Twelve Years Trouble Overcome in 30 Days

Tanlac Is The Only Thing That Ever Did Me Any Good in All These Years Says Pineau.

"In less than a month's time Tanlac has put me back in fine health after I had suffered for twelve years; and the statement made recently by E. P. Pineau who lives at 89 Myrtle Street, Portland, Maine, before coming to Portland, Mr. Pineau resided in Summerside, Prince Edward Island.

"I was bothered," he continued, "with an awful case of chronic indigestion and at times had acute attacks that nearly knocked me out. I couldn't eat any breakfast at all and hardly cared whether I ate anything at other times, in fact, I had reached the point where I was nearly afraid to even go to the table. "There was a bitter taste in my mouth all the time and I would blot all up with gas so bad, I could hardly stand it. Often I had severe cramping spells and at times the pains extended up into my chest and on through my shoulders. Whenever these spells came on me the gas was worse than ever and on several occasions

Minards Liniment for Dandruff.

Ions I didn't think I could pull through. I was weak and all run-down and couldn't work steadily at my trade.

"A few weeks ago I saw a statement from a person who described my case exactly who said Tanlac had fixed him up fine. I decided right then and there to try it myself and I can say now that Tanlac was a lucky find for me. My appetite is so good now that I enjoy three square meals every day and can eat anything on the table without a particle of trouble.

"That bitter taste has left my mouth and I haven't had a single spell of indigestion since I started on Tanlac. I consider myself a well man and I never have to miss a day from work any more. Tanlac is the only thing that ever did me any good in all these twelve years, and it has fixed me up in great shape."

Tanlac is sold in Charlottetown by Reddin Bros.; in Montague by H. J. Mabon; J. J. White; Murray River, H. M. Chisholm, North Tryon; R. H. Cameron & Co.; Crapaud; H. P. Coohon, Murray Harbor; Lord's Company, Borden; Lord's Company, Cape Traverse and Lord's Company, Carleton.

AT HOME.—The post-nuptial reception of Mrs. Frank W. Andrew held yesterday afternoon at her home, East Royalty proved an event of exceptional interest, guests to the number of about 100 being present. Mrs. J. B. Andrew and Mrs. W. H. Smith, mother of Mrs. Andrew received. Little Miss Isabel Andrew charmingly acted as dookeye and Miss Stewart ushered the guests to the dining room. Miss Muriel Andrew and Mrs. Victor Shaw served cake and Mrs. J. T. Ferguson served the tea. Mrs. Chester McLure poured tea. The drawing room was most tastefully and artistically decorated in yellow and the dining room in pink. The occasion proved to be one of much enjoyment to all present.

Seldom has a photoplay so profoundly stirred an audience as did the Paramount-Art-Craft picture, "The Miracle Man", at the Prince Edward Theatre last evening. The applause which followed the final fade-out and the delighted comments of the spectators were a splendid tribute to a photoplay which without a doubt, deserves a place beside the really great screen masterpieces of all times.

The story centres around a white haired patriarch of the hills who is credited with power to heal the sick and crippled. News of his prowess reaches Tom Burke, leader of an unscrupulous band of crooks in New York's Chinatown. He conceives the idea of using the healer for commercial purposes and taking the proceeds for himself and his pals, Rose, the Dope and the Frog.

Burke journeys to the village where the patriarch lives, and, by pretending to be ill, succeeds in establishing himself in the old man's cottage. Thither come Rose, who poses as a sweet, innocent girl, and the others. On the train, the Frog makes use of his ability to throw his body out of joint and to track the attention of Richard King, a millionaire who is travelling in his private car with his invalid sister. The Frog announces that he is going to the Miracle Man to be cured. King is inspired to seek help from the same source for his sister.

All aghast at the patriarch's village. Coached by Burke, the Frog crawls in his distorted shape to the Miracle Man's door, and when the healer appears, pretends suddenly to be able to stand erect. But some thing unforeseen happens. A little crippled boy, who has been looking on, utters a great shout and, throwing his crutches away, rushes to the patriarch's feet, and Claire King rises from the wheel-chair, which has held her from childhood.

The weeks following see Burke growing rich on the bequests of wealthy people who are cured by the healer. But a gradual change takes place in his pals, under the beneficent influence of the patriarch.

Only Burke is untouched. When he thinks King is about to win Rose, his sweetheart, he threatens to kill the millionaire. Then sud-

Out of the Under World

Imagine the worst sharks that exist in New York's Chinatown—a daring crackman, a beautiful girl as tough and wicked as a snake, a fakir, who counterfeits any deformity. A dope-fiend as sly as a weasel.

Imagine such crooks in a little village, invading the lives of other human beings as good as they are bad—the acid of sin striving to bite into the gold of pure hearts.

Imagine all you've known of good and bad in this world, and even then you can't imagine the wonderful appeal of

DICKY DIPPY'S DIARY

THURSDAY: GOT A JOB IN AN ANTIQUE SHOP "IN MY BUSINESS," SAID THE BOSS, "YOU MUST USE YOUR WITS. WATCH ME HANDLE A CUSTOMER AND YOU'LL LEARN!" THEN HE TOLD ME WHAT TO CHARGE FOR THINGS.

PRETTY SOON A MAN CAME IN AND ASKED THE PRICE OF A BUST OF NERO IN THE WINDOW. "AH!" SAID THE BOSS, "THAT, SIR, IS AN ABSOLUTELY ORIGINAL, UNIQUE ANTIQUE! THERE'S NOT ANOTHER LIKE IT! WHAT IS THE PRICE ON THIS BUST OF NERO, MR. DIPPY?"

"I THINK YOU SAID WE MUST GET $10 APIECE FOR THEM, SIR," I REPLIED.

I GOT THE BUST!
