SUMMER COMPLAINT.

One of the Commonest and Most Dangerous of Diseases. Everyone Should be Prepared for it with a Bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Very few people escape an attack of Summer Complaint. It may be slight, or it may be severe, but nearly everyone is liable to it.

You cannot tell when it seizes on you how it may end. Let it go for a day or two only, and see how weak and prostrated it will leave you.

There is only one safe way to cure it and that is by Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It has been on the market for sixty-three years and has been proved and tried so you are not experimenting when you buy it.

Do not accept a substitute or imitation, as many of these are positively dangerous to life and health. Insist on having Dr. Fowler's.

Mrs. Norman H. Eisau, Ship Harbor, N.S., writes: "Last summer my baby was very bad with Summer Complaint. I tried most everything for him, but nothing seemed to help. One day a neighbor called in and told me to try Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, so I got a bottle and after a few doses my baby was cured. I shall always keep it in the house."

This was followed by music. Then a general conference by Rev. J. B. Ganong, after which the (I. B. R. A.) department was introduced and explained by several of the brethren present. At the evening session Rev. Wm. Field gave a very hearty address of welcome, followed by a very effective and instructive paper prepared and read by Rev. Wm. McLeod, on Sunday School work. Rev. Geo. Steele then gave a short talk on Home Department after which Rev. J. B. Ganong first referred to the successful work done in this district, after which followed an account of the Louisville Convention and the great work that was accomplished there. GOOD WORDS FOR THE ISLAND.

Dear Sir,-It really seems ungrateful for a visitor to leave these shores without a tribute, not only to the beauty of this fruitful land but to the charming manners and exceeding kindness of the people.

From the stoker, engineer and "Captain Courageous" of the little ferry of a remote and tiny town to the delightful host and all his staff of this most comfortable and pleasant hostelry, the same charming attention, friendly, thoughtful for one's comfort of mind and body; we only met enough who were not so to remind us that we were still on earth, and not in a better world.

Everything these Islanders can do for you is done. They cannot prevent the dust, which just now must be a close second to the sands of Sahara, but they can and do come out to your carriage as you drive through the country with a refreshing glass of lemonade and with patience and a clothes brush try to make you presentable when you alight. A warm welcome and a thoughtful care for your comfort is yours wherever you go from Timish to Souris.

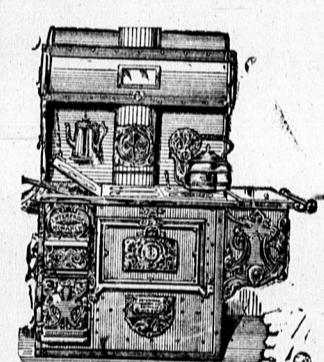

Another thing that he who runs may read with joy-that there is no one with soul so dead as not to say continually, and with a joyous pride, "This is my own, my native land." Such love for and pride in their country is inspiring to behold and one would that every Canadian between here and the Pacific were as full of it as these stalwart Islanders. The Garden of the Gulf, this little island, far-away spot, with its short summer, long winter and sometimes dreary spring is indeed fully appreciated by its loyal inhabitants. And as one looks at it one does not wonder, for surely it is blessed by Providence. Rich fields of grain, miles of clover, honey-sweet, a beautiful harvest from land and sea and herds that nurture pastures, a climate that nurtures strong men and healthy and beautiful children.

Oh Islanders! be happy. And for your kindly ways and generous hospitality accept the grateful thanks of a STRANGER WITHIN YOUR GATES. St. John, N. B.

DANIEL RYAN AND COMPANY

All next week the Opera House will be occupied by the popular and talented actor and his supporting company. Mr. Ryan is no stranger here, and his performances are noted as the best. There is not an incapable person in the company, and excellent judgement is shown in casting them in the various plays. The staging and costuming are also worthy of recognition, for seldom is such attention paid to the productions as Mr. Ryan displays. The bill announced for the opening on Monday evening will be Maria "Ingomar the Barbarian." The story tells how by his great love for a Christian maiden a noted Barbarian Chieftain is reformed. It is a splendid play and one that is sure to please. Seats will be on sale to-morrow morning and an early selection should be made.
