THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

Tonight new pictures at F-ryland. C. L. Grant, City, went West yesterday. W. F. Bozgis, City went to Souris yesterday. Miss Flossie Kelly, City, has arrived home from Stellarton. H. F. Lawrence, and Mrs. Lawrence, City went to Moncton yesterday. Mrs. J. Watson Eyles, of Stanley, will be at home on Wednesdays after Jan. 1st. Attention is called to notice of Danie McLaren, Belle River, which appears in this issue. The schooner M. J. Taylor which often comes in to the port of Charlottetown is now in Halifax and has been sold to parties in Mobile, Ala. Dr. Percy C. Crosby who holds a lucrative position with the Grand Trunk Pacific in the west, arrived from Winnipeg Christmas night on a visit to his old home, Marshfield. Miss Alice Matheson, teacher, of Cavendish school was in the city yesterday on her way east to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents Archibald and Mrs. Matheson of Dundas. After a very enjoyable trip by way of Chicago, St. Paul and Montreal J. H. and Mrs. Lawson of Manitoba have arrived at Hunt-River. They propose remaining for a few weeks with his parents, D. A. and Mrs. Lawson. The new timetable of the Prince Edward Island Railway for the winter season goes into effect on Monday next, and will be found in today's Guardian. The table, as published, will inform readers quite clearly of the movements of the different trains daily all over this Province. The Guardian has received from Martin McLean of the Davenport National Bank, Davenport, Wash., one of the bank's latest calendars. The picture is entitled Elk in Lake McDonald, and is set off by an artistic card frame. Mr. McLean is well known in this Province, being a son of William McLean, City. Elliott G. Stevenson, of Detroit, it is reported, has resigned the position of Supreme Chief Ranger of the Independent Order of Foresters, and Harry A. Collins Supreme Treasurer, has been appointed to succeed him. Mr. Collins is known to many people in Charlottetown. He and Mrs. Collins spent some weeks at the pleasant View Hotel, Hampton, some summers ago. The Nickel has four good pictures for tonight. Weary Willie's Luck shows the bright side of a tramp's life. Most every one has heard of Dick Turpin, see him riding his favorite mare Black Bess to death doing a charitable act. Disintegrated Convict. Many will wonder how it is done, the convict turns into most everything, and will not only keep you guessing but laughing as well. Colonial Exhibition is a very pretty picture that cannot fail to interest everyone. The illustrated song "When the Bluebirds Nest Again" will be sung by H. Murley. The semi-annual examination of the Pleasant Valley school took place on Monday last. Although the day was not pleasant a large number were present which was most encouraging to the teacher, Miss Elliott, whose excellent work is so well appreciated. The school was prettily decorated for the occasion. The examinations were conducted by Mr. McDonald of Springfield school and others. It was quite evident to those present, as each class was examined that they were well taught in the different subjects. After the lessons were completed the Rev. Henry Prince was elected chairman, while a choice program consisting of recitations, readings, solos and dialogues were carried out. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was passed to Miss Elliot for the creditable manner in which her pupils acquitted themselves. The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem. General regret is expressed for the death of Henry Court, an old and respected resident of Donaldston, which took place on Saturday last, somewhat unexpectedly. He was in his seventy-second year, and had been in Charlottetown on the day previous to his death, which is attributed to heart disease. He leaves to survive him a widow and seven sons and four daughters as follows: William Dunn's passage; John H. and Joseph, at Donaldston; Harry, who is baker at Falconwood; Fred, Leonard and George, on the homestead. The daughters are: Mrs. L. McCallum, Bedford; Mrs. C. C. Ellis, Donaldston; Mrs. George Bishop, of the Arlington House, Charlottetown; Miss Susan, Lawrence, Mass. The funeral took place on Monday, the pallbearers being J. A. McAulay, Patrick Morris, Wm. Dover, Wm. Ketzler, John S. McDonald, and Wm. Bishop. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Watson of Mt. Stewart.

Clara McKay, Bedford, is in the City. James Towan, City, has arrived home from Boston. J. J. Chappell, City, is out again after his recent illness. Walter Towan, New Glasgow, is visiting his home in this city. Miss Lydie Stewart, O'Leary, has been in this city for the past few days. Rev. H. G. Sinclair was a passenger to this City by the Murray Harbor train yesterday morning. Gordon Sutherland of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, City, has gone to Montreal on a visit. A Sunflower chorus is one of the features of the concert in First Methodist Schoolroom tonight. Miss Winnie Beer who spent Christmas in this City, left yesterday on return to Summerside. The Misses Mamie and Clara Bonnell, Hopefield, were passengers to this City by the Murray Harbor train yesterday morning. Any young boy who desires to run errands and make himself generally useful around an office should apply at The Guardian at once. T. O. James, Miss James, and Miss Mary James, City, were the guests of Rev. A. G. and Mr. J. Miller, Alberton, for the past few days. Miss Margaret Smith, teacher a Tarantula, is spending the Christmas holidays with her parents James and Mrs. Smith Great George Street. The person, who on Monday last picked up in or near the post office a pair of gold rimmed nose glasses in a black case, will please report at Guardian Office, a once. The death occurred at Glen William Dec. 23rd, of William, son of Peter and Mrs. Matheson, in the 25th year of his age. He was highly respected by all with whom he came in contact as a man of high character and amiable disposition. His health had not been good for some years, although he travelled extensively in the hope that climatic differences would improve his health but to no avail. He leaves three sisters Mary and Christy in the States and Mrs. Angus McLeod in Glen William and two brothers, John at home and Donald in Western Canada. To his sorrowing relatives the sympathy of the community is extended. Many friends in this City and throughout this Province will regret to hear that a telegram was received in this City telling of the death of James McDonald, which and event occurred at his home in Westville, N. S., on Tuesday Dec. 24th. Mr. McDonald will be remembered as having been one of the principal contractors on the Prince Edward Island Railway and quite recently in connection with the sewerage system in this city. He was also interested in the work of constructing the new reservoir and both in work and social life was most favorably thought of. He was buried at Westville yesterday afternoon.
