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McGuirk, Fort Augustus, P. E. I. The bride was very becomingly gowned in brown georgette with silver lace and picture hat and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Cecelia McGuirk, sister of the groom, who wore a gown of orchid crepe de chene and with picture hat to match and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Leo W. Murnaghan, Johnstone's River, P. E. I. The bride received as a gift from the bridegroom a set of pearls and to the maid of honour a silver hand bag and the bridesmaid a set of gold cuff links. The bride was the recipient of a vast collection of wedding gifts. Mr. and Mrs. McGuirk will reside in Waltham after a brief honeymoon. Their many friends wish them many years of wedded happiness.

MILITARY AFFAIRS.—Sergeant Major H. P. Collins of Halifax left Saturday on return to that city. The Sergeant Major has been superintending the remodeling of the Armouries. The officers quarters have been turned into a joint service club and recreation room. He was also concerned with making improvements at the Kensington rifle range.

RAILWAY IMPROVEMENTS.—Superintendent Grady of the C. N. R. received word Saturday that work is to start shortly at the installation of storage tracks at Mt. Stewart and Georgetown to afford more room for the increasing traffic, especially with respect to the shipment of potatoes. The new tracks at Georgetown will be built to the westward of the present tracks extending from a point near the station to Parker's foundry.

The funeral of the late E. G. Saunders took place on Saturday afternoon from his residence on Orlebar Street.

The services at the house and at the grave were conducted by Rev. W. Bruce Mull, those at the grave being followed by the Masonic committee office for the dead, read by officers of the craft. The pall bearers were E. A. Foster, A. A. Pomeroy, Harry G. Brown, W. Chester S. McLeure, John Rattenbury and Fenton R. Newsome. There were many beautiful floral tributes, among them being a wreath from H. M. C. S. "Champlain."

SAD DEATH.—The death occurred on Thursday last at Dickinson, North Dakota, of Mr. George Herbert Parker, a son of the late John Parker of Cardigan, P. E. I. Mr. Parker who has been engaged in ranching for many years at Medora, N. D., arrived on this island this summer accompanied by his wife, nee Miss Tillie Poole, on a visit to Lower Montague. He was then in very poor health. On Thursday the 19th Mr. and Mrs. Parker accompanied by Mrs. Geo. A. Poole left for Medora but Mr. Parker died when near the end of his journey. He was 64 years of age. To the widow and other relatives the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

TRIP TO WHITE MOUNTAINS.—Mrs. George E. Goff, Woodville, Miss Catherine M. Dockerty, Cardigan, Mr. John D. Malcolm and daughter, Miss Laura G. Malcolm, West Palm Beach, Florida, are visiting Mrs. E. Paige and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Guild, Waterbury Center Vermont, after a delightful motor trip through the White Mountains of New Hampshire.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—The funeral of the late Bertram Lloyd Fryer was held yesterday morning from the residence of parents, Longworth Avenue, to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. P. Walsh. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. B. Croken. The pall bearers were selected from the little class mates of the deceased.

BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED.—One of the most pleasing events of the season was held July 2nd, when Miss Ina Livingstone, Clyde River, entertained at her home in honour of her friend Miss Belle Murchison, whose marriage took place the following Friday, in the Presbyterian Church, Clyde River. Miss Helen Crosby ushered the bride-to-be to the parlor, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, while the Misses Vera Hyde, Ida MacLean, and the bride, were seated in a beautifully decorated cot, which when opened they contained many useful and lovely gifts, accompanied by appropriate verses. The popular bride-to-be thanked her many friends for their thoughtfulness by remembering her on this occasion. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and music, and before leaving for their homes all joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" and best wishes for her future happiness.

A FORMER ISLANDER.—Mr. John Alfred McDonald, Land Surveyor of Hermanville has received a letter from his old friend Mr. James McIntyre, formerly of Souris, but making his home at the "Sailors Stagn Harbor" in New Brighton, Staten Island, N. Y. Mr. McDonald in referring to the death of his son Ronnie McIntyre, sincerely regrets that he was unable to come home for the funeral and wishes to express his thanks to the neighbors and friends for all their kindness to the deceased during his illness and death which came as a great shock to the aged father. Mr. McDonald says that the Sailors Stagn Harbor is wonderful in being donated by a Chicago-Millionaire, where over a thousand retired seamen lived in March last but at present there are only 650. The meals are nicely varied, plentiful and well cooked. The farm has 56 milking cows, 350 pigs, some tipping the scales at 500 and 600 pounds, the heavier ones being shipped to market, the others are for home consumption. There are also six hundred hens. The weather at present is intensely hot. Mr. McIntyre has a large vegetable garden and is well and happy and his many home friends will be glad to learn of his well doing.

FUNERAL SERVICES.—The funeral of the late Andrew G. McKay, Malpeque, was held from his late residence on Wednesday afternoon, July 25th at 2 p. m. Service at the house and grave was conducted by Mr. John Fleck, Presbyterian Student who spoke very fittingly from the text found in John XIV: 2. In my father's House are many Mansions. The officiating ministers were Bert McKean, Arnold Murray, William Caley, Walter Wigmore, Ray McLeod, Garnet Campbell. The esteem in which the deceased was held was evidenced by the large concourse of friends who followed the remains to their last resting place in New London Cemetery. The floral offerings included: Pillow, Wife; Wreath, Brothers and Sisters; Spray, Pearl and Hazel; Pillow, Mr. and Mrs. Ira McKay; Miss Clara McKay; Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Campbell; Wreath, Stanley R. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Lea Enman of Westboro, Mass., are visiting on the Island having made the trip of 800 miles in their large Essex touring car in two and one half days. It is twenty years since Mr. Enman visited the Island, consequently he sees many changes. He speaks in high terms of the improvements seen on every hand with the exception of our Island roads which are not the best for motoring. While in Pownal, he is visiting his brother, Robert, the old homestead. Mrs. Enman is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burke, Alexander. They are accompanied by their son Norman who celebrated his nineteenth birthday by setting foot on Prince Edward Island. Norman is a third year student in Electrical Engineering at Worcester Technical College, and their daughter, Try, who is also with them, celebrated her thirteenth birthday the twenty-sixth day of July. She has successfully finished her studies at grammar school and gives good promise of being a brilliant student as she enters high school this coming fall. In these days when education means so much we will follow their progress with interest, and hope in a few years to have them visit us again more fully equipped for the battle of life.

ORGANIZING HEIFER CLUB.—Mr. Roger P. Charbonneau, Fieldman for Quebec for the Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada, has been on P. E. I. for the past two weeks and has organized two heifer clubs under the plan provided by the Dominion Department of Agriculture. The centre of the first club organized is at Freetown and this Club is the first to be organized in the Maritimes. The other Club is centred in Rustico. It is said that a splendid lot of heifers have been supplied to the boys and they are bred to some of the best hills in the province. Mr. Charbonneau is most enthusiastic over the prospects of these clubs and will return next year and assist in arranging for the exhibition of the animals. Many prizes are available to the boys including a free trip to the Royal Show at Toronto. The Black and White breed is evidently still popular here as it is elsewhere. A proof of its popularity is that it registers more animals than all other dairy breeds combined. Lately a Canadian purchased the best two-year-old in the United States for $11,000. Last year best two-year-old was purchased last year for $7,100.00. Within the past year an Island Holstein has changed hands for $3000.00 and a half interest in one was sold for $2500.00. It will require skill and ability for some of the new club members to realize big prices at some future date.

The Provincial Rifle Matches opened yesterday morning with fairly clear weather and an attendance of about seventy-five competitors. The McKinnon Drug Company match (seven shots at 200 yards) was the first fired and good scores resulted considering the light which was variable. This match was won by P. J. Landrigan with a possible. Eric Coles, each with 94 points.

Immediately after the McKinnon Match the Moore & McLeod match at 200 and 500 yards was fired. The possible for this match is 70 points. J. B. Coles won by a score of 68, with R. L. Coles second with a score of 67. Capt. W. E. Smith, Pownal, had a possible at 200 yards of 80, this shoot, but did not do so well at the 500.

Prose Bros. Match at 200, 500 and 600 yards, with a possible of 105 points, is the most interesting from a rifleman's standpoint. While the final range of this match was being fired quite a rain storm descended and busted quite a number of scores.

Sergeant J. Andrew of the Light Horse picked the big plum with a score of 99, very creditable under the circumstances. Lieut. J. A. McCabe, Capt. A. W. Allen and Private P. Hooper each had 98, McCabe being the best of the trio.

The Judson Tyro Match for Tyro Riflemen shot in conjunction with the Prose match was won by W. A. Jenkins of Seal River, with a score of 92 points. The team shoot in connection with the Prose match was won by the P. E. Island Regiment with 4 points lead on the P. E. I. Heavy Brigade team.

During the matches Mr. S. C. Moore, representative of the E. B. Eddy Company, Halifax, Canada, intimated that the Company would give a prize of $5.00 for the highest number of bulls eyes made in the Prose Match.

Today will be the final of the shoot. The Silver Fox Match, Corporation Match and the Ladies' Challenge Match will be completed. The thirty-six highest competitors in the two days shooting will fire for thirty-six ladies; the highest score will hold the trophy for one year.

SAD NEWS.—Mr. Edward Nicholson, 92 Pownal Street, received a telegram on Saturday informing him of the death of his aunt, Mr. George W. Stewart of Dorchester, Mass., formerly of this city.

ABSENT FORTY-FIVE YEARS.—Mr. Daniel McLean, a prominent builder and contractor of New York is at present touring the Island with his chauffeur, after an absence of forty-five years. Mr. McLean is at present visiting relatives in Canoe Cove his old home and Miss Mary Dickson, Charlottetown. Mr. McLean is a well known public buildings, residences and well known farmer. Mr. McLean left Canoe Cove for Boston at the time of the big Boston fire and after taking part in reconstruction work then went on to New York which City he has seen grow to its present vast proportions and has as a monument to his memory as a master workman many of the largest buildings there as he and his son John carry on extensive contracting and building business. Mr. McLean will be said to be one of P. E. I.'s most successful sons and his friends wish him a pleasant holiday renewing old acquaintances.

BRIDAL SHOWER.—An enjoyable china shower was held last Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Tull, 22 Pownal Street, in honor of Miss Margaret Maude Joseph, whose marriage takes place early in August. In a small automobile, prettily decorated with flowers and white ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of the bride-to-be, impersonating the bride and Master Lyola Murnaghan as the groom. The bridal march being played as they entered. Cards accompanying each present contained many original and humorous verses, which were read by Miss Lillian Murray. The evening was decorated with white and pink ribbons, was drawn by little Miss Freda Tull, niece of