Crowell Is Winner Of Golf Crown; "Pud" Beer In Fourth Place

RIVERSIDE GOLF CLUB, N.B., Aug. 24 —(CP)—Eddie Crowell of Halifax, Nova Scotia champion, added the Maritime amateur championship to his list Saturday as he blazed over this par 70 course with a 72, the best round of the tournament to give him a 72 hole total of 302.

Percy Streeter, president of the Riverside Club, was 11 strokes behind the Nova Scotia champion but his 313 was good for second place. Jabbin' John Jabanoski, the United States customs officer stationed in Saint John, had led the field at the halfway and 54-hole markers but dropped into sixth place with a 320 after taking 91 on the final round.

Tega Wood of Saint John and Billy Beer of Charlottetown were third and fourth with 317 and 318. Ralph Costello of Saint John was one stroke behind Beer for fifth.

Final scores in the 72-hole Maritime amateur golf tournament Saturday:

Eddie Crowell, Halifax 230-72—302

Percy Streeter, Saint John 239-74—313.

Tega Wood, Saint John 241-76—317.

William Beer, Charlottetown 234-84—318.

SPORTING NEWS

Back on even footing after two of the best played ball games of the entire season it begins to appear that Legionaires and Anchors will require a full five game series to decide the squad that will meet the Rovers in the City League finals.

• • •

Certainly in the two games that have been played there has been little to choose between the two clubs. Both are playing smart defensive ball while the two hurlers that have been unveiled McAleer and Ryan have been away ahead of the hitters in both contests.

• • •

In fact they have been so far ahead that in the two games neither club has been able to push over an earned run and if this keeps up the breaks are going to play the leading role in the outcome. Breaks favored the Anchors in the initial game with the Rovers getting them yesterday and if the two squads should happen to come through with an errorless game fans are very likely to witness a marathon contest.

• • •

Next game is slated for Tuesday next at 4.30 sharp and if it is at all possible players should be ready to get started at that time. In the two nine inning fixtures played the fans have witnessed real tests of strength and it is to be hoped that this will continue in the remaining ones not only the semi-finals but the finals as well.

• • •

Just when it looked as though the National Hockey League clubs were going to face the barrier with virtually the same players as last year, word came through recently of one of the biggest player swaps between Les Canadiens and the New York Rangers in quite some time. Buddy O'Connor and Frankie Eddolls go to the Broadway Blueshirts in exchange for Harold Laycoe, Joe Bell and George Robertson.

• • •

At first glance, it would seem that the Rangers have outsmarted the Habitants in this one, though conceivably it might not work out that way.

• • •

Buddy O'Connor has been an established star in the league for the last half-dozen years. That is a long time, as the lives of hockey players go, and Canadiens may have had that in mind when they made the deal. Frankie Eddolls has never lived up to his bright promise as a junior.

• • •

Buddy O'Connor was one of the most popular members of the Canadien Hockey Club. Popular with everybody—the players, the management and the fans alike. Deservedly so, too, because he was a modelon and off the ice. We don't think his departure will sit any too well with the fans.

• • •

But the move may benefit him insomuch as he won't have to sit under the shadow of Elmer Lach, as has been the case these past few seasons. The fans have argued all season long these past four years over the relative merits of Buddy and Elmer, many maintaining that Buddy was never given strong wings who could finish off plays like Richard and Blake. The inference was that if he had, he'd have been just as effective as Elmer.

• • •

You never get anywhere in that kind of an argument. Buddy and Elmer are vastly different types, and each is highly-effective in his own way. Buddy is a bit of a will-o'-the-wisp, a graceful and rhythmic skater and a clever stickhandler. But his strength was nearly all one way. Elmer is a far more rugged type, a fiery guy on attack and defence.

• • •

You used to hear it said around the Forum, says Dink Carroll of the Gazette that Coach Dick Irvin didnt like Buddy. We don't believe that's true. It would be difficult not to like Buddy, and we think Dick did like him. But we know he never rated him with Elmer. This doesn't make Buddy unique, because Dick doesn't rate any player with Elmer and in a recent broadcast out west called him the greatest player in hockey today—or was it of all time?

Interscholastic Track Meet Here Sept. 20th

Official opening of the new Memorial Athletic Field, now nearing completion at Victoria Park will be held Saturday, September 20th when the holding of the first interscholastic and open track and field meet, open to schools all over the Province. Director of Physical Fitness Bill Reid announced last night.

Events will range from a special 50 yards dash for boys under 10 years of age to the mile run while field events include, high jump, running broad hop step and jump, shot put and discus throw In addition bicycle races at one quarter, one half and one mile will be staged and will be open to all athletes attending school. In order to give boys of all ages an opportunity to show their wares, events will be run in three divisions 10 to 13 years will be classed as juniors; 14 to 16 will be classed as intermediates while seniors will be regarded as from 17 years up. In other words a boy who has not reached his 14th birthday on Sept 2 will be classed as a junior; a boy not 17 years old on the same date, an intermediate, while all 17 years and over will comprise the open events open to all Island athletes. Participants will be able to compete only in the class for which they qualify.

All boys of various schools are urged to start training immediately for this big event. Awards will be given to athletes finishing first or second in all classes and an 11-round trophy will be donated to the boy garnering the most number of points in each division. Points will be given on a 5, 3 and 1 basis

Concluding the meet will be an interscholastic relay race of 440 yards with each runner on the four man team doing 110 yards with individual trophies going to the winning team. Individual points will not be given for this event.

Further information will be published in this paper from time to time and detailed information, entry forms, etc. will be mailed to the various schools and clubs early in September. In the meantime, anyone desiring additional information can procure same by writing the Physical Fitness Department. City.

Ch'town Club Tournament Underway

The Charlottetown Tennis Club Closed Tournament got under way when about 18 matches were run off over the week-end. Although there were no startling upsets during first round play, good tennis was in evidence throughout, with three of the tournament favorites, Earl Smith, Ivan Reddin and Bill Moreside playing twice during the week-end to advance through the second round. Some of the scheduled first round matches were not played during the week-end, and all players concerned, are kindly asked to try and play them off some time today.

The following are the results of Saturday and Sunday's matches:—

Doubles Titles Of K. of C. Club Decided

Saturday and Sunday afternoon brought the Knights of Columbus 1947 recreation centre tennis tournament to a close.

The tournament, much to the regret of the committee in charge, saw a number of matches go by default, however the tournament provided some real good tennis, close competition and good sportsmanship.

The club enjoyed a real good season and next year should prove a banner season.

The tournament while headed by the old reliables of Walter Cullen, Jack Hennessey and Joyce Cantwell produced some real finds in the persons of Misses Helen Larter, Betty McCormack, Ethel Trainor, Wanda MacMillan and Frances Coyle.

New in the men's ranks were John Nicholson, Earl Christopher, Loman McAuley and Fred Coyle

These with the rest of the membership who were not successful this year, but who were as much responsible for the success of the tournament as were the winners, will by their performances this year undoubtedly be the ones that will give stiffer competition next year which is the spirit they are carrying to 1948

Week-end Games

Loman McAulay and Betty McCormack won from Gilbert Gaudet and Francis Coyle, 4-6, 7-5, 6-0.

Walter Cullen and Ethel Trainor won from Harold Power and Wanda MacMillan, 6-0, 6-4, 6-3. Helen Larter and Ethel Trainor won from Shirley McNally and Francis Coyle, 6-4, 6-1.

Helen Larter and Al Gaudet won from Betty McCormack and Loman McAulay 4-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Walter Cullen and John Nicholson won from Loman McAulay and Fred Coyle 6-2, 6-0, 6-2.

Helen Larter and Ethel Trainor won from Barbara Coyle and Joan Weir, 6-3, 6-4.

The following is the standing:

Ladies Singles: Joyce Cantwell.

Men's singles: John Hennessey.

Ladies doubles: Helen Larter and Ethel Trainor.

Men's doubles: Walter Cullen and John Nicholson.

Mixed doubles: Walter Cullen and Ethel Trainor.

The committee in charge of the tournament was headed by Mr. Walter Cullen, who made a nice job from start to finish.

Large Crowd See Horseshoe Tournament

Favorites continued to advance to the closing stages of the Prince Edward Island horseshoe tournament over the week-end as three players, Earl McCourt, Earl Goss and Bill Davey remained in the undefeated class with four others trailing in second place with only one defeat tacked against them.

In yesterday's games, Earl Goss defeated J. Slomka, 52-22 while Bill Davey was taking the measure of Len Phillips 50-31, both matches producing some great tossing and keen competition that was keenly followed by the largest crowd of spectators of the season.

Fifth draw matches tonight include Earl Goss playing J Slomka, Earl McCourt meeting Bill Davey and Bill Murley matching tosses with Ronnie McDougall. Len Phillips has a bye into the sixth round.

Nova Scotia Ball Playoffs

HALIFAX, Aug. 24 — (CP) — The two Halifax senior baseball teams, Shipyards and Arrows, eliminated their rivals on either hand of a parallel semi-final series of the Halifax and District Baseball League which ended here Saturday.

Shipyards crushed Liverpool Larrupers 12-0 to take the series four games to three, while Arrows stopped Middleton Cardinals 6-2 in the seventh game of their best-of-seven series.

Yards and Arrows will meet here tomorrow in the first game of their final series.

YARMOUTH, N. S., Aug. 24 — (CP) —Yarmouth Gateways shut out Truro Bearcats, defending provincial baseball champions, 5-0 here Saturday to win the fourth match in the best of seven provincial quarter final series. With Bearcats leading three games to one the fifth game will be played here Monday.

Gateways backed up the six-hit pitching of Johnny Hafenecker, 18-year-old righthander from Winslow, Me., with tight fielding. Len Boss, Truro starter, was relieved by Everett Thompson in the seventh inning.

To Declare Island Boxing Titles Here

A provincial Island boxing tournament will be held at the Armouries the night of September 12th, Col. W. W. Reid, President of the Maritime Amateur Athletic Union announced last night.

Prime reason for the tourney will be to declare Island amateur champions in the different divisions and select a team to take part in the Maritime amateur boxing championships to be held at Moncton, October 6th, 7th. and 8th.

All boxers intending to take part must be in possession of amateur cards and file their entry with the Director of Physical Fitness, care of the Travel Bureau, Charlottetown.

Further information regarding weights, etc. will appear in this paper within the next few days.

Lynnmite And Jeanette Dale Bring Big Price

One of the most important sales of harness horses in recent years in this Province took place Saturday when Arthur B. McGee of Augusta, Maine, closed a deal involving the purchase of the four-year-old Lynnmite, 2.12 1-5 and the 5-year-old Jeanette Dale, 2.13 3-5 both of them being winners at Old Home Week races, Jeanette Dale topping the 2.28 class pace and Lynnmite the 2.26 class.

Lynnmite is by Volcmite 2.03 1-2, the world's greatest sire of trotters and pacers whose stud fee is $1,500 and she is out of Lynn Grattan, 2-09 and was received in trade with cash by Charles H. Horton of Murray River for the former well known free for all pacer Jane Azoff 1.59 1-2 now in the brood mare ranks at Bonnie Brae Farm, Ohio. Jeanette Dale is by Playdale, 2.04 1-2 and her dam is the former great stake winner Jeanette Royal 2.04 3-4 by Grattan Royal.

We understand that a sum in the vicinity of $6,000 was paid for these two future pacing stars and they are well worth it. Today, or at least tomorrow, they will be on their way to Maine via St. Stephen and it is rumored that later they will be seen in action at Foxboro, Mass. If so they may encounter other Maritime horses there as it is expected that Joe O'Brien will take his string of six horses for the night racing events.

Naturally Willard Kelly who had Lynnmite in his stable this year and has made such a wonderful job of developing her speed and racing capacities will feel regret at her departure as will also her capable caretaker Austin Tierney. Willard will also miss Jeanette Dale that he has owned since a year-old and hoped to mark in better than 2.10 this season. Caretaker McCormack perhaps will feel worst of all as he and the beautiful daughter of Playdale loved and understood each other.

Things are certainly changing around in the harness horse game. In the past it was trips to the U.S. A. by Islanders to bring in new racing material but now we find the Americans coming to us and no doubt the trek will continue, as our horsemen are growing and developing well-bred, sound racing prospects.

K. of C. Track And Field Meet September 1

On Monday September 1st., the Knights of Columbus annual track and field meet will be held at their Centre at Victoria Park when some twenty-five events will be run off.

From ages seven to eleven years, there will be a fifty and seventy-five yard dash each, twelve and thirteen will have a seventy-five and one hundred yards dash each with a high jump, wheel barrow and horseback race

Fourteen to sixteen will be the senior events with a one hundred and two-twenty yard dash in each age, also high jump running broad jump, three legged and relay race.

Professor Percy Barlow will be the official starter for the day.

McAleer And Ryan Again Hook Up In Hurling Duel

Bouncing back from a 2-0 setback in the first game of the series Had McInnis' Legionaires yesterday squared their City League semi-final playoffs with Anchors at a game apiece when they came through with a hard earned 2-1 victory in another nip and tuck struggle that saw Lefty McAleer even his mound duels with right-hander Charlie Ryan of the losers.

Once again, as in the previous game it was "breaks' that decided the issue between the two evenly matched baseball squads as they came through with a sparkling brand of ball all the way through with the two moundsmen again holding the spotlight in another pitcher's battle.

With the scoring of the game limited to the fifth inning, Legionaires paid off in the top half of that frame with two counters. It started off tame enough as Ryan got the frist man on strikes; Perry doubled to centre; McAleer was hit by a pitched ball to put two on; Hennessey knocked a grounder down to third and the ball rolled through LeClair for an error with Perry scoring; McAleer racing to second on the play was trapped between second and third but scored as the Anchors second baseman heaved the ball high over the hot corner. McKenzie and Strain both were thrown out at first but the damage had been done.

Anchors got their only run of the encounter in the bottom half of the same frame. Hennessey dumped a double into right field that Jay made a magnificent attempt on and scored a minute later as McAleer fired wildly to third trying to catch Hennessey going down on Gallant's slow roller toward first. McAleer however put out the fire in quick order as he got the next three men on swinging third strikes.

The two hurlers took complete control in the final four innings of the game with only one man, Goodwin of the winners getting as far as third base, the same state of affairs that had existed throughout the entire first four innings of the encounter.

McAleer added ten more strikeout victims to his first game total of sixteen in getting the Legionaires back on even footing while limiting his opponents to four hits. Ryan was equally effective, giving up but five safe blows and striking out two and being aided by two double plays during the game.

Fielding gems were prominent all through the game with Gallant, Murphy and LeClair coming through with nice running catches that stood out.
