

WILLIE WESTINGHOUSE GETS PAPA INTO A LAKE OF TROUBLE

Dear Tommy: Papa is afraid of gasoline launches and don't like to row, so I fixed up a scheme like this.

It's a great deal easier than rowing.

Papa thought it was great—

When he got into a race with a motor boat and started to scorch.

This shook the braces down, and he rode, kerplunk, into the bay—

And it took more than an hour to fish up my wheel. Yours, Willie.
