THURSDAY'S FIRE LOSSES— The following estimate of insur- ance and property damage in the MacDonald Fire has been compil- ed—S. A. MacDonald—Value of stock $105,000; building $20,000. The stock will be a total loss and the building is damaged to the ex- tent of about $15,000. Total insur- ance on stock $50,000, on building, $7,000. LePage & Brady—Value of stock $25,000 about 2-3 destroyed by fire, water and smoke. Total insurance $15,000. Morris & Smith —Total value of stock between $30,000 and $40,000. Large por- tion destroyed by smoke and wa- ter. Total insurance $20,000. A. W and W. A Weeks, owners of build ing adjoining S. A. MacDonald. Value of building about $20,000. Top story gutted, other stories considerably damaged by water. Total insurance $9,000. The in- surance is distributed over 45 different companies, almost every agency in Charlottetown carrying a share. The largest single amount is $10,000 in the North West Mu- tual on S. A. MacDonald's stock. The adjustments are now being made by Mr. E. H. Beer. Yes- terday there was about 4 feet of water in the cellar of Macdonald's store and it was difficult to make a thorough examination but the furnace is said to be lying over on its side indicating that an ex- plosion may have occurred. Mr. E H Beer, Fire Marshall, com- menced an investigation into the cause of the fire taking the evi- dence of S A MacDonald and his clerk, W H MacKenzie.

HAS RELATIVES HERE. --The following from a Boston exchange reporting an educational meeting refers to Mrs. Fisk who is a sis- ter to Mr. Isaac Holman of this city:—At the annual meeting of the board of trustees held Thurs- day noon, three new trustees were elected to the board: Mrs. Louisa Holman Fisk, wife of Dr. E. O. Fisk of Brookline; Calvert Crary, prom- inent Methodist layman of New- tonville, and L. O. Hartman, edi- tor of Zion's Herald. Mrs. Fisk was one of the first women to receive the doctorate of philosophy from Boston University. She was grad- uated from the university in arts in 1883 and received her master's degree in 1887, and her doctor's de- gree four years later. She is a mem ber of Phi Beta Kappa. Formerly professor of Latin at Carleton Col lege and associate dean of Women at Ohio Wesleyan University, Mrs Fisk has had long experience in educational work. For a number of years she was executive secretary of the Student Hostel in Paris, France, where she was general secretary for the British-American Young Women's Christian Associa- tion in that city."

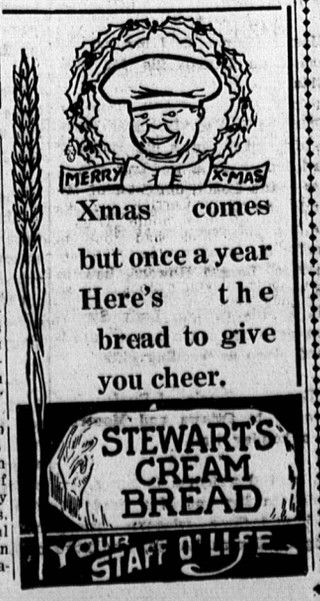
THE PEOPLE of the British Isles are great consumers of tea —but not as great as the people of Pictou county and Cape Breton —the latter use about 8 pound per head per annum—and here is an interesting fact, they drink tea of the best quality—they drink Morse's—have been drinking it for over 50 years.

POST OFFICE OBSERVANCE OF CHRISTMAS DAY—On Christ mas Day the Post Office wickets will be open from 10 a. m. to 12 noon. There will be one complete delivery by letter carriers on Christmas Day, commencing at 8 o'clock in the morning.

DR THOMAS STEWART IM- PROVING STEADILY. —A host of friends throughout the province will learn with gratification that Rev Dr Thomas Stewart, Moderat- or of the Maritime Synod of the Presbyterian Church, who has been ill, is now steadily improving his progress being most encourag- ing. This is genuinely good 'Christmas' news for all who know him.

BLAZE LAST NIGHT—Another blaze in the S. A. MacDonald building destroyed in Thursday's fire was put out with a few minu- tes application of the hose about 10.45 last night. The easterly breeze no doubt fanned the still smouldering embers and it is evi- dent that despite the deluge of water that has been applied there is still fire danger. The firemen are aware of this and had in fact expected a call earlier. The blaze sprung up near the front entrance on the lower floor. The alarm was phoned in by Mr. Reginald Mc Millan who evidently noticed the light of the blaze through the boarded windows while passing.

ISLANDER ARRIVES. — Mr H S Beaton, Winnipeg West ern sales manager for the Canadian Postum Cereal Company, ar- rived in the city Thursday night and left yesterday afternoon on a visit to his parents at Bonshaw. Mr Beaton who has been in the West twelve years, has big res- ponsibilities and a wide area of country to cover. During the present year he made five trips to from Fort William to Vancouver and reports everywhere a more optimistic feeling with regard to business conditions. The west- ern farmers have been hard hit during the past two years and this year's $500,000,000 has gone largely to liquidate debts. Cat- tle ranchers also have been hit on account of the embargo. But con- ditions are righting themselves and a good sign of the times is the comparatively small amount of un- employment. Oil industries are booming in Southern Alberta. Mr Beaton, who was registered yesterday at the Victoria Hotel is remaining on the Island ten days. where the temperature was twenty He left Winnipeg last Saturday below zero. At Chicago when he passed through this week it was three below.



NO WORRY FOR XMAS dinner, the Victoria Hotel is taking care of that. 10996-23-1i

ENJOYABLE BANQUET.— A most enjoyable banquet to the staff of the Victoria Hotel was given in their spacious dining room on Thursday evening by the popular manager Mr. H. C. Brown, and his most amiable wife. To say each and everyone enjoy- ed would be putting it mildly. This is an annual event and is eagerly looked forward to by the staff. A great addition to the enjoyment this year was the presence of the Casino Orchestra, who were very kind in offering their services to make the banquet a success. The management and the staff greatly appreciates the services of Mr. Blanchard and Mr. Owen Wen- ning and extend many, many thanks for the kindness. After the splendid menu was served and everybody well satisfied, Mr. Fred Duffy who acted as toast master proposed a toast to the manage- ment, which was responded to by Mr. R. H. Davison. A toast to the Hotel Veterans responded to by Mr. G. C. Crawford. A vote of thanks to the Orchestra was responded to by Mr A. Blanchard. Mr. W. K. Rogers and Mr S. A. MacLeod, the directors of the company addressed the staff, com plimenting them upon their loyal work and co-operation. The speak ers were cheered lustily. Mr. R. H Davison in a neat speech thank ed the directors for their kind words and assured them it would always be the endeavor to pro- mote the welfare of the hotel. Af- ter this F. P. Duffy, who played the role of Santa Claus, entered the dining room with a artistical- ly decorated basket filled with pre sents, which were presented to each and every one present, and a Christmas tree loaded with toys with comic verses, which were al- so issued, creating much laughter. The presents from the manage- ment were all beautiful and use- ful and each and everyone are greatful to their managers. A beautiful silver electric tea or cof- fee pot and a silver serving tray were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Brown from the staff. Mr. Brown accepted the present with a splen did address which was very in- teresting, giving the staff a brief outline of what he saw, on his trip to Toronto, and Ottawa. the evening: Violin Solo—Owen Wenning; Solo— Mr. F. P. Duffy Duet—Misses Perry and Murphy; Step Dance—B. Weatherbie; Solo —Dom. Buote. Gypsy Dance— Misses Campbell and J Perry, Step Dance—Margaret Murphy., Vocal Solo—Mr. D. Boute. The floor was then cleared and dancing in- dulged in until about 1 a. m. the proceedings closing with "Auld Lang Syne" and the National An- them.

THE NEATEST pair of men's slippers are the Fullman kid slip- pers—each pair done up in pouch A D. Well 9it.—sold by Alley Co. 10993-22-2i.

STREET FIGHTING. — Three arrests were made by Officers Walker and Wm. McInnis last night about 7 o'clock on Lower Queen Street where a drunken fight had developed. There were quite a number of spectators and there was evidently an old score to be settled. Blood flowed free- ly. A complaint is being made against Officer Walker by a Mr. Hearn from Johnstons River who hotel services, etc. The following programme was run off during declares that while only an on- looker to the rumpus he was at- tacked over the head by the police- man with his billy. He has at any rate a big weal on his head.

LARGE MAIL. — The busiest men in the city during the past few days were the mail handlers. Yesterday was a record day in the number of packages delivered and it is expected that today's delivery will be larger still. To insure the speediest possible delivery each carrier is provided with a team, vehicle and driver. Last night there were sixteen to eigh- teen hands engaged practically all night, those who go on duty today being relieved by a new relay at an early hour this morning. From indications at midnight it would appear as if everyone in the city was going to receive a Christ- mas present.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of James C. Sullivan, who died in Mon- treal, Dec. 19th, 1921.

We do not forget him we loved him so dearly.
For his memory to fade from our lives like a dream.
But the lips need not speak when the heart mourns sincerely,
For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen.
—Ever remembered by his wife and family.
