MONDAY

RECEIVED A CALL—Rev. John Skinner, who has been pastor of the United Church at Sheet Harbor has received a call from the United Church at Belle River, P.E.I., which he has accepted. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner and family have been in Sheet Harbor over four years, and they intend to leave shortly for P. E. I., where Mr. Skinner will take up his new work.—New Glasgow News.

BELIEVED STOLEN ON MAIN—A C. N. R. detective is investigating the theft of four cartons of cigarettes, valued at $400, shipped by the Imperial Tobacco Company from their warehouse at St. John, N.B., to DeBlois Brothers here. It is believed that the cigarettes were taken while the car was standing, possibly overnight, on a siding on the mainland. Last week 7,000 cigarettes and 190 small cigars were reported missing from a freight car at Montague. It is understood this car is supposed to have been tampered with on the mainland.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. Benj. Nesbitt of Summerside was held on Friday afternoon. There was a short service at the house conducted by Rev. W. H. Harding followed by a service at the Presbyterian Church, which was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Jean. Both services were very largely attended by friends from town and country. The pallbearers were Messrs T. D. Ramsay, John S. Ramsay, Joseph Smallman, John MacRae, Merritt Dawson, and Maynard F. Schurman. Interment was in the Peoples Cemetery.—S.

DEATH OF MRS. RUSSELL CRAIG—There passed away after a long illness at her home in Chelton on Wednesday, Nov. 11th, Mrs. Russell Craig. She was formerly Miss Mary Ellen Howatt of Cape Traverse. She leaves to mourn her husband and seven children, namely: Mrs. Charles Robertson of Halifax, N. S.; Mrs. William Heckbert of Summerside; Mrs. Stanley Jack of Beque; Mrs. Verda, Miss Esther, Heath and Harrison at home to whom sympathy is extended. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon from her late residence, Rev. Mr. Archibald officiating.—S.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH—At the morning service in St. James Church yesterday Miss Lena McLure delighted the large congregation with an exceptionally fine rendering of "I Will Extol Thee, Oh Lord." (Michael Costa). The sermon by the minister, Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, B. D., was an inspiring message on the subject of "Faith." At the evening service there was a large choir which rendered with fine effect the beautiful anthem of Sullivan: "Thy Children Keep." This was in connection with a special service for young people conducted by the Minister, who gave a very fine and timely address on "Finding Oneself," based on the appearance of God's messenger to Gideon.

DEATH OF FORMER ISLANDER—Friends throughout the Island will learn with regret the passing away of Geo. Oliver Webster who passed suddenly away on Monday, Nov. 22nd at his home in North Vancouver at the age of 69 years. The funeral was held Thursday, Nov. 5th from Williamson's Chapel by Rev. James Thompson, officers of North Vancouver Lodge No. 55 I. O. O. F. of which the deceased was a member were in charge of the service at the graveside. Interment took place in Caplano View Cemetery. TUESDAY
The annual meeting of the Boy Scouts Association of Prince Edward Island was held last evening in the City Hall.
The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary, Mr. R. C. Parent and adopted.
The President, Mr. George Filler, then presented his report. He mentioned the visit to Charlottetown of the Governor General during which the Scouts helped considerably in keeping order during the ceremony at the Provincial Building. He referred to the visit this summer of Mr. J. A. Stiles, Chief Scout Commissioner for Canada. He remarked on the benefit of having such a Canadian President as Mr. E. W. Beatty. Mr. Filler concluded with a commendation of the results of the drive for associate members, there being at present eighty-five such members.

Mr. Thomas Bigger of Portage, is in the Prince County Hospital suffering from severe fractures of the leg received while working in the gravel pits at Lot 10.

REMARKABLE RECOVERY—Master Carl MacCaul, the eleven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. MacCaul of Ellerslie, who was severely burned a short time ago when playing with an old gun in which he had placed a loaded cartridge, returned to his home from the Prince County Hospital on Monday. It was feared at first that he would lose the sight of one eye, the eye ball having been struck with the copper cap of the cartridge. The cut required two stitches in the eye ball itself. It was a very delicate operation, but it was successful and was the means of saving the sight of the eye. S.

There passed quietly away in the P. E. I. Hospital, Charlottetown on the morning of November 6th, Margaret Catherine, daughter of Dan Malcolm and Mrs. MacDonald (Marion Ings), Lyndale. She was a bright little girl of two years of age. She had not been ill for a short time before her death, but it was not until she was taken to the hospital that it was found that the best medical skill could not save her life. She leaves to mourn their loss, her father and mother, a young brother, Arthur, and a large number of relatives. The funeral service, which was very largely attended, was conducted on Sunday afternoon by Rev. D. M. Sinclair, to the Valleyfield cemetery.

Those surviving are his wife, two brothers, John O. in North Vancouver, and Harry of this Province, and one sister, Mrs. Gordon MacFarlane, also of this province.

ISLANDER PROMOTED—Conductor James McDonald received news which will be gratifying, to the effect that his brother, Angus McDonald, a former air brake expert in the employ of the Duluth & Iron Range railroad, was made building inspector for the city of Denver, Colorado, recently. Mr. McDonald has been conspicuously identified in politics in Denver on a labor platform and served one term in the Colorado legislature. (The gentlemen referred to are brothers of Capt. John McDonald, Pinette).

THOMPSON-DENNIS NUPTIALS—The marriage took place in York Parsonage this morning at 8 o'clock of Miss Viola Bell Dennis, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Dennis, Marshfield, to Mr. William Irving Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thompson, Dunstaffnage, Rev. G. A. Christie officiating. The bride looked exceedingly girlish and pretty in a brown crepe-back satin dress with eggshell satin trimmings; also coat of brown broadcloth, with fox fur trimmings. Her hair of brown fell with feather and veil trimming, and shoes of brown and gold completed the ensemble. The bride and groom were unattended and left on this morning's train for Borden on a short honeymoon trip through the Maritimes. On their return they will reside at Dunstaffnage where the groom holds a responsible position as manager of the Dunstaffnage Creamery. The Guardian and friends join in wishing them heartfelt congratulations. (Patriot Please Copy)

PROMINENT RESIDENT PASSES—Mr. Percy O. Trenedick, of West Devon, passed away on Saturday last after a brief illness of one week. A prominent leader in the public life of the district, his death came as a shock to the whole community. The deceased was not a native of the Island. He was a sea captain and had sailed with the late Captain Miller. He settled in West Devon about 35 years ago, and married a Miss Moreshead of that place. He was a very progressive farmer and trader. He also took an active part in politics and ran in the election of 1923 as a Progressive member against Mr. A. C. Saunders, now Mr. Justice Saunders in the 2nd district of Prince County. He was a member of the Orange Lodge and an active worker in the United Church. About six years ago he was appointed a prohibition officer but resigned when he was made Potato Inspector of that district. He was well known in business circles as agent for Massey Harris Co. He was to the front in all things pertaining to the advancement of the community, especially in the school, and will be missed for his good judgment and upright dealings. In the home he was a kind and indulgent husband and father. There are left to mourn, besides his widow, two daughters, Mrs. John Matthews, of O'Leary and Mrs. Charles McNevin, of Coleman; and three sons, Irving, Verdon and Ernest at home to whom much sympathy is extended.—S.

PRODUCE FOR NFLD.—Steamer Magnhid cleared from this port Saturday night with a full cargo of produce for St. John's and the outports of Newfoundland. DeBlois Brothers, Ltd., were the principal shippers.

REV. NEIL HERMAN GETS CALL—Rev. Neil Herman, former pastor of First Baptist Church, has been extended a call by the West End Baptist Church, Halifax, that he take over the pastoral work of the church for a period of six months. Rev. Mr. Herman has occupied the pulpit at this church for the past two Sundays.—Moncton Times.

POTATO SHIPMENT—The S. S. Ida, Captain Johannsen, docked at the Railway Wharf about four o'clock yesterday afternoon from Bucksport, Maine. She is loading a cargo of some 30,000 sacks of potatoes for the Potato Growers' Association. On her way to New Jersey she will call at Georgetown to complete her cargo.

SERIOUSLY HURT—Mr. Maynard MacArthur was seriously hurt last week when the pit from which he was taking gravel caved in bruising his leg below the knee and hurting his foot. He was working at Arlington, Lot. 14 in the gravel pits of Mr. Leslie MacLean. Mr. MacArthur is resting comfortably, although not able to leave his bed.—S.

LEAVE FOR NEW YORK—Miss Elsie Nicholson and Miss Edith Brown of this city, registered nurses, who have been on a visit to their old home here, left yesterday morning by aeroplane on return to New York to resume their nursing duties. MIRACULOUS ESCAPE—A young lad of 17 years, Edward Gallant, son of Joseph E. Gallant, of Summerside, had a miraculous escape from serious injury on Tuesday when he fell into the hold of the b. S. Dapen, which is loading potatoes at the Marine Wharf. The boy was assisting with the loading when he missed his footing and fell headlong to the bottom of the hold, about 30 feet. His only injuries were a slight cut on his head and hand and a few bruises.—S.

SAD BEREAVEMENT—There passed away in the Prince County Hospital on Tuesday, Nov. 17, Miss Edna Gallant, at the early age of 19 years, after a few days' illness. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Gallant, of O'Leary, and was a very affectionate girl and a favorite in the community. The remains were taken on Monday evening to her home in O'Leary. There are left to mourn, besides her sorrowing parents, a large number of brothers and sisters to whom sincere sympathy is extended.—S.

A very quiet but interesting marriage was solemnized at the St. Mary's Church at Indian River, when Miss Helen Frances MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank MacDonald of New Annan, became the happy bride of Mr. Bernard E. Connolly, son of the late Patrick and Mrs. Connolly, of Centreville Beque. Rev. Reginald MacDonald P. P. having been the officiating clergyman. The witnesses of the ceremony being Mr. and Mrs. Austin Roberts of Kinkora. The bride and groom were unattended. The bride, looking very winsome in a suit of navy blue, with accessories to match, and wore a brown fox fur, the gift of the groom. Immediately following the ceremony the happy couple left on a short honeymoon trip. On their return, they removed to their new home in Centreville Beque, where the groom is a successful and prosperous farmer. Previous to their marriage the bride and groom respectively, were tendered several miscellaneous showers and were the recipients of many useful and beautiful gifts. Their many friends join in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Connolly a happy and prosperous journey through life.

RECEIVES STRANGE GIFT—A local man received an unexpected surprise package from the postman the other day. He was sent a box, which, when unwrapped revealed on the cover the legend "Beware of your head! K. K. K." Upon opening, there was revealed to his startled gaze a grinning skull. Further comment is unnecessary.

SYMPATHY EXPRESSED—Mr. and Mrs. Westley Wagner, of Summerside, have the sincere sympathy of their friends in the sudden death of their youngest son, Ernest, aged four months. The little one was only ill a few hours. Besides the parents there are a brother and sister left to mourn, Master George and Miss Ruby. The little one was laid to rest in the Peoples' Cemetery on Monday.—S.

ENJOYABLE BRIDGE—A very successful bridge was held last evening in the Holy Redeemer Church hall in aid of St. Vincent's orphanage. Dainty refreshments were served, the prizes being awarded as follows: Ladies; first, Miss Katie McKenna; ladies' second, Mrs. Charles MacDonald; consolation, Mrs. James F. Duffy; gentlemen's first, Mr. Joseph Hughes; gentlemen's second, Mr. W. Trainor; consolation, Mr. E. MacDonald. The bridge was under the auspices of St. Elizabeth's Aid Society.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT—While Mr. Gordon Crewe of Hunter River was grading potatoes on Saturday morning last he met with a very painful accident. Mr. Crewe was starting his gasoline engine and put his hand down on the grader unconsciously when it was going. He happened to wearing a pair of leather gloves and in some way his hand got caught in the cogs and before he was able to do anything it was drawn right in to the machine which mangled the hand very badly. The doctor who was at once summoned was obliged to remove him to the Prince Edward Island Hospital, where they found it necessary to amputate the four fingers. At latest reports he was resting comfortably. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Crewe in meeting with such a misfortune.—N.

"Budded on earth to bloom in Heaven." Those beautiful words were indeed truly realized when it became known that Alfred Hensley Macdonald, the beloved child of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Macdonald, Albany, had passed peacefully away at the age of three years and nine months. Everything possible was done to save the child, but medical skill proved of no avail and at nine o'clock in the evening this gentle spirit winged its flight homeward. He was a bright and lovable child, and during his short stay on this earth, by his bright ways and pleasant smile won the hearts of all who knew him. Besides a sorrowing father and mother he leaves also to mourn, three brothers and four sisters, Preston, Garnet, Alden, and Blanche, Verna, Jennie, Dorothy, who will ever cherish the memory of a beautiful child. The funeral was held on the afternoon of the 28th and was conducted by the Rev. Hensley R. Slavert and was a very impressive one. Interment was in the Presbyterian Cemetery at North Tryon. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved parents in their sudden sorrow.

The annual thankoffering service of the W. M. S. of St. James Church was held in the Hall last evening. Rev. R. Moorhead Legate presiding and introducing the speaker of the evening, Mrs. Gibson, wife of the Rev. Alexander Gibson, of Montague. A lady of charming personality, with an intimate personal knowledge of the Missionary and medical work of the Presbyterian Church in India, Mrs. Gibson gave an address of intense interest. She herself was a Bible woman in a hospital in Northern India, but confined her remarks principally to the strenuous work of the medical missionary, giving a vivid description of the active life of the woman doctor, for one day, which started at sunrise. She described the utter loneliness, and uninteresting life of the average woman in India, the neglect these women receive from their husbands, even from those who are educated and cultured gentlemen, and told how the Mission hospitals, manned by women doctors and women nurses were the only means of reaching these classes, owing to the purdah, which bars them from any intercourse with the male population, outside their own families. Here in the routine of hospital life, the love of God is instilled in their hearts and many instances of their results of the teaching received in these hospitals were given. The efficacy of prayer was stressed by the talented speaker who made her appeal so touching that courage was renewed to further in every way possible the work of the medical mission in India. Two lovely solos were given by Miss J. MacDonald and Mrs. Neil McLean, which added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. A hearty vote of thanks was moved by the President, Mrs. J. G. Jamieson, seconded by Mrs. H. Hillson and presented to Mrs. Gibson by Rev. Mr. Legate.

TUG FROM SOREL, QUEBEC, AT SUMMERSIDE—The tug, Mac Sin, of the Sin Mac Lines Co., Captain Rush, bound to St. John, N. B., from Sorel, Quebec, came into Summerside harbor on Thursday morning towing a large barge. She tied up at Marine wharf and proceeded to pump the water from the barge, which had sprung several leaks owing to the heavy seas they had encountered on the way. The tug had put in for the night at Cape Ball on the New Brunswick coast. They left Sorel on Nov. 10th and called at Quebec and other places on the way here. They expect to reach their destination by Monday evening if the weather is favorable. The barge is to be used in connection with drilling stone for the improvements being made at the east end docks at St. John. The first mate, who had been in Summerside some twenty years ago saw many changes for the better around the waterfront and also in the town.—S.

BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED—Mrs. Parnell McMahon, Kensington entertained on Thursday night in honor of Miss Helen Kelly whose marriage to Mr. Vernon Durant of Summerside takes place this week. The dining room was prettily decorated in blue and white and wedding bells. As the bride-elect tended to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. (Dr.) W. P. McBride, a large wedding bell opened and literally showered her. The gifts were opened and presented by Misses Margaret McMahon and Mary Power. Miss Kelly thanked her friends in a few well chosen words. Music and song whiled away the evening very pleasantly. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. After bouncing the bride-to-be and singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow," the guests departed wishing Helen every happiness.—K.

BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED—The community of Hamilton and Malpeque gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Mann of Indian River to tender a shower to their daughter, Miss Ethel, whose marriage is to take place in the near future. The house was charmingly arranged with autumn flowers and the bridal chair was draped with white ribbon and pink flow-ers. A miniature bride and groom, Miss Irene Hamilton and Master Kenneth MacKay preceded the bride into the room to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Alma Woodside. A dainty basket containing many lovely gifts was brought in. Miss Mattie Ramsay opened the gifts and Miss Retta Ramsay and Miss Ethel Adams read the accompanying verses. When all the presents had been admired, Miss Mann made a charming speech thanking one and all for their kind wishes and lovely gifts. A dainty lunch was served and the remainder of the evening spent in music and dancing.—S.

TUG FROM SOREL, QUEBEC, AT SUMMERSIDE—The tug, Mac Sin, of the Sin Mac Lines Co., Captain Rush, bound to St. John, N. B., from Sorel, Quebec, came into Summerside harbor on Thursday morning towing a large barge. She tied up at Marine wharf and proceeded to pump the water from the barge, which had sprung several leaks owing to the heavy seas they had encountered on the way. The tug had put in for the night at Cape Ball on the New Brunswick coast. They left Sorel on Nov. 10th and called at Quebec and other places on the way here. They expect to reach their destination by Monday evening if the weather is favorable. The barge is to be used in connection with drilling stone for the improvements being made at the east end docks at St. John. The first mate, who had been in Summerside some twenty years ago saw many changes for the better around the waterfront and also in the town.—S.
