THE PIONEER FARMER'S WIFE.

She never murmured at her lot,
'Twas toil and spin the whole day through;
From that rough path she wandered not,
For better things she never knew.

Though borne down with a world of care,
And though her life was edged with gray,
She never asked that skies be fair,
But scattered smiles along the way.

Of daily duties to be done,
A slave and drudge from morn to night,
Her lot seemed all a thankless one,
Since from her toil came no respite.

But after all she may have seen,
Some ray of hope no other knew;
A song, a star, a world of green—
The secret of her faith come true.

Owing to the bad driving yesterday scarcely any produce was moving in the city and the quotations in both the retail market and dealers' prices remained the same. The price of chickens advanced to from twelve to fourteen cents a lb. that of ducks from ten to thirteen, fowl nine to twelve and turkeys seventeen to nineteen.

The death has occurred at Bath of Miss Marianne Hensley, who last October received congratulations from the King on attaining her 104th birthday. She had lived over seventy-five years in one house. Her brother, the Rev. Charles Hensley, reached the age of ninety-seven—British Weekly. The late Miss Hensley was known to many in this city.

Major Darke of the No. Two Company Fourth Regiment has received the cups which were won at Letawa last year. The cup for the big gun shooting is an extra large one and has been won by the 4th Regiment—four years out of six. Mr. Darke has also received the cup for general efficiency in which No. Two Company takes first place. This is another of the many successes of the 4th Regiment—the pride of Prince Edward Island.

Persons sending advertising to The Guardian will confer a favor on the management if they will state whether they want it in The Morning Daily or Rural Daily, how long and how frequently they wish it inserted in each, and whether as a business local display ad, or classified ad, bearing in mind that if for the latter it can run but for consecutive insertions. All ordinary amounts under one dollar are accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those having a regular advertising account.

W. L. Hornsby, formerly of this city and recently of Halbrite, Saskatchewan, where he has been as manager of the Royal Bank Branch there has been transferred. The Halbrite News of March 10th last has the following: The citizens of Halbrite assembled in Strathcona Hall on Monday evening last to bid farewell to W. L. and Mrs. Hornsby, who are leaving shortly for their new home. The first part of the evening was spent in playing Progressive Cliché after which lunch was served and was followed with a short program, when Mayor Yates presented Mr. Hornsby with a silver cornet and an address on behalf of the citizens of Halbrite. Mr. Hornsby replied to the address thanking the people of Halbrite for their generous gift and expressing the regret of himself and Mrs. Hornsby at parting from their many friends in that vicinity.

CHRISTY'S HATS. This hat we have been selling for the past thirty years, if there was any better made we would have it, but there is not that's why we still sell them. Come in and see the new spring styles 1.00, 1.50 and up.

Unexcelled Clothing for Men

We are gradually converting the wearers of custom made clothing to our way of thinking. When you want a suit you want it quickly, but want it to be correct in every detail, suits that prove the wearers good taste, that show your figure at its best, suits of refined character, splendidly made, smart and primp, with shapeliness that stays—such as, $10.00 and $15.00, clothing.

One of our customers remarked when buying a suit the other day: "Will I ever wear custom made clothing again?—Not as long as I can get as good as this for about half what the tailor charges"—that tells the story.

Smart Things in Men's Furnishings

The man who wants the latest thing in a shirt—the right thing in a tie—smart gloves or hosiery, will be sure to find what he's looking for here, and find it moderately priced too. The spring styles are ready and handsome. Come and see them.
