

THE WESTERN GUARDIAN

AGENTS: I. Elmer Murphy, 26 Hanover St., and O. J. Underhill, 100 Ottawa St., Summerside and Prince County News, Subscriptions, Advertising

The Guardian may be bought daily at any of the following news stores in Summerside: The News Store, Water Street, George's Drugstore, Water Street, The News Store, Water Street, Mark Gaudet, 67 Granville Street, Summerside.

The Guardian will be delivered to any home in Summerside, Prince County or the bay responsible for delivery on your route.

RECEIVED last shipment of 100 copies of the new book 'Mr. Winkle Goes to War' by E. J. Borden.

LOST Platinum male fox, left collar number 887, right ear, initials 'O.O.' Finder notify Albin Leaky, 100 Ottawa St., Summerside, 1-30-45.

JUNIOR HOCKEY, Bedouque rink, Tuesday, Jan. 30, North Bedouque vs. Albany, Admission 15 and 20 cents. Players at rink to bring birth certificates.

MAIL YOUR FILMS to Enman Drug and Photo Service, Summerside, 1-30-45.

WANTED - Maid for general housework. Apply Mrs. Ralph Parker, 25 Myrtle Street, Summerside, 1-30-45.

ARRIVES HOME - Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell arrived home in Summerside on Sunday morning from Quebec where he attended the International curling championship. The other members of the team which Campbell expected home last evening. They are Messrs. E. P. Foley, Earl Corry and Fred McRae.

SUMMERSIDE MIDGETS TO PLAY BORDEN - The first game of the Summerside Midgets will be played at the Borden rink Friday night.

COOKIES TRICKLE BORDEN - The first of the Borden team's cookies will be sold at the rink Friday night.

MISS BESSIE MACLEOD - The first of the Borden team's cookies will be sold at the rink Friday night.

Mrs. A. G. Chappell of Borden was a visitor to Charlottetown on Thursday.

Mrs. Reginald Rodgers of Borden left this week to join her daughter, Mrs. Bert Saunders, at Detroit. Later they will motor to Florida, U.S.A., where Mrs. Rodgers will spend a few weeks with her daughter and son-in-law.

Mrs. Lawson Outway of Conway visited relatives in Borden recently while en route to Truro.

Mr. Hector Ross of Fredericton, and Mr. William Ross of Borden were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hector MacKenzie of Borden on Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Walsh and little daughter Marjorie were visitors to Albany on Tuesday.

The regular auction party of the Borden Women's Institute was held on Tuesday evening at the Borden Hall with seven tables playing. Ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Willard Leard; gent's by Mr. George Jay. The consolation prizes went to Miss Helen Adams and Mr. Basil Sherry. The freestrip prize was won by Mrs. Camille Arsenault.

On Friday evening the Canadian Legion Auxiliary held an auction party at the Borden Hall. Ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Gordon Jay; gent's by Mr. Elmer MacInnis, with consolation prizes going to Mrs. Helen Adams and Mr. Basil Sherry. The freestrip prize was won by L.A.C. Elmer MacKenzie of Glace Bay.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

On Wednesday morning, November 24th, the wedding took place at the Sacred Heart Church at Borden of Mary Agnes MacKenna, youngest daughter of Charles and the late Mrs. MacKenna and Joseph Elmer MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacInnis of Borden. Rev. W. P. MacDonald officiating. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Mrs. Aloysius Croken, was attired in an Air Force blue dress with dusty rose trimming. She wore a black coat with silver fox trim and hat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Aloysius Croken. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung with Mrs. Reginald MacAleer as soloist and Mr. John Noonan as organist. Following the wedding Mrs. MacInnis departed for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Croken, the bridal couple leaving later in the day for Charlottetown.

TO-DAY

ALSO SHORT SUBJECTS SHOWS 7.30 - 9.15 Tuesday at 3.30

CAPITOL SUMMERSIDE

'MR. WINKLE GOES TO WAR' FILMED FROM BEST-SELLER

All America acclaimed the novel 'Mr. Winkle Goes to War' as the best-selling class novel. Now, starring Edward G. Robinson, Columbia is bringing its screen adaptation of this famous book to the Capitol Theatre and from preview reports, the film version is even more heart-warming and exciting than the printed page.

'Mr. Winkle Goes to War' tells the story of a timid bank clerk who is discontent with the routine of that life and so against his wife's violent objections resolves to carry on his own "fix-it" business with a young orphan lad, Harry.

Going on active service in September, 1940 with D. Company, North Nova Scotia Highlanders, he was posted overseas in July, 1941, with the West Nova Scotia Regiment.

He participated in some of the hottest action in Italy, including the Canadian "break-through" of the Hitler Line. He was wounded while on the march.

After crossing the Foglia River to us.

PRIZE WINNERS - The following are the winners in the drawing of the Provincial Sanatorium last night held a very beautiful Christmas party.

First prize, Mrs. W. J. A. MacInnis, 25 Myrtle Street; second prize, Mrs. L. O. Kelly, 25 Myrtle Street; third prize, Mrs. L. O. Kelly, 25 Myrtle Street; fourth prize, Mrs. L. O. Kelly, 25 Myrtle Street.

Province Is Congratulated

The following telegram was received yesterday by Mrs. J. A. MacInnis, 25 Myrtle Street, through the members of Section No. 3, Canadian Red Cross Corps.

"Congratulations to Prince Edward Island for the splendid results to date. You are the first province to pass your objective."

Meeting Of B. I. S. Play Committee

The regular weekly meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society Play Committee was held last evening with the President, L. O. Kelly, presiding.

Reports were heard from the different sub-committees and the committee completed to have the annual St. Patrick's play "The Rale McCoy", a comedy in three acts, at the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

After several other items were discussed the meeting came to a close for another week.

ADD BROADCAST - LAW

Hammond police said they believed the blast which occurred during the dinner hour originated in the heater part of an oil tank.

The cafe contained about 100 persons at the time. Scores of diners were said to have escaped through side entrances and windows.

chord and organist for the service of song; the janitor for his services in making us so comfortable; to Mr. Daniel Leary, who so cheerfully waited on us, moving tables, etc. for our use; to our hostesses for their gracious hospitality to our guest speaker, Miss Alice Gordon for her interesting and informative talk; the Presbyterian president and her staff of officers for their faithful service during the year, and to all others who in any way contributed to the success of this Presbyterian meeting.

Insurance ALL LINES RALPH MUTTART Summerside

PROFESSIONAL CARD T. E. HICKEY Chartered Accountant Office Summerside 11 Granville Street Summerside

Is Director Of Family Allowances

MAJOR ALLAN NICHOLSON

Major Allan Nicholson, of Montague, has been appointed Regional Director of Family Allowances for P. E. Island.

The office will be opened here yesterday by Mr. J. C. Rutledge, Ottawa, who is executive assistant for the Family Allowance scheme.

The office will be opened here on Saturday, February 3, in the old P. E. I. Telephone Building, 58 Queen Street.

There will be a staff of fifteen people for the department and later a treasury staff up to nine will be employed.

Payment of the Allowances will start in P. E. Island first, and the first cheques are expected to be mailed about July 20.

Maj. Nicholson, who lost a leg in Italy when he stepped on a land mine while leading a company in action, returned last month on the hospital ship Lady Nelson after nearly four years overseas. He began his military career with the old P. E. I. Light Horse, enlisting in June, 1918, and being promoted sergeant the following month. He was commissioned with that unit in 1934 and became 1st Lieutenant two years later.

Going on active service in September, 1940 with D. Company, North Nova Scotia Highlanders, he was posted overseas in July, 1941, with the West Nova Scotia Regiment.

He participated in some of the hottest action in Italy, including the Canadian "break-through" of the Hitler Line. He was wounded while on the march.

After crossing the Foglia River to us.

PRIZE WINNERS - The following are the winners in the drawing of the Provincial Sanatorium last night held a very beautiful Christmas party.

First prize, Mrs. W. J. A. MacInnis, 25 Myrtle Street; second prize, Mrs. L. O. Kelly, 25 Myrtle Street; third prize, Mrs. L. O. Kelly, 25 Myrtle Street; fourth prize, Mrs. L. O. Kelly, 25 Myrtle Street.

Province Is Congratulated

The following telegram was received yesterday by Mrs. J. A. MacInnis, 25 Myrtle Street, through the members of Section No. 3, Canadian Red Cross Corps.

"Congratulations to Prince Edward Island for the splendid results to date. You are the first province to pass your objective."

Meeting Of B. I. S. Play Committee

The regular weekly meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society Play Committee was held last evening with the President, L. O. Kelly, presiding.

Reports were heard from the different sub-committees and the committee completed to have the annual St. Patrick's play "The Rale McCoy", a comedy in three acts, at the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

After several other items were discussed the meeting came to a close for another week.

ADD BROADCAST - LAW

Hammond police said they believed the blast which occurred during the dinner hour originated in the heater part of an oil tank.

The cafe contained about 100 persons at the time. Scores of diners were said to have escaped through side entrances and windows.

chord and organist for the service of song; the janitor for his services in making us so comfortable; to Mr. Daniel Leary, who so cheerfully waited on us, moving tables, etc. for our use; to our hostesses for their gracious hospitality to our guest speaker, Miss Alice Gordon for her interesting and informative talk; the Presbyterian president and her staff of officers for their faithful service during the year, and to all others who in any way contributed to the success of this Presbyterian meeting.

Insurance ALL LINES RALPH MUTTART Summerside

PROFESSIONAL CARD T. E. HICKEY Chartered Accountant Office Summerside 11 Granville Street Summerside

WELCOMED TO P. E. I.

CONFEDERATION LIFE COOKS FOR PHOTOGRAPHS

DR. CARSON'S OFFICE is closed until February 6.

E. A. MacDONALD'S will be closed all day Tuesday and Wednesday for stock taking.

MOORE & McLEOD LTD. will be closed all day Tuesday and Wednesday for Stock Taking.

UNDERGOES OPERATION - Grant Ward, nine-year-old son of Mrs. and Mrs. Cecil Ward of Valley Street underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Prince Edward Island Hospital last night.

GYRO MEETING - The regular meeting of the Gyro Club was held at the Charlottetown Hotel last evening.

ISLAND DELEGATES - Seven delegates from the P. E. Island Needlework Guild will meet today with delegates from the other two Maritime Provinces at the Maritime Needlework Council which is being held in Montreal.

LEAVES FOR OTTAWA - Lieut. Kenneth Birwisle, R. C. N. V. R., returned Sunday from the mainland where he had gone to meet his wife, an English girl just arrived in Canada, when he learned of her arrival.

SERVICE AT SANATORIUM - Patients at the Provincial Sanatorium last night heard a very beautiful Christmas party.

PRIZE WINNERS - The following are the winners in the drawing of the Provincial Sanatorium last night held a very beautiful Christmas party.

Province Is Congratulated

The following telegram was received yesterday by Mrs. J. A. MacInnis, 25 Myrtle Street, through the members of Section No. 3, Canadian Red Cross Corps.

"Congratulations to Prince Edward Island for the splendid results to date. You are the first province to pass your objective."

Meeting Of B. I. S. Play Committee

The regular weekly meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society Play Committee was held last evening with the President, L. O. Kelly, presiding.

Reports were heard from the different sub-committees and the committee completed to have the annual St. Patrick's play "The Rale McCoy", a comedy in three acts, at the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

After several other items were discussed the meeting came to a close for another week.

ADD BROADCAST - LAW

Hammond police said they believed the blast which occurred during the dinner hour originated in the heater part of an oil tank.

The cafe contained about 100 persons at the time. Scores of diners were said to have escaped through side entrances and windows.

chord and organist for the service of song; the janitor for his services in making us so comfortable; to Mr. Daniel Leary, who so cheerfully waited on us, moving tables, etc. for our use; to our hostesses for their gracious hospitality to our guest speaker, Miss Alice Gordon for her interesting and informative talk; the Presbyterian president and her staff of officers for their faithful service during the year, and to all others who in any way contributed to the success of this Presbyterian meeting.

Insurance ALL LINES RALPH MUTTART Summerside

PROFESSIONAL CARD T. E. HICKEY Chartered Accountant Office Summerside 11 Granville Street Summerside

WELCOMED TO P. E. I.

CONFEDERATION LIFE COOKS FOR PHOTOGRAPHS

DR. CARSON'S OFFICE is closed until February 6.

E. A. MacDONALD'S will be closed all day Tuesday and Wednesday for stock taking.

MOORE & McLEOD LTD. will be closed all day Tuesday and Wednesday for Stock Taking.

UNDERGOES OPERATION - Grant Ward, nine-year-old son of Mrs. and Mrs. Cecil Ward of Valley Street underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Prince Edward Island Hospital last night.

GYRO MEETING - The regular meeting of the Gyro Club was held at the Charlottetown Hotel last evening.

ISLAND DELEGATES - Seven delegates from the P. E. Island Needlework Guild will meet today with delegates from the other two Maritime Provinces at the Maritime Needlework Council which is being held in Montreal.

LEAVES FOR OTTAWA - Lieut. Kenneth Birwisle, R. C. N. V. R., returned Sunday from the mainland where he had gone to meet his wife, an English girl just arrived in Canada, when he learned of her arrival.