BELFAST

On Thursday evening, Nov. 3rd, the Y. P. S. of St. John's Presbyterian Church held their regular weekly meeting.

A week ago today the British Government issued a treasury order boosting by 20 percent in the case of cattle and 10 percent in the case of butter, cream, eggs, poultry, pork and bacon duties which had stood for many weeks at 20 per cent.

Its action was inspired by introduction in the Dal Eireann of a bill in which Free State President Eamon De Valera sought authority to remove from a suspension fund annuity monies which had been held pending attempts to settle the dispute between the two countries.

The communion services on Sunday, Nov. 6th, were well attended.

The pastor, Rev. D. L. Griffiths, was assisted on Saturday morning by Rev. Allister Murray of Caledonia. The weather was unusually fine on Sunday and a large crowd was out. The choir rendered very softly the beautiful hymn "Abide With Me" during the serving of the elements which added greatly to the solemnity of the service.

Service in the Eldon United Church Nov. 6th was at 3 p.m.

Rev. J. Chisholm, of Hazelbrook Baptist Church, was the preacher. Mr. Chisholm sang "I've Found a Friend, O Such a Friend" during the service which was greatly enjoyed. All were sorry not to have the Hazelbrook Male Quartette in full but hope to have the pleasure of hearing them at some future time.

The M'ation Band met the same evening at the home of Mrs. J. J. Larabee, Eldon.

Friends of Mrs. M. F. McDonald, Eldon, are glad to see her back from Charlottetown where she was undergoing treatment for a serious eye condition.

Miss Sarah MacDonald, Charlottetown, is visiting friends at Eldon and vicinity.

Miss Etta Gillis, Melville, arrived home after an extended visit with her brother in Vancouver. On her way home she visited in New York and reports a splendid trip throughout.

Mrs. S. D. Murchison, Pinette, is having as her guest Mrs. Catherine Bruce Charlottetown. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Bruce in her recent bereavement.

A public meeting of much interest particularly to Orangemen was held at Pinette on Saturday, Nov. 5th, when the new McEwen Orange hall was dedicated.

The grand officers were present and W. W. Mutart, Grand Master, presided. The service throughout was of a very lovely nature and the music with Miss Florence MacPhee at the organ was up to the McEwen standard.

Short addresses were made by several of the visitors containing enough humor to be "spicy" and making them eligible to being welcome back to Pinette any time. At the close of the public meeting the ladies repaired to the "Old Hall" where they served a bountiful supper to visitors and all. At the close a very hearty vote of thanks was moved by Bro. C. E. MacKenzie, ably seconded by Bro. M. A. McNeill and pleasantly conveyed to them by the Grand Master. The meeting closed with the King.

The S. S. Harland still makes her regular trip to Pinette.

Several cases of whooping cough are reported in Eldon and vicinity.

Friends of R. E. MacDonald, Pinette, will be glad to know he is feeling nicely at present.

The auction sale on the estate of the late Neil MacDonald was held on Tuesday, Nov. 8. Although the afternoon was anything but pleasant there was a large crowd gathered. Although "top notch" prices did not prevail everything sold well, particularly the young cattle. Mr. J. A. MacDonald the efficient auctioneer, had charge. Mr. R. B. Bell, Charlottetown, attended in the interest of the estate. M. C. MacPhee acted secretary.

The annual meeting of the Mt. Buchanan Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. M. A. MacLeod, Graham, on Tuesday, Nov. 8th with 13 members and 7 visitors present. The retiring president's report showed that the social part of the Institute during the year had been quite a success. All the meetings during the year were well attended. The financial

Mr. Goff had come from behind a truck and started to cross the street in front of the P. E. Island Biscuit Factory when a car proceeding from the city struck him and carried him about ten feet. He was rendered unconscious for several minutes, and sustained a number of painful bruises. No bones were broken.

Theft In Court Irks The Judge

(Canadian Press) LONDON, Nov. 15—"This is a nice, new game," remarked Judge Turner in Westminster County Court when he was informed by a woman witness in a case tried by him that while she was giving her evidence in court her handbag was stolen. "I shall have a notice put up," he added; "Carry your handbags."

The theft of the handbag took place within a few feet of the Judge. The woman had gone back to her seat in court after testifying, then she announced to Judge Turner that while she was in the witness-box someone had taken her bag, containing $30 from the seat. Judge Turner: "Who was sitting near her?" A man who sat on the same bench as the woman rose and said: "There was a middle-aged man with a very red face sitting next to her, who has gone."

A youth and a woman who were on the seat near the owner of the bag then came forward and offered to be searched. They were searched in another room, but the bag was not in their possession. Judge Turner: "This is very regrettable. We had better take names and ring up Scotland Yard or Bow-street." Later a police officer from Vine-street arrived and informed Judge Turner he had made inquiries and taken names.

Judge Turner: "Well, that is all we can possibly do."

WASHING SWEATERS

To prevent your sweater from stretching when you wash it, draw a picture of it before you put it in the luke warm suds. Place the sweater on a large clean sheet of paper. Pin it down firmly. Trace the outline. Remove and launder. As you work the suds through the sweater, hold the garment in your hands without lifting it from the water any more than is necessary. After rinsing, roll the sweater in a Turkish towel for just a minute to hasten drying. Then unroll, place on the paper so it will conform to the outline, and pin it securely. Your sweater will fit you in the same manner that it did before it was laundered.

TRIDIVUM BROUGHT TO A CLOSE

Last evening the Tridium at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer came to a close, when the concluding sermon on the life of Saint Alphonus, founder of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, was ably preached by Rev. S. L. Connolly, C.S.S.R. After the sermon, Father Connolly imparted the Papal Blessing to the people. Solemn Benediction was given by Rev. Father Connolly, C.S.S.R., assisted by Father Enright, C.S.S.R. and Rev. Father Murphy, C.S.S.R. A mixed choir rendered music under the direction of Rev. Father McGree, C.S.S.R.

At 10 o'clock in the morning, a Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by His Excellency Bishop J. A. O'Sullivan, assisted by Reverend M. Monaghan, D.D., Miscouche, High Priest; Reverend Jas. Murphy, D. D., Saint Dunstan's University, and Rev. G. M. Murphy, C.S.S.R., Deacons of Honour; Reverend Reginald McDonald, Deacon of the Mass; Reverend W. J. Enright, C.S.S.R., Sub-Deacon; Reverend Louis A. Dougan, Master of Ceremonies, and Mr. Richard Hennessey, Assistant Master of Ceremonies.

An eloquent sermon on "The Life of Saint Alphonus," the founder of the Order, was delivered by Reverend S. L. Connolly, C.S.S.R.

The mixed choir, which was augmented by an orchestra, rendered special music in an excellent manner under the direction of Reverend Joseph McGree, C.S.S.R.

matter and the assistance given in the way of pegging market prices for wheat by the federal Government, T. H. Blacklock, Parliamentarian Correspondent for The Halifax Herald in Ottawa, declared in a special despatch last night:

"Ports of the Maritime Provinces and All-Canadian shipping routes are scheduled to get every ton of traffic—grain and other export products—that can be put through them without injury to the interest of the Canadian producer."

Continuing Mr. Blacklock said after studying the situation in the capital:

"A policy directed energetically to this end is coming into effect at the close of water navigation and is expected to send by far the greatest volume of wheat through Halifax and Saint John that these ports have ever handled."

A youth and a woman who were on the seat near the owner of the bag then came forward and offered to be searched. They were searched in another room, but the bag was not in their possession. Judge Turner: "This is very regrettable. We had better take names and ring up Scotland Yard or Bow-street." Later a police officer from Vine-street arrived and informed Judge Turner he had made inquiries and taken names.

GRAIN

The despatch said: "As exports of other farm and industrial products are increased under Imperial Economic Conference agreements it is intended to influence their movement through the same channels, to the full extent that economic laws will permit."

"The first major effort will be directed to wheat shipments this winter, the direct association of the Government with wheat marketing through its guarantee against losses of hedging sales placing it in a prime position to influence the routing overseas."

"Stripped of all embroidery Premier Bennett's announcement to the House of Commons means that all Canadian wheat sold by the farmer which is not required for immediate export, or for milling in Canada, is being bought in by the Canadian Co-operative Wheat Producers Limited and the Canadian Government is making this possible by guaranteeing the banks against loss."

"Mr. Bennett declared today that, but for the Government action in guaranteeing the banks against loss to permit the Co-operative to buy in surplus wheat offered, this year's crop could not have been marketed and that such of it as was marketed would have sent prices down below forty cents per bushel."

"With the entire crop movement thus dependent upon Government support and credit it is surprising that the Canadian Co-operative Producers stand ready to implement as far as possible the wishes of the Government in the shipment of its exports and the Government has clearly indicated its desire that Canadian traffic routes and Canadian ports be utilized to the fullest possible extent."
