MOTORED TO THE CITY.—Messrs Andrew Dollar, John Cole, Lorne Cole and Angus McLeod of Brookfield, motored to Charlottetown in Mr. Dollar's car Wednesday, returning at night. They report the roads in splendid condition and thoroughly enjoyed their outing.

AUTO EXCURSIONISTS.—Among motor parties who came to town on Wednesday for the horse races and automobile show were Messrs R. L. Noonan and G. S. Morrison, Mrs. J. M. Noonan and Misses E. and H. Noonan from Summerside and another consisting of Messrs James V. Campbell, J. B. Gault, Joseph L. Jallant, B. J. Barnard and G. J. Peters. The following came in from Kensington, Messrs J. Peters and J. S. Jardine, Freetown and H. Sims, Kensington.

SUCCESSFUL FUNCTION.—A very successful Bridge in aid of the Fund of the Queen Mary Needlework Guild was held on Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. A. A. Bartlett, President of the Charlottetown Branch of that Society. The sum of $34 was realized which will be devoted to the purchase of material for the society work for the soldiers and sailors of the Empire. The Queen Mary Silver Wedding Shower which is being collected for is to be used by Her Majesty, exclusively for soldiers and sailors. Those interested in P. E. Island, including all school children will kindly send collections to Mrs. Bartlett before the end of June.

WITH GOD AND THE COLOURS.—A little book that will bring comfort to many a mother whose son is "over here" battling with death and danger, has recently been issued by the Publishing Company of New York. The author, Lella Atwood Fousa, who herself has a son in the service, has struck a note that will meet a responsive chord in the hearts of other mothers similarly situated. The title of the book is "With God and the Colours," a mother's prayers for her soldier boy. These prayers voice not only her own desires but the aspirations of Christian motherhood everywhere. They cannot fail to inspire, strengthen and deepen their lives. It is a fine book to place into every home where there is a service flag and no patriot could do a greater service for his spiritual helplessness of these others than by directing their attention to the value of this uplifting devotional book.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place Tuesday morning in L'Assomption Church, Moncton, at 10 o'clock, when Rev. Father Cormier nited in the holy bonds of matrimony Miss Lucy Hebert, of Moncton, and Mr. Philip LeBlanc, assistant manager of the Provincial Bank, Moncton. The wedding ceremony was followed by a nuptial mass sung by Rev. Father Cormier. The bride looked charming in a gown of white taffeta silk, with pearl trimmings and point lace, wearing a dainty poke bonnet of pale pink and carried a shower bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern. The bride is given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr. Theophile Landry, and was unattended. The groom was supported by Mr. St. Andre, manager of the Provincial Bank. The beautiful array of presents attested to the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. LeBlanc are held by their many friends. After the wedding breakfast, the bridal party left in automobiles for Cape Tormentine, and thence by steamer for Prince Edward Island, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends. The bride's travelling suit was of navy blue serge, with hat to correspond. On their return from their trip Mr. and Mrs. LeBlanc will reside in Moncton.
