MONTHLY MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Light And Power Situation Discussed And Resolution To Employ Expert Suggested. Other Business Transacted.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Council was held last night in the Council Chamber, His Worship Mayor Yeo presiding.

Councillors, Prowse, Kennedy, Reardon, Holman, MacDougall, MacLeod, Foster and Dougan were present.

After the minutes of the last meetings had been read and adopted and before passing to the business of the meeting His Worship expressed his pleasure at seeing Councillor MacDougall present and restored to health.

The bills were then read, and, on motion, were ordered to be paid as read.

A communication was read from the Rollo Chemical Company, stating that at a meeting of the company, Angus MacEachern was elected as Captain, and requesting the City Council to confirm the appointment.

There was also one from F. G. Spencer, the lesee of the Strand Theatre, stating that he wished to renew his lease for two years after September 6th, 1928.

There was a letter from the secretary of the school board bringing to the attention of the council the fact that Mr. W. K. Rogers' term of service on the school board expires shortly.

Also a communication from Mr. W. P. Doull advocating the appointment of an electrical expert, and offering his services.

The Health Officer had nothing to report. The report of the milk and meat inspector was then read, and on motion adopted.

Councillor Prowse then read tenders from five bond dealers giving figures at which they would sell debentures.

They were not so favourable as that offered by the Great West Life Insurance Company for a block of the debentures. They offered 99 for them.

Councillor Foster thought such tenders should be dealt with immediately. He thought it would be a good idea for the finance committee to deal with the matter at once.

Councillor Holman thought that if the Great West Insurance Company felt that our Bonds were worth 99, possibly other insurance companies might be willing to buy them also.

It was decided to leave the matter to the finance committee.

Councillor Foster for the street committee thought the work in the streets was going on very satisfactorily. While some citizens had complained of the men loafing the City Engineer reported that they had never worked better. He also spoke of the excellent character of the concrete surface on Gerald Street. Prince Street will be ready for the Lavia tomorrow, he said.

On Fitzroy street they will not perhaps be able to go on with the concrete until the end of the month.

He explained that a survey had been made of Spring Park, and that it would be better to surface it with concrete as on Gerald Street, than with gravel. So it was decided to do this work on Spring Park Road, and to put down only curb and gutters on Fitzroy between Queen and Rochford.

He spoke further of a concrete walk which it was proposed to put down on the east end of Kent street. Councillor Foster dealt in detail wtih the new sidewalks, of which 2 1-4 square miles had been laid down particularly in ward five. He also dealt with the proposed concrete culvert at Brighton avenue. In a few years time if a little were done year by year it would soon all be Councillor Dougan for the Fire Committee reported damage to two lengths of hose at the Railway warehouse fire, due to cars passing over it.

His Worship, speaking of the Light Committee report said that, even at this hour the Council should spend some money, get an expert, and have him go into the whole matter. He felt, in particular, that the commercial rates were inequitable. He said that, even if the Council passed the contract he, as Mayor would hesitate to sign it.

Councillor Kennedy said that he felt the Electric Light Company would not permit an expert to go down and examine their plant. He felt that all an expert could do would be to go into the matter of the building of a municipal plant. He felt that the residential rates were as low as could possibly be got. He stated that as for the power rates, they were not prepared to enter into any contract. The commercial rate seemed to be the hard one to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion on.

His Worship called for an expression of opinion on the part of the Councillors.

Councillor Foster thought the residential rate was a good one, but he did not think that was true of the commercial rate. He expressed himself as in accord with the Mayor's opinion, and he thought it should lay over.

Councillor MacLeod spoke in favour of securing the opinion of an expert before the contract would be passed.

Councillor Dougan also felt that the contract should not be signed, and that an expert should be secured, as did also Councillors MacDougall and Holman.

The latter speaker dealt with the savings the city would effect if it were to build its own plant. He doubted if it would cost more than three or four hundred thousand dollars, and said that we could give the citizens the present schedule of rates, retire the bond and yet pay six per cent on the investment. There were savings to be effected for instance by the use of electricity at the pumping station. He quoted figures to prove this.

Councillor Reardon explained that the Light Committee had not secured an expert bfeore, as the light company would not turn open their plant to him.

Councillor Prowse also felt that expert information should be secured.

His Worship suggested to Councillor Kennedy that he prepare a suitable resolution on the matter, and also commended to his consideration the letter of Mr. Doull.

Councillor Kennedy felt that, in the appointing of an expert or inspector it would be well to stand clear of the underwriters, and have a man acting solely in the interests of the citizens.

Councillor Holman felt, too, that if an outside expert should be brought in we should have our own inspector who could check up on him.

His Worship thought this idea a good one.

Councillor Reardon for the health committee said that he had nothing to report.

Resolutions were then read as follows:

Resolved that a sum be voted for the purpose of having band concerts on the Square.

Also a resolution confirming the appointment of Angus MacEachern, as Captain of the Chemical car and Hose Company;

One calling for tenders for the construction of a concrete culvert over Spring Park creek, at Victoria Street;

A resolution authorizing the reissue of debentures to replace those which came due in June and July.

And one calling the attention of Mr. Spencer to the fact that three months notice was required for the renewal of the Strand Theatre license, instead of two, and enquiring if he wished to accept the said notice of two months he had given as tantamount to a renewal.

It was decided to hold a special meeting of the Council in the near future.

His Worship announced that the Chairman of the Finance Committee requested all the other Councillors to hand in their estimates.

Councillor Reardon suggested that something be done toward mitigating the stringency of the Sunday closing laws for the restaurants. There seemed to be considerable complaint from citizens.

Councillor Prowse supported the views of Councillor Reardon in the matter.

Councillor Holman defended the restaurant by-laws, and said that the restaurant keepers of the city had waited on him requesting that the by-laws remain as they are. He felt the interests of small grocers and confectioners should be considered also. He was satisfied that if the law were given a fair trial, it would work out satisfactorily, and he would be the last one to inflict a hardship on anyone.

Councillor Prowse expressed himself with Councillor Holman's explanation.

Councillor Reardon thought the law was rather hard on tourists coming in from out of town late at night.

His Worship thought the great mass of citizens were highly pleased with the respectable Sabbath which had prevailed the last two Sundays since the by-law had gone into effect.

Councillor Holman gave notice of a motion to be presented at the next meeting of Council to amend the traffic by-laws.

Premier Bracken, who has placed Manitoba's position regarding the Seven Sisters Falls project, one of the most important developments in the history of the province, before the federal government. A spirited battle is imminent. Col. Fawcett Taylor, leader of the Conservative opposition, heads the movement to grant the site on the Winnipeg river to the Manitoba Hydro, while the government favors granting it to the Winnipeg Electric Co., reserving a block of power for the Hydro.

Duke Schiller's License Suspended

(Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, July 9.—It was announced from the department of national defence today that the air pilot's license held by Duke Schiller, a flier for the Transcontinental airways, has been suspended for six months. Schiller was held responsible for the recent flying accident at St. Huberts near Montreal. Suspension of the license has followed an inquiry.

(The power desired was to make the corner of Elm Avenue and Euston a one way stop street, instead of a two way stop street as at present laid down in the by-laws.)

(The meeting was then adjourned.)

Councillor Prowse expressed his pleasure at the report, mentioning especially the proposed work on Spring Park Road, and also the work on the side walks.

Councillor Dougan drew the attention of the Council to the need for some work in ward one and particularly King Street, which badly needed gravel.

Councillor Foster said that owing to a lack of gravel, it was not possible to go on with all the work as quickly as desired.

His Worship the Mayor hoped that something would be said about what was proposed in regard to Government Pond.

Councillor Foster stated that he and the surveyor had thought it was a matter for the Public Property Committee.

Councillor MacLeod said he hoped it would be left in the hands of Councillor Foster.

Councillor Holman remarked that the pond seemed to have disappeared completely.

His Worship thought the time had come to go after the matter man fashion. The whole council, he felt was interested. The time for temporising was past, and, he felt the thing should be tackled in dead earnest.

Councillor Foster said that the City surveyor had prepared data and an estimate of the cost of cleaning it out. It would run to $2800.00.

Councillor MacLeod said he thought the matter came under the street committee, not under the Public Property Committee. Otherwise he would also have taken the matter up with the City Surveyor.

His Worship said that there was no reflection intended on the industry of Councillor MacLeod. There was always some uncertainty as to the jurisdiction over the pond. He said that the estimate of the cost to make a real beauty spot of it would be some $15,000.00 to $20,000.00.

It was decided that the Public Property Committee would report on it at the next special meeting.

Councillor MacLeod of the Public Property Committee said that they were not yet in a position to report as to repairs to the roof of the Market Building. He next alluded to repairs to the bathing houses and various other public properties which came under his purview.

He brought up the matter of band concerts on the square, saying the bands had been working hard, and would be able to provide music. A resolution would be brought in on the subject.

His Worship expressed his pleasure that a move was being taken in providing band concerts. He then directed the attention of the committee to Mr. Spencer's offer to renew the lease on the Strand theatre.

The City Recorder explained the legal position of the matter.

Councillor MacDougall for the Market Committee said that he had nothing to report at present.

The Police Report was then read by the City Clerk. It is as follows:

It is reported that Prima de Rivera, the Spanish dictator, and Senorita Castellanos, ABOVE, have been reconciled and will marry secretly. The Spanish premier recently broke the engagement, announcing that his fiancee had been seen on the stock exchange speculating with two men. It is now said the marriage would not be announced until after the ceremony. There was no confirmation of the report from any other source. SUPREME COURT YESTERDAY

Weeks Larceny Case Receives Hearing.

MONDAY MORNING SESSION

At yesterday morning's session of the Supreme Court, the case of the King vs. Frank Weeks, indicted for larceny was heard, His Lordship Mr. Justice Haszard presiding. The Crown was represented by Attorney General Saunders.

And the accused by Mr. R. Bell, and Mr. David Mathieson.

The Jury were as follows:

Seymour Murphy, James A. Campbell, Roderick MacDonald, Maurice O'Connell, David White, Everett Ferguson, Edward Carragher, Bernard Coady, William Connick, Thomas Harper, James Finlay, James Monaghan.

They elected Mr. James Finlay to act as their Foreman.

The charge in the indictment was that the accused had stolen a cream separator from the custody of the C. N. R. at Winsloe early in July, 1927.

The Attorney General addressed the jury on behalf of the Crown, outlining briefly the salient points of the evidence which the Crown proposed to present.

The first witness called for the Crown was Armand Goulet, separator salesman of Montreal. As Mr. Goulet spoke only in French he was heard through an interpreter, Frank Doiron.

The witness testified as follows:

I live in Montreal, and am a travelling salesman for the De Laval Separator Co.

When the separator in question was shipped the shipper was sick, and I took his place. I remember that I shipped four separators to John MacInnes during that month. I made out the bill myself.

(Some documents were shown, and identified by the witness as bills of lading for the separators, the serial numbers shown being the same as those on the separators.)

He went on to say that he had shipped the goods personally, via the C. N. R. about June 25th. A record is kept of the serial numbers, the purpose of which is to keep a record of the separators sent out. These serial numbers are never repeated.

A separator was brought into court, and identified by witness as one of those sent to MacInnes. He found the serial number both on the bowl and on the body. He also identified a box produced as a box in which De Laval separators are boxed; a sign produced as a De Laval sign. One of these signs is placed in the box with each separator, when it is crated for shipment.

Cross examined by Mr. Mathieson. He stated that he had had eight years experience as shipper in the De Laval Offices. The bill was made out on the 25th, and the goods sent out on the 26th or 27th. It is a large concern, and there are seven employed in the shipping department. About this time of year, they would ship about twenty per day. When the shipping department receives them, they are ready to ship.

The serial numbers are marked on the covers of the boxes, and a book of instructions is put by the shippers in every box. Witness stated that the numbers on the machine, box and book are checked and recorded. In this case he kept
