STOCK MARKET SENSATION.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Smouldering rumors that somebody made money in the stock market with "leak" information about the sending of President Wilson's peace note created a sensational session of the house rules committee today at its first hearing on Representative Wood's resolution for an investigation.

Specially declaring he made charges against no one and was presenting only information that had come to him, Wood brought in the names of Secretary Tumulty, "a Mr. Bolling," a brother of President Wilson's wife whom he did not further identify; Bernard Baruch, a New York stock operator; Otto H. Kuhn of Kahn, Leob & Company, and others.

When Secretary Tumulty learned that Representative Wood had mentioned his name he issued a formal statement, demanding a public apology and denying flatly that he even knew of the President's peace note before it was made public.

Kahn Denies Story.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Otto H. Kahn, of Kahn, Leob & Company, and most of the others mentioned by Representative Wood in his testimony, have come out with formal denials of his allegations so far as these refer to them.

ROBERT HAYNES WHO HAS JOINED NAVY FITTINGLY REMEMBERED

On Monday evening Mr. Robert Haynes employed in Mr. Murdoch Ross' tailoring establishment on Great George Street, was called upon by Mr. Ross and the employees and was presented with a valuable military wristlet watch. As previously announced Mr. Haynes has volunteered for service in the navy and has been accepted. He has tried repeatedly to be accepted for overseas service with the land forces but before this could come up to the physical requirements. Needless to say he was deeply touched by this token of regard on the part of his employer and fellow workers and made an excellent reply thanking them for their kind and thoughtful action. An address which accompanied the gift read as follows:—

Jan. 8th, 1917
Dear Robert:—

It is with deep regret and yet with pride that we hear of your leaving us for Overseas service. Under the existing circumstances it is a duty we all owe to our Country and you certainly have shown in no uncertain manner your patriotism in trying on different occasions to pass the necessary examination. And as the old maxim goes "If at first you don't succeed try again" you certainly have proved the truth of that saying, and we know full well that you will do your part nobly for your Country.

We, your fellow workers cannot forget the pleasant times we have had in your company and would ask you to accept this small token, not for its intrinsic value, but as a kind remembrance from us all, and trust that in due time you will return to us safely after doing your bit for King and Country.

Signed by Mr. Ross and Employees

ADDRESS OF APPRECIATION

Mr. Duncan McDonald, Georgetown.

Dear Mr. McDonald:—

At this, the Christmas season of the year when perhaps more than at any other time the spirit of unselfishness and good fellowship is abroad we, your friends of the Onward Farmers' Institute wish to show that we are not forgetful of your kindness and sacrifice in furnishing such excellent music as you did at our annual picnic. As we listened to those soul stirring airs of "Auld Scotland" played by one recognized by all as the foremost piper of the province we could not but recall the words of Burns dear to the heart of every Scot:—

"Then let us pray that come it may,
As come it will for a' that,
When man to man the world o'er,
Shall brothers be for a' that."

It is simply in the spirit of brotherhood that we address you at this time, and ask that you may accept this small gift not for its intrinsic value as a slight token of our thankfulness for your kindness in the past. Wishing you every joy and blessing of this, the Christmas season, upon you and yours, we remain,
Your friends of the Onward Farmers' Institute.

Mr. John Gordon, Brudenell.
Dear Mr. Gordon:—

We hardly know how to express our feelings towards you at this time. We feel that anything we say will be but a poor tribute to the unselfish efforts you have made for the welfare of the Onward Institute. We trust however that you will consider this.
