

THE PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Summerside, John Dickleson, Agent, and in Alberton, Herbert Clark, Agent.

The latest news, first of all.

Alexander Drake, Vernon River, is visiting in Summerside, the guest of Wm and Mrs Minto.

There is no ice in Summerside Harbor yet and the Empress made the round trip to Point du Chene, Christmas 1909.

At Summerside Christmas Day passed off quietly. Services were held in St Paul's and St Mary's Churches. The weather was fine and there was a considerable amount of sleigh driving. Happyland Matinee for the children, in the afternoon, was well patronized. The in-coming trains arrived close up to their schedule time and brought in quite a number of passengers to partake of the Christmas turkey with their friends. The opening of the new rink did not take place, there being not enough frost to make ice.

All amounts for Guardian advertising and subscriptions in Alberton and vicinity should be paid to H. Clark, agent. 12-27drft.

Part of the cargo of the Empress, leaving Summerside on Friday last, was 3,000 bags of oats shipped by Jos Read & Co. There were also 200 dressed hogs and a very large quantity dressed poultry besides an unusual quantity of smelts. T. Hays, St John, had four fine horses on board.

The S.S. Beatrice, Capt. Hickey, five days from Summerside, P. E. I., arrived in port this morning with general cargo of produce. She is consigned to T. B. Clift, and has hay, oats, beets, carrots, straw and 24 boxes of poultry. She begins discharging this afternoon. Capt. Hickey is a Newfoundlander.—St John's, Nfld. Herald.

MacLellan Bros

IMPERIAL Gasoline Motors.

These Motors are better designed, built and equipped than any other two cycle Motor offered for sale in Canada. Fishermen and pleasure boat owners, are requested to send for Catalogue and full particulars before placing orders elsewhere. All we ask is a fair comparison with other Motors, and we are satisfied we can make good our statements. We are always ready and willing to assist and give information in regard to the running of the Motors. And then again, the advantage there is in being able to secure any parts that may be required from time to time, right at home, instead of having to send abroad for them—which you would have to do, if you purchase a foreign make.

The musical event of the season is booked for New Year's night in Market Hall when the Presbyterian choir, assisted by other talent, will give its annual concert. A splendid program has been prepared consisting of vocal and instrumental music in solos and choruses, readings, etc., in which the best talent available will take part. Admission 25 cents; reserved seats 35 cents. Plan of hall at Empman's drug store, Summerside.

The heavy snow fall of last week caused many disappointments to those who had their plans all arranged for a happy Christmas. The roads throughout the country districts were in many parts impassable and many persons who had planned to be with their friends on Xmas Day had to remain at home. The Railway officials and trainmen had no end of trouble in their efforts to keep up the traffic. The train from Tignish on Friday, due in Charlottetown at noon did not reach there till night and the afternoon train from Charlottetown, due in Summerside at 6 p. m., did not arrive till after ten p. m. All along the line at the different stations, travellers had to wait hour after hour, some anxious to meet friends, others wishing to get on board.

A social event, of more than ordinary interest took place at the home of Jas Ramsay, Tyne Valley, on Wednesday evening, Dec 15th when their daughter, Miss Laura Belle was united in marriage with Daniel J. McAusland of the same place. Promptly at eight o'clock the burial party entered the prettily decorated parlor to the strains of the wedding march, which was skillfully rendered by Miss Belle Millar, and took up their positions under a beautiful floral bell. The bride was given away by her father, and the solemn words which united two happy hearts were spoken by the Rev R.G. Sinclair in the presence of upwards of one hundred guests. The bride, charmingly gowned in a semi-princess costume of white cashmere, with lace and applique trimmings, wore a bridal veil and carried a magnificent bouquet of bride's roses and maiden-hair fern. Miss Lila Sheen, becomingly attired in a costume of pink cashmere very gracefully performed the duties of bridesmaid, while Burns McAusland in a happy manner supported the groom. After the ceremony the company sat down to a repast prepared in Mrs Ramsay's best style, and the evening was pleasantly whiled away with music, dancing and happy conversation. An elegant fur-lined coat was the groom's gift to the bride and to the bridesmaid a dainty Amethyst pin. Among the many costly and useful articles presented as a mark of esteem to the bride, special mention must be made of a gift, from the Presbyterian Choir, of which the bride had for several years been Organist, accompanied by the following address:—On the eve of your marriage to Daniel Irving McAusland, in view of the pleasant associations enjoyed with you, as organist of the Presbyterian Church, and our strong appreciation of your fine musical talent, we, the undersigned members of the choir feel it our duty to present you with this tea set and hanging lamp—trusting that the brightness of the light which may proceed from it, as it shines within the portals, be truly suggestive of a home, radiant with the light of love, joy and happiness, and that the following beautiful words may be a true proto type of your experience. "After all, those are the happiest, who find their career ending a good man's love, and their world bounded by the four walls of home," signed—Alfred Phillips, Laughlin McNevin, J. K. Ramsay, Jas Millar, D. N. Forbes, Clayton Forbes, Mrs Jas Millar, Belle Millar, Gadsby Forbes, R. B. Grant, Millard Phillips.
