IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

FIRST HARVEST. —The first grain harvested at the Experimental Station this year was Daubeney oats which was cut on Saturday the 21st. It was sown May 18 and a sheaf will be on Exhibition at the Flower Show on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

ONE OF THE PRETTIEST SPOTS on earth is the town of Alberton, where the Western Prince Exhibition is to be held on August 26. One can help the war without any sacrifice by going by special train to the second city of the west on that occasion. See page eight. 2627

EROOKFIELD. —Among the Harvest Excursionists leaving for the West last Tuesday were Angus McLeod, John McKinnon, Daniel McDonald, Brookfield; Norman Campbell, Darlington; and Jimmy McLean, North Wiltshire. Mr. Andrew Dollar spent Sunday in Darlington, guest of Mr. A. A. McDonald. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Moore spent Sunday in the City.

ANOTHER PLEASANT OUTING. Another exceedingly pleasant afternoon was spent at the Experimental Station when the Marshfield Women's Institute and a number of their friends were entertained by Superintendent and Mrs. Clark. There were about 75 present and the time was pleasantly occupied in inspecting the vegetable and flower gardens and the farm generally. Mrs. Dunbrack was present and addressed the Institute along patriotic lines. Members of the Institute had previously expressed a desire to contribute to one of the patriotic funds. Steps were taken at this meeting to bring this matter to a head. A subscription list was opened and the sum of $22 was subscribed, exclusively by the ladies. It is expected that the other Women's Institutes throughout the Province will join in this movement and between them all contribute sufficient either for a machine gun or a motor ambulance. This patriotic move on the part of the ladies is most commendable and no doubt the other loyal ladies of the province will gladly participate.

WEDDING BELLS.— The marriage took place at Miminigash at 12 o'clock July 28th at the home of Elijah Costain of his daughter, Ethel J. to John B. McArthur son of William McArthur, Rosebank. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Dawson in the presence of a large number of invited guests. The bride who was beautifully gowned in white satin and wore a wreath of Orange Blossoms and bridal veil was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Annie, who was dressed in pink silk with a bodice of white organdie and silk chiffon and wore a wreath of lilies of the valley. done in a very efficient manner by Daniel E. Costain. The bridal party were married under a most beautiful white arch the room being decorated for the occasion. After the ceremony the wedding dinner was served in Mrs. Costain's best style. The bride was presented with many beautiful presents showing the high esteem in which she was held. She has been a resident of Cambridge and Boston for the past eight years and on the eve of her departure for the Island her Aunt Mrs. Geo. H. R. Bailey of Dorchester, Mass., gave her a most beautiful linen shower. Among the people present were Mrs. Geo. H. R. Bailey and Miss Florence Bailey, of Dorchester and her sister Mrs. Frank Spalding, Livermore Falls, Maine. At 3.30 p.m. a large number assembled at the home of the bride to go on a wedding drive to the groom's home, where supper was served at 6 p. m. to over 50 invited guests, and a very pleasant evening was spent. At about 8 o'clock a large number of charavariers came to congratulate the bride and groom. The whole community join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. McArthur many years of unclouded happiness.

GIFF-GAFF MAKES GOOD FRIENDS.—In other words, if you wish the people of the west to patronise Charlottetown Exhibition, the people of Queen's should make it a point of honour to go to the Western Prince Exhibition at Alberton on Thursday, August 26. See page eight and make arrangements accordingly. 2627

PATRIOTIC TEA TO-DAY.—Citizens are asked to remember the tea on Victoria Park this afternoon in aid of the Machine Gun Fund. The ladies in charge of this patriotic move have spared no pains to make it as pleasant an outing as possible, and those who attend will have the double satisfaction of enjoying themselves and of contributing to a worthy cause. There should be a large attendance.

SIGNALLING SCHOOL.—A short school of signalling is about to be opened in Charlottetown. This will be an excellent opportunity for all boys interested to obtain certificates and become qualified signallers. Attendance at this school will incur no military obligations. All those intending to take the course must hand in their names at the Armouries between 4 and 5 o'clock this afternoon.

IN MEMORIAM

Laid to rest in Vernon River Cemetary Aug. 17th, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Masters, Hermitage, P. E. I.

The little crib is empty now,
The little clothes laid by;
A mother's hope, a father's joy,
In deaths cold arm doth lie.
God needed one more angle child
Amidst His shining band,
And so He bent with loving smile,
And clasped our darling's hand.

Jesus, while our hearts are bleeding,
O'er the spoils that death has won,
We would at this solemn moment;
Camly say, "Thy will be done."
Though cast down, we're not forsaken
Though afflicted, not alone!
Thou lid'st give and thou hast taken,
Blessed Lord, Thy will be done.

AMERICAN SECURITIES CARRIED ON THE ARABIC.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—It is understood that the Arabic carried between $10,000,000 and $15,000,000 worth of American securities for New York. These all were insured, but the underwriters at Lloyds and the various financial institutions were busy this morning looking up the details and arranging claims.

One firm alone had $1,250,000 worth of securities on the sunken vessel. It is understood that some stocks are being purchased in America to cover these.

CANADIANS IN FRENCH HOSPITALS

(Special to the Guardian.)

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Lieutenant-Col. Morrison, Ottawa, 1st Artillery Brigade, is an inmate of No. 2 Stationary Hospital at Le Toquet. Injured in July when his horse fell, he went into the clearing hospital for a few days and returned to duty, but was obliged to enter the hospital again. His injuries are rib and lung. Lieutenant-Colonel Morrison, who is editor of the Ottawa Citizen, is said to have a fine collection of notes on the war. Major Guthrie, Fredericton, in command of the 10th Battalion, formerly attached to the 12th Battalion, is in the same hospital, suffering from a shot wound in the ankle. The injury, which was received at Festubert, proved more serious than expected, and Major Guthrie may return to Canada soon. Lieut.-Col. Shillington, Ottawa, commander of No. 2 Stationary Hospital, is in London on short leave of absence after ten months in foreign service. The hospital, which left Salisbury Plains last November, was the first unit of Canadian forces to cross the Channel. The renowned Golf Hotel at Le Touquet has 560 beds with twenty McGill men as staff. Lord Northcliffe, Countess Derby and various British officers have been among recent visitors to this hospital, which, after the fighting at Ypres, handled 1,970 cases within a week.

At noon Saturday a Zeppelin alarm was sounded at the Canadian Record Office. Within ten minutes 600 men and women reached the basement in good order from the fifth, sixth and seventh floors.

MUSIC FOR SAVAGES.

A somewhat amusing incident of the effect of music on the savages of the Malay Archipelago is given by the Ranes of Sarawak in her book, "Sorawak and Its People." One day a war boat full of Dyaks, headedd by their chief, arrived in Kuching and came to the Astana to see the Rajah. The Dyaks had been until recently enemies of the Sarawak Government, owing to their usual failing—their love of headhunting. They had come to submit to their ruler, and to express contrition for their misdeeds. The Rajah wished to hear what the chief had to say, and gave him an audience in his private room. The chief's followers about fifty in number, who were not wanted at the interview, were left on the veranda, and the Rajah asked the Rance to keep them amused while he was engaged with the chfef. The writer says:—

"I made signs to the warrior to follow me into our drawing-room, thinking that the furniture might prove of interest. They wandered about, and, as I did not know their language, I opened the piano and struck a note two. The sound apparently delighted them, and I made signs to them to sit on the floor while I played the "Danse Negre" by Ascher. By grunts of satisfaction and nodding of the head they intimated their approval of my performance.

"As I went on I noticed that the rhythm of the music acted on them somewhat strangely. They reminded me of a number of marionettes with strings attached to their arms and legs, moved by invisible hands in time to the music. Their bodies, arms, and legs jerked spasmodically, and before I quite realized what had happened they all sprang to their feet and bounded about the room, yelling and waving their arms in the throes of an animated war dance. I did not know how to stop them:, and was beginning to feel apprehensive for the safety of the furniture, when, in the midst of the turmoil, the Rajah and the Chief suddenly appeared in the doorway.

"The warriors stopped at once and looked rather sheepish; some scratched themselves, while others cleared their throats, and they all fliopped down in squatting positions on the floor."

"COULD NOT LOOK FATHER IN THE EYES.

Disobedience to parents is the first step to the downward path. A circus was in the town and a little boy stood watching the great tent curiously. A neighbor coming up said: "Hello, Johnny! Are you going to the circus?"

"No, sir," answered Johnny. "Father don't like 'em."

"O well, I'll give you the money to go," said the man.

"Father don't approve of them."

"Well, go in for once. I'll pay for you."

"No, sir. My father would give me the money if he thought it best. Besides I've got twenty-five cents in my box enough to go."

"I'd go, Johnny, for once. It's wonderful the way the horses do," said the man. "Your father needn't know it."

"I can't" said the boy.

"Now, why?" asked the man.

"'Cause," said Johnny, after I'd been there I could not look father in the eyes, but I can now."

The boy who will never do anything that will prevent his looking straight into his father's eyes will never be a rebel.—Selected.
