FOR A LILY WHITE NECK, DO THESE

Here are a few beauty tips for you to carry out in your own home when you have a few moments' leisure.

To whiten your neck, mix some lemon juice with four times as much glycerine, and stir in enough powdered starch to form the whole into a paste. Plaster this all over the neck with a soft cloth and allow to remain on until quite dry. Wash off gently with pure lemon juice in warm water, and finally dry with a soft towel. The longer you can leave the paste mixture on the better.

Powder should always be rubbed over your neck at the same time as you are applying it to your face—and as often—thus it keeps two skin textures at the same delicate coloring.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

OUT FROM THE HEARTH

Out from the hearthstone the children go,
Fair as the sunshine, pure as the snow,
A licensed wrong on the crowded street,
Waits for the coming of the children's feet.
Child of the rich, child of the poor,
Go to their wreck through the dram shop door,
Oh say, will they ever come back as they go,
Fair as the sunshine, pure as the snow?

Out from the hearthstone the children fair,
Pass from the breath of a mother's prayer.
Shall a father's vote on the crowded street,
Consent to the doom of his children's feet
Oh, fathers and mothers, your finest gold grows dim,
Black with the rust of such nameless sin.
O say, will your dearest come back as they go,
Fair as the sunshine, pure as the snow.

SUPERINTENDENT OF PEACE AND INTERATIONAL RELATIONS

Mrs. P. J. Rowe

Re Goodwill Day

In a few weeks the children of Wales will broadcast their Goodwill message to the boys and girls of the world. They began this lovely custom May 18, 1922, the anniversary of the first Peace Conference at The Hague in 1899. They received no replies that first year nor the next, but now the replies come in by the hundreds. I hope we can assist in getting this message to as many young Canadians as possible and encourage the idea of sending replies.

Here are a few suggestions:

Ask your local radio station to have a goodwill program and send them a copy of the Welsh message with other suggestions which may be had from the League of Nations' Society.

Why not ask the minister to deal with the Welsh message on May 18. Send him a copy. He might be grateful for the suggestion and be glad to co-operate. Think of the value of having devotions based on that wonderful message from Wales.

Contact the sponsors of musical programs, tell them about Goodwill Day and ask them to have their program include selections by famous composers of various nations.

Magazines usually feature something special for St. Patrick's Day and St. Valentine's Day, etc., why not Goodwill Day? Write to the editors of those magazines coming into your homes and suggest that they give a writeup on the origin and importance of the observance of Goodwill Day. This needs to be done at once. Ask other people to do the same.

Later on, request the editor of your local newspaper to write an editorial on the message. The papers can all remind us of the anniversaries of battles. Isn't it time equal prominence was given to attempts to gain international understanding. Appeal to them to give publicity to the message and replies from the local groups.

The local ministers are usually very ready to refer to this international day, if reminded. What about displaying the message on the church calendar?

Aproach the teachers in the local schools, Sunday Schools, Mission Bands, etc., and try to secure reolies from each group.

In England the Peace workers are urging their Government to call a World Conference (after adequate preparation) to get at the causes of friction existing today. Deladier, the French Premier, speaking in the Chamber of Deputies on Jan. 26, 1939, said: "I am ready to take up the idea of an international conference ....." Premier Savage, of New Zealand, advocates the same course. Last November our Dominion W.C.T.U. Executive passed a resolution along this line also (February "Tidings") Let us use the occasion of Goodwill Day to make known the idea embodied in this resolution, thus emphasizing the need of removing the Causes of Conflict. Only by establishing the conditions in which peace can flourish may the dream of universal world peace envisaged in the Welsh Children's message come true.

There is a little play, "The Spirit of Peace Points the Way," which was used at the Ontario Provincial Convention. Would it fit into your Goodwill Day observance?

STATIONS ON THE WAY TO DISASTER

Drink transforms the civilized, courteous gentleman into the ignorant and uncouth savage who was his ancestor

The majority of accidents do not occur in fog or rain or snow. Clear days witnessed 81.5 per cent of the accidents in 1937.

Wet, snowy and icy roads are not responsible for most of the accidents. In 1937 76.4 per cent occurred on dry roads.

The drunken pedestrian is as great a problem on the highway as the drunken driver.

In a study made by the National Safety Council of 10,000 New Jersey accidents in 1936 it was found that one or both drivers had been drinking in 17 per cent of cases.

In 1937 there was one motor vehicle death every thirteen minutes, 108 motor vehicle deaths per day. There were three motor vehicle injuries every minute and 3,700 per day.

As the night clubs and roadhouses move to the country to avoid strict police supervision the rural accident death rate increases in comparison with the urban rate.

The place to stop drunken driving is where it originates. The majority of those leaving night clubs and other places where liquors are sold late in the evening are unfit to drive.

In 1937 there were 35 traffic injuries for each traffic death; 150 accidents involving property damages per death. The majority of both fatal and non-fatal accidents on the highway occur on Saturday and Sudnay, the days of greatest drinking.

On Monday, 24th April, the Wolf Cubs of 5th Charlottetown Group (Zion) had a very pleasant surprise in the form of a visit by two old members of the pack, Scouts Doug. Hill and Ben Williams, who brought with them a treat of apples for all present. The Cubs would enjoy this visit of two of their old chums who have "gone up", and no doubt the Scouts enjoyed the renewal of old associations.

Sponsoring bodies, group committees, Scoutmasters, etc., are urged to make every effort to have troops and packs ready for the visit of the King and Queen who will be in Charlottetown on June 14th from 12:30 p. m. to 4 p. m.

The present intention is that Scouts, Cubs and Rovers will line the streets from lower Great George Street on. They will be in the first line and therefore must be in uniform with staves. Detailed information will be given later.

Get your orders for uniforms, etc., in early as there will be a great rush at Dominion Headquarters.

Special trains are being arranged for, to bring school children and others into Charlottetown, so we may expect all our out of town brothers to be with us on the 14th.

Watch for news, concening the coming celebrations, in this column.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Boy Scouts Association is being held on Monday 8th instant at 4 p. m. Matters in connection with the King's Birthday, the Royal visit and the celebration in honour of the Fathers of Confederation will probably be discussed at this meeting.

Scoutmasters and Cubmasters are again urged to pay attention to special training for the events of the coming summer.

Mr. Douglas Henderson, former Field Secretary, is paying a visit to Charlottetown and renewing old friendships. "Doug" will have charge of a Provincial Scout Camp in Nova Scotia this summer. It runs from May 15th to September 15th with a succession of troops. Eight troops have already booked dates for the season.—Grey Wolf.

OLD AGE

Don't let us worry about old age The thing is to forget it, keep hands and heart busy and full of interest in the passing show; be kindly, charitable; give all the benefit of the doubt, so that when we pass it may be said of us, "He loved his fellow-men." There should be nothing to dismay us as the sun moves to its setting. For do we not all travel home?—Annie S. Swan.

"May I see Mr. ——?" asked a lady journalist of a stern-looking woman who confronted her at the house of a newly-arrived resident. "No, you can't" answered the lady decisively. "But I want to know what party he belongs to!" pleaded the girl. "Well, take a good look at me," said the woman — "I'm the party he belongs to!"
