Family Record.

One of the most beautiful pictures in color. Upon a background of PURE SOLID GOLD rests the FAMILY RECORD in the shape of a handsome volume with GOLD CLASSES upon a cushion of crimson velvet with a beautiful GOLD TASSEL. On the pages, under different headings, are spaces in which to write the name and date of birth. On either side is a beautiful scroll on which to record marriages and deaths. On the top of the picture are the words, "FAMILY RECORD" in the richest lettering known to printer's art. Under this are spaces for father's and mother's pictures. In the lower part of the picture is a beautiful home scene. The DEAR OLD GRANDPARENTS, THE HANDSOME STALWART HUSBAND and HAPPY YOUNG WIFE, the LOVING DAUGHTER and BABY-BOY—the IDOLIZED GRANDCHILD, are all gathered around the table while grandfather reads a portrait of GOD'S HOLY WORD. A truly beautiful scene. Underneath are the words, "GOD BLESS OUR FAMILY." Around this picture are eight spaces for photographs of other members of the family, each space enclosing a gem flower piece. Elsewhere on the picture are scattered creeping vines, buds and blossoms in which confusion the whole resting on and known into bold relief by the gorgeous background of Solid Gold which produces a picture of dazzling beauty.

Not To Be "Beaten"

The grocer examined it with the rest, and, intending to chaff the countryman said: "Fshaw! I've got something in the egg line that'll beat it."

"I'll bet you a dollar you haven't," said the countryman, getting excited.

"Right," replied the grocer; and going behind the counter, he brought out a wire egg-beater.

"There's something in the egg line that will beat it, I think," said he, reaching out for the money.

"Hold on, there," said the farmer; "let's see you beat it." And he handed the egg to the grocer.

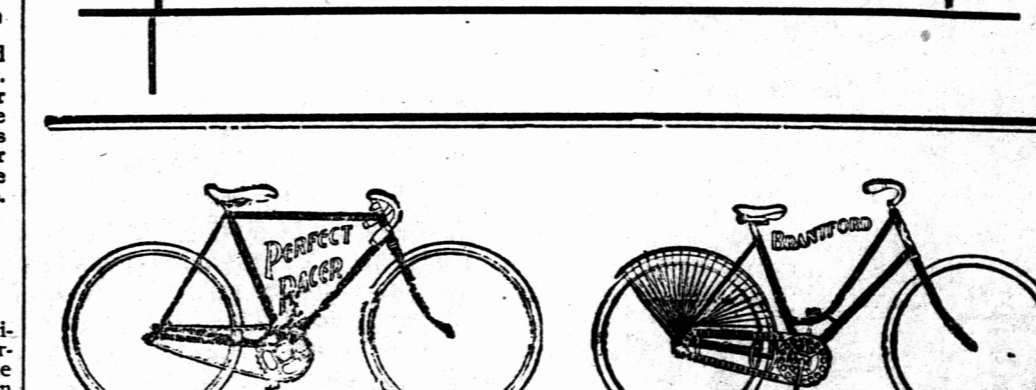

The latter held out his hand for it, but dropped it in surprise on the counter, where it broke two soup plates and a platter. It was of solid iron painted white.
