French Premier Warns Labor He Will Oppose Walk-out Called Wednesday

PARIS, Nov. 27.—(CP)—Premier Daladier tonight warned labor his 24-hour general strike called for next Wednesday in opposition to his financial and economic decrees was "unwarranted" and announced he would oppose it "to the end."

Told To Keep Striking

The workers had been ordered back to their jobs tomorrow pending the proposed general strike. But representatives of the committee told them today to keep striking until the Government's plan to extend the 40-hour week is announced.

Detachment Threat

Daladier in his broadcast charged that leaders behind the general strike movement were seeking to force the country to "accept the will of a proletarian minority directed by men with international connections."
