

Looking Ahead with Hal Bohaker

There are many hundreds of far-sighted citizens in this district who are proud owners of homes which are being purchased out of current savings. These citizens are wise planners. They set aside so much of their income regularly for war savings, for mortgage obligations, for life insurance. Many have completed their programme of protection through the Sun Life of Canada by a simple adjustment of their normal budgeting plans which taken care of the mortgage in the event of untimely death of the wage earner. Thus if this tragic circumstance came about, the mortgage could be paid off in full and the family would not lose the home provided for them. If you are a home owner, just write or call, and I will gladly tell you how the Sun Life of Canada can protect your home investment.

WEST ROYALTY W.I.

The monthly meeting of West Royalty Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Edward Powley in the evening of Sept. 8th, with seventeen members and five visitors in attendance. The President presided and opened meeting with Creed in unison. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Collection amounted to $2.00 and two new members paid fees. Mrs. MacLure and Mrs. Stetson were appointed to collect for next month, meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Archibald MacLure with Mrs. Lem. MacKinnon and Mrs. Stewart MacKinnon on lunch committee.

The articles handed in at roll call were later very capably auctioned by Mrs. Powley and realized the sum of $12.75. It is hoped to have another sale at next meeting. A letter was read by the secretary from Mr. Edwin Johnstone, Campaign Chairman for the Salvation Army Drive, asking us to collect in the district and it was moved, seconded and voted that we collect the same as last year. A card of thanks was read from a Canadian prisoner-of-war in Germany who had received cigarettes sent to him by this Institute. Meeting closed with the National Anthem. A program followed consisting of piano selections by Miss Elizabeth Powley and a contest put on by Mrs. Erman and won by Mrs. Younker. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by the committee in charge.

"FISHERMAN'S PARADISE" — Under the foregoing heading W. Clark has this to say in his daily column in the Windsor Star: "The other day we had some wonderful trout. They were caught in Prince Edward Island by Arthur H. Mould, manager of the Canadian National Railways' Charlottetown Hotel, which is one of the reasons why so many people find the island a good place to visit. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mould are experts with rod and reel. They know where the trout are found and they talk to them and persuade them to grab the bait and take the hook. Fishermen find lots of trout on the island. Great big fellows are there waiting to be caught by the tourists who will be looking for them after victory has been won and people are able to get about more freely again."

Miss Rita Glozier, Bathurst, N. B. is registered at the Queen Hotel.

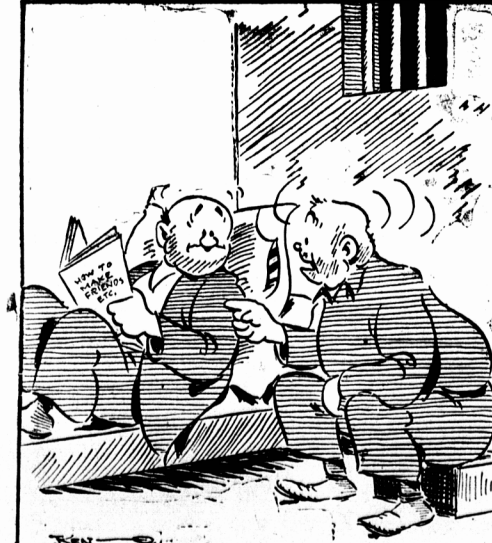

DEATH OF SISTER MARY JOSEPHINE WIDELY MOURNED

NORTH SYDNEY, Sept. 5.—Born May 17, 1856, Sister Mary Josephine (nee Catherine Mullen), a native of P.E.I., died at Hamilton Hospital, on Saturday evening Sept. 2, in her 88th year. She entered the Sisters of Charity of Halifax in 1881, and came to Mount Salem, Sister Mary Josephine, who spent her early years in the mission had opened. The Sister remained here for ten years, when she transferred to Glace Bay. She also taught at Prospect, Lourdes, Halifax and Eastport. In 1919, she returned to North Sydney where she has remained until her death.

On December 8, 1931, the Sister celebrated the golden anniversary of her religious profession. On this occasion, over one hundred former pupils presented her with a beautiful Gold Tabernacle door, which remains with us as a lasting token of the pupils' appreciation for their old teacher. Sister taught two years after her Jubilee, then retired from the active life of the convent chapel, living for God whom she sought and served. Sister's devotion to the Blessed Sacrament was outstanding and up to her last illness attended morning Mass in the chapel, even when she had to make extreme physical effort.

Her devotion to the poor and suffering was always marked, and her inquiries for the sick and dying were frequent and loving. The funeral was under the direction of W. A. Dooley. The pall bearers were: Colin McKenzie, K.C., of Sydney, T.M. Phelan, Peter McMullen, Joseph Desmond, J.C. McMullen, Edward Samson, all former pupils of the deceased Sister. The Mother House, Mount Saint Vincent, was represented by Sister M. Aquinas. Also attending were Sisters of Charity from the various missions and Sisters of Notre Dame. Rev. Capt. Vincent McDonnell officiated at the grave, assisted by Rev. J.A. Butts, P.P. and Rev. J. Edwards, C.C. Sister Mary Josephine referred to above was a sister of the late James Mullen of this city.

THE ROAD BACK. While Allied transport vehicles lumber forward to the front, French refugees, their worldly belongings with them, move back to their homes and villages. Awaiting them in their liberated country is a host of social and political problems, still unsolved and whose roots lie deep in the history of the French Republic. "Inside France", latest National Film Board release in its World In Action series, presents a close analysis of those problems, discusses the forces at work upon which the shaping of the peace in France may finally depend.
