Industries that Are Passing Away Just as spinning and knitting has been displaced many years ago by machine made goods, so modern methods are doing away with home baking and other old fashioned industries. Many good women tell us that our large loaves cream loaves better than any they ever ate. MACHINE MADE.

The latest news, first of all. P. Brodie, York, was in the city yesterday.

The Northumberland arrived in this city last evening at eight ten.

Sinclair McRae, Hazelbrook, visited friends in Roseberry recently.

There were no cases before the police court in this city yesterday.

Hon. B. Gallant, Bloomfield, was in the city yesterday, registering at the Queen.

The Citizen's Band gave another of their enjoyable concerts in the Gardens last evening.

The schooner Baeburn is discharging a cargo of Sydney Run of Mine Coal for C. Lyons & Co.

Miss Margaret Panton, West Somerville, Mass., is spending the summer at her old home in Roseberry.

Miss Emeline McEachern, Brudenell, and Miss Maude Panton, Roseberry, are visiting their cousin, Mrs. D. Wood, Hazelbrook.

A number of St. John boys are out camping at Day's Point, N. B., under the leadership of Rev. J. E. Purdie, formerly of this city.

The parlor car, now in daily use on the morning express to Summerside which returns at night, is suitably placarded. The management had this done to prevent unnecessary traffic through it.

Today's Guardian comprises sixteen pages and the reading matter includes articles of world wide interest, a sermon, S. S. lesson, Guardian's Weekly Shakespearean sermon and other interesting local items.

J. A. Kelly city left yesterday for the Knights of Columbus National Convention at Quebec. E. J. McTague Station Master at Mount Stewart and Miss McTague, wife of Mr. McTague, of the P. E. I. R. and Miss McQuaid, city, leave this morning.

Oscar L. Redifer and Mrs. Redifer, Philadelphia, Penn., who have been spending a few days in P. E. Island, while on a tour of the Maritime Provinces, came to the city yesterday and returned to Summerside in the afternoon en route to the mainland.

Preparations are now being made for the Royal Commission on Industrial and Technical Education which is to hold a session in Charlottetown on Monday, August 8th and in Summerside on Wednesday, August 10th. It is expected that men representing various industries, representative workmen and representative farmers will attend the Commission. This is an opportunity for Prince Edward Island to place its educational needs before the Federal Government and the attendance at all of these meetings should be very large. Sessions will be held both in the morning and evening and everyone interested is invited to be present and take part in the meetings.

The Maritime Provinces will be well represented at the Methodist conference which will open in Vancouver on Aug. 15. The conference will last until about the last of August. Among those going from the provinces are: Rev. G. Steele, of Sackville, Rev. G. S. Dawson, Rev. S. Howard, of St. Stephen; Rev. J. A. Rodgers, of Sackville; Rev. M. R. Knight, of Dayville; Rev. William Harrison, of Charlottetown; Dr. J. R. Inch, of Sackville; H. Smith, of Charlottetown; Dr. D. Allison, of Sackville; J. N. Harvey, of St. John; Prof. S. W. Hunton, of Sackville; J. M. Palmer, of Sackville; W. D. Bagkin, of St. John; F. Curran, of Fishburne, and J. J. Weddall, of Fredericton. Most of the party will leave on or about the 5th of the month.

P. A. and Mrs. Beaton, Belmont, Mass., who had been visiting friends in this Province were passengers by the S. S. Halifax on Friday afternoon en route home. They spent most of their holidays at Wood Islands. Mrs. Beaton being a daughter of Duncan M. MacMillan of that place. Mr. Beaton conducts a successful heating and plumbing business in Belmont, and this is his first visit to his native province in twenty years. He notes many improvements in Charlottetown. The beautiful harbour and river scenery, the pretty squares, and above all the ideal atmosphere makes it one of the most desirable places in America during the summer months. The Guardian wishes them both a pleasant trip home and continued success in their adopted home.

ARENA Bowling Alleys open today 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. 9-27dtf. Spiro Powder is guaranteed to remove odor of perspiration—relieves chafing, prickly heat and inflamed parts. As a foot powder it is unequalled. 25c. per package. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, successor to A. W. Reddin, Sunnyside.

The Sick Made Well WITHOUT MEDICINE Precious Life and Health can be saved by his New Method. All sickness is alike to OXYDONOR It cures by creating in the body a strong affinity for OXYGEN—The system is thus revitalized with Oxygen from the air. The disease of what-ever nature—is conquered and health returns. Greater Faith Than Ever Frederickton, N. B., Jan 28, 1909. Gentlemen:—After ten years' experience in the use of the instrument, I may say that I have greater faith in what the Oxydonor can do for those that are sick or in poor health, than ever before. In my judgment it will restore health when it is possible. Yours truly, M. ATKINSON. Beware of Dangerous and Fraudulent Imitations. Send to-day for FREE BOOK. The genuine has the name of Dr. H.
