

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

SATURDAY Guardian fifty cents a year. HENRY C BAULD, Halifax, spent Sunday in Charlottetown.

Rev. WILLIAM DOBSON is visiting his many friends in Charlottetown.

Mrs. DAVID SUTHERLAND and daughter are at the North Shore for a week.

Miss GERTRUDE McPHERSON, now a trained nurse at Newton, Mass., is home on a visit.

A TEAM of players from the Charlottetown Golf Club will probably go to Halifax early in September to try a game or two with the players there.

ANY young lady with a good common school education, who desires to learn proof-reading, and type-setting, should apply at this office at once.

AN ice-boat is stranded high and dry at the west end of Richmond Street and lies in a dangerous position—especially for passing horses. It threatens to become a total wreck.

THE annual picnic of the Gordons and McLarens, was held on Bradenell Island on Thursday. It was largely attended, considering other attractions, and a very pleasant time was spent.

A. J. McLEAN of the Prince Edward Island Railway, has gone to St. Thomas, Ont., to attend the meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Mrs. McLean accompanied him.

Eighteen members of the St. John Golf Club arrived here Saturday night and will play a match game with the Charlottetown Club on the Bevidere Links on Wednesday and Thursday.

THERE is some talk of arranging the Hillsborough Skating Rink for roller skating in the summer season. In St. John, roller-skating has been revived and is being patronized with all the old-time fervor.

ASSISTANT PURSER GRACE of the Halifax, who was conveyed to the Prince Edward Island Hospital, shortly after the steamer arrived here on her last trip, is reported to be making a good progress towards recovery from his illness.

It is currently reported that Hon David Laird, Indian Commissioner, will be superannuated shortly, and that his successor will be S. Jackson, M. P. for Selkirk. Ministers will not confirm this report, but there are the best of reasons for believing it to be true.

SUMMER festivities prevail in the romantic neighborhood of Holland Cove. The establishment of the regular Summer camps has created a scene of activity and the delights of the outdoor life are supplemented by pleasant social events. Mr. Justice Fitzgerald's summer cottage was the scene of a happy gathering last week.

Mrs. JOHN CAMERON, Pownall St. left by this morning's express on a visit to her son Harry, chief Clerk in the New England Passenger Assn. Co's office, Boston. She was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Nellie, late in the employ of Matthew & McLean, Sours, who will remain with her brother during the summer.

Those who want work of any kind or are looking for help of any kind should send their names and addresses with all particulars or call at The Guardian Employment Bureau, New Prowse Block, Charlottetown. Telephone 1928. Those who do not desire to advertise will please send 25 cents with their request, which amount will be returned to them on application if they do not get what they want.

THE report of the past year's work of the Temple of Honor and Temperance has just been completed. The report deals in general with the work of the order in the Maritime Provinces, and states that special attention is to be paid to the organization of the sections, or boys' lodges, which are to be carried into the various parts of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia during the coming year, and which will be introduced into Prince Edward Island for the first time.

THE Rev. P. H. Feetham and wife, from Pine City, Minnesota, are spending a few days with John Henry and family. Mr. Feetham is the only living brother of Mrs. Henry and they have not seen each other for about thirty years. Mr. Feetham was formerly a teacher in the public schools of this country and a graduate of the Prince Edward Island Normal School. He taught in New Glasgow, Margate, and Lot 14 districts, and is well known in the western part of the Island. He was converted in the Methodist Church of this city, and commenced working as a local preacher very soon after. On leaving this country he was ordained as a preacher of the gospel in the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States.

D LINDSTONE, of Prince Edward Island, was in Moncton on the 19th.

Mrs M F DALTON, of Prince Edward Island, is visiting in Moncton.

Miss BARRATT left last week to make a stay with friends in Dalhousie, N. B.

Mrs. JOHN HORNS of this city, returned home Saturday from a visit to friends in Searletown.

Mrs C H BURKE and Miss McKie Pagwash, are among the recent arrivals in Charlottetown.

Mrs C W MANNING and child, of Fredericton, have left for a visit to Prince Edward Island.

A L AND Mrs WRIGHT, of Moncton will spend some time visiting friends in Prince Edward Island.

The Saturday Guardian, only fifty cents a year is an excellent gift for that friend of yours abroad. Subscribe for it today.

AMONG the visitors at Shaw's Hotel, Brackley Point, are Hon. J. W. Hanna, Provincial Secretary of Ontario, and Mrs. Hanna.

C J McCARTHY, of St Paul (Minn), who has been visiting his old home in Prince Edward Island was in St. John on the 21st inst., at the Grand Union Hotel.

The right kind of a boy can secure a position with rapid promotion, if he applies at this office at once. Several good boys have secured good positions recently.

In correcting the error in the name J. K. McGee in Saturday's issue, another regrettable error occurred, the former local having appeared in the issue of "Thursday" instead of "Tuesday."

A VERY enjoyable occasion last week was the dinner prepared and served by the pupils of the Domestic Science Class at the Hillsboro Consolidated School to which the trustee and others were invited and was heartily appreciated.

AMOS BURNS, manager of the Empire Liniment Co., Ltd., Bridgetown, N. S. spent Sunday in this city. Mr. Burns is here in the interests of his excellent preparation Empire Liniment, which is in such great demand everywhere.

AMONG the guests at the Cliff is Charles Drinkwater of Toronto, who with his family will remain for a few days. Mr. Drinkwater is now Secretary of the C. P. R., and was Sir John Macdonald's secretary when the first Confederation Conference was held here.

GOOD progress is being made with the new granolithic sidewalks now being laid down in the city, and the completed work is most satisfactory. But there are many complaints about bad places in the wooden sidewalks, in various places. These defects however are being remedied as quickly as possible.

At the Provincial Fair recently held in Edmonton Ella Perkins got first prize for cross stitch on linen; and Winnie Perkins first for Mount Mellick Work, white; second for Battenburg lace collection; and third for collection of Hardanger embroidery. Both are daughters of Fred Perkins, formerly of Charlottetown.

JOHN M McLEOD, formerly of Stratballyn, arrived on the island a few days ago, and is visiting his sister, Mrs. (Rev.) J. W. Kenzie, of St. Peter's. Mr. McLeod finished his course in medicine at McGill, this spring, with distinction, having taken high honors in pathology, gynaecology, and mental diseases. His name is another added to the growing list of Stratballyn young men who reflect credit on their native Province. He will leave for the United States in a few days, where he has the offer of a good position in the State Hospital for the Insane at Howard, Rhode Island.—Com.

IN connection with the accident on Hillsboro Bridge on Monday last, as reported in The Guardian of the following morning, Patrick Kelly, who is in charge of the bridge, advises that the horse was not on the bridge, but in the field next the entrance to the bridge. Mr Kelly states that he stopped the driver at 3.30 p.m., and the latter turned the horse and carriage around. The lady got out and stood by Mr Kelly while the driver hitched the horse to a post in the field, then left him and walked back to where the young lady stood. The train blowing as it went on the approach to the bridge frightened the horse, and the latter broke his bridle. He further states that the driver was 150 yards away from the horse at the time of the accident talking to the young lady, and that the horse ran up the street.
