

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

SATURDAY Guardian fifty cents a year. The tide will be high this evening at 8:33 and tomorrow morning at 9:10.

MISS McDONALD and Miss Martin, Valleyfield, were in the city yesterday en route to Hyde Park, Mass.

The Saturday Guardian, only fifty cents a year is an excellent gift for that friend of yours abroad. Subscribe for it, today.

The music page in the Saturday issue of Oct. 6th, will contain the words and music of a song entitled "My Angeline."

PETER BRAWDERS, of the Union Commercial College has secured a position in the office of A. J. Biffin, cheese exporter.

ATTENTION is directed to Wm. Moran's page which appears in special color in this issue and in which is set forth the many advantages of a good business college education.

The children of St. James' Sunday School will meet in the Sunday School at 10:45 tomorrow morning and will march into the church to take part in the Children's Day Service.

Advertisers are asked to have "changes in not later than ten a.m. each Saturday for both The Daily and The Tri-weekly of Monday. Guardian employees have a half holiday each Saturday during the summer months. The business, editorial and news departments are open as on other days for the transaction of business.

Annual Rally Day of the Baptist School will be held to-morrow at 2:30 p. m. An interesting program, bright addresses, good music, etc. will make the session a very attractive one. All friends of the school and all parents of scholars are cordially invited to be present.

Those who want work of any kind are looking for help of any kind should send their names and addresses with all particulars or call at The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, New Prowse Block, Charlottetown, Telephone 132a. Those who do not desire to advertise will please send 25 cents with their request, which amount will be returned to them on application if they do not get what they want.

ATTENTION of Guardian readers is called to the announcement in another column, of the new tailoring firm of MacLellan Bros, successors to Gordon and MacLellan. Mr. Sextus MacLellan needs no introduction to the people of this Province. As a cutter he stands in the front rank. During the years he has been doing business in the city he has made hosts of friends. His brother, C. MacLellan is also a first class cutter and up to a short time ago was connected with the well-known firm of Maxwell and Son, Merchant Tailors, Halifax. With such a strong combination the public can depend on getting first-class work.

The Halifax sailed at noon yesterday with the following passengers: Mrs. Rutledge, Mrs. Shaffner, W. A. Hogan, John Garland, Mrs. E. E. Knott, Mrs. O. E. Stewart, Mrs. W. A. Brown, R. McKenzie, Mrs. P. Barnard, Jas. Keary, Miss G. Stanley, Miss L. Stanley, Mrs. M. McLeod, Jas. Smith, S. J. Meaker, Miss J. McLeod, Miss A. McLeod, Miss L. McAleer, Miss M. McMahon, Miss M. A. McDonald, Mrs. P. Bernard, Eugene Vatcher, Miss E. Martin, Miss L. Wickham, Miss M. Keeffe, Miss M. Dalton, Miss E. Dookendorff, Mrs. J. F. Cosgrove, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hamilton, Miss M. Morrison, Miss B. Robertson, Mrs. M. A. Harret, Miss F. McSherry, F. McKenzie, Mrs. F. H. Young, D. McFady, Mary Martin, Mary White, Minnie Duffy, J. Murphy, R. H. Morse, Geo. F. Sheridan, A. G. Myers, W. Forbes, Katie Ayleward, Wilfred Dolton.

The many friends of Mrs. Isaac Bryenton were shocked to hear of her sudden death which occurred in Regina on Sunday morning, Sept. 10th of typhoid fever. The body was accompanied to Royalty Junction by her husband where the brothers and brother-in-law and other friends were awaiting to convey the body to the home of the deceased's brother John Gill, Union Road, where many sympathizing friends gathered to meet the bereaved husband. The funeral took place on Sunday last to Little York cemetery and was largely attended. The service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Rice of Winsloe through the absence of the Rev. G. F. Dawson. The pallbearers were Richard Vessey, B. Brown, H. Henderson, G. Crockett, T. Essory, and W. Partridge.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful, testifying to the esteem in which the deceased was held. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband and four children, two sons and two daughters, all residing in Medicine Hat, besides a large circle of relatives and friends.

MISS C. E. McRAE leaves this morning on return to Cambridge, Mass., after spending two months with her parents in Georgetown.

CORRESPONDENTS should remember that to ensure early appearance of correspondence all matter sent in should be cut down as much as possible. Every attention is paid to correspondence but it is impossible to get everything in as written, especially when as of late many communications are being received each day.

The death occurred at St. Mary's Road, of hemorrhage of the lungs, of James McGulgan aged 39 years. Though he had been ill for more than a month his death was unexpected, and as sad as unexpected. His funeral on Sept. 22nd at Sturgeon Chapel was very largely attended. Through all his life he was always cheerful and kind hearted, his illness was an example of christian fortitude. He leaves to mourn a widow and five small children, two brothers, two sisters, and his mother.

SCHEM have the people of Pownal witnessed a more beautiful and impressive sight than that of Wednesday afternoon, September 28th, when Miss Pearl Carver, daughter of George and Mrs. Carver, Pownal, was given in wedlock to John P. Hermann of Clifford, Ontario. Rev. D. R. Chowers, pastor of the Methodist church performed the ceremony. When the relatives and friends assembled there to await the coming of the bridal party which entered at 3 o'clock to the tender strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Dr. Hermann, brother of the groom. The bride, at any time a pretty girl, made a charming picture as she entered the church, supported by her father. She was arrayed in a gown of white silk covered over with white Brussels net and trimmed with French knotted lace and carried a magnificent bouquet of white roses with maiden hair ferns. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Mildred McLeod, of Halifax, as bridesmaid. Miss McLeod wore cream albastros over-silk with ribbon trimmings and also carried a lovely bouquet of pink roses. The groom entered the church accompanied by his best man, Mr. Fred Carver also of Pownal. After the ceremony a reception was held at Mr. and Mrs. Carver's, where the bridal pair received the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends after which supper was served. At night Mr. and Mrs. Hermann drove to Charlottetown and left on the following morning for Halifax. They purpose spending about two weeks in Halifax and then sail for St. John's Newfoundland, where they will reside for the present. The cariboo shooting season is now on in Newfoundland and it is Mr. Hermann's intention to spend a few days hunting after the big game. The groom presented the bride with a beautiful gold watch and chain and the bridesmaid with a wedding bell brooch with garnet setting. The bride's gift to the groom was a silk fob with gold locket and monogram, inscribed. The other many presents were suitable and costly and included among the cheques one for $25.00 from Dr. Hermann.—Com.

The "Moormac" Dollar Shirt

For many a moon we've been trying to find the ideal "dollar shirt." We figured what was required and placed our ideas before many makers—After examining and rejecting sample after sample the very thing came up at last. The body is of fine strong cotton, the bosom and bands are of very excellent Irish linen, the style is the popular short bosom. Cushion button holes—re-inforced seams—correct cut and thoroughly honest work in every stitch. Open front or open back—White only. We want you to compare this shirt with the best $1.25 shirt you ever saw—and we're sure if the "Moormac" cost the same you'd choose it.
