

ITS OUR TREAT

So just drop into our store and we will serve you with a dish of the McLaren jelly with whipped cream. Ice cold, as delicious as fallen snow, pure as the ever fallen snow. These jellies are free from any foreign odor or gluey taste, are flavored with our fruit extracts giving them the real fruits flavors, same as the day the fruit was taken from the vine. FREE to you on Saturday, August 6th.

YESTERDAY morning before daybreak the hatch that Hugh Monaghan had placed in front of the store on Queen Street, occupied by Dillon & Spillet, and owned by him, mysteriously disappeared. The work of concreting was begun by the city at an early hour and before noon when the hatchway had been, was filled in with the permanent sidewalk.

YESTERDAY was another very bright day at the Golf Links. Quite a large number of players and their friends were present. We have again to thank Mrs. Smith for very handsome prizes for clock golf contest. The putting was very keen and interesting and lasted the whole afternoon. Some of the scores were very close, and the prizes were finally won by Mrs. Tooker, with a score of 24, and Dr. Blanchard who made the round in 23. The Club is very much indebted to Mrs. Conde and Mrs. Smith for the interest they they have manifested and the handsome prizes they have given for putting which is one of the most important parts of the game of golf.

The Morning Star Mission Band of Eldon held their picnic Saturday afternoon, on the beautiful grounds of William Gurney, Lower Newton. The day was all that could be desired. A large number was present, and a pleasant afternoon was spent, singing was greatly indulged in by the little folks. Music was furnished by Bolser Bros. which added greatly to the amusement of all. The society was photographed by Mr. Buchanan. Much thanks is due those who made the picnic such a success.

The Guardian is asked by Capt. Bartlett to make the following statement: The Council of the P. E. I. Rifle Association in order to meet the wishes of the large majority of the competitors have decided to reconsider their decision and to allow the P. E. I. Match to remain a three-range match. The 600 yard range is cut out, as in consequence of the train arrangement it is impossible to shoot it. In its place at 8 o'clock this morning seven rounds will be shot at 500 yards. The 2.30 tickets of yesterday afternoon will be called at 8 o'clock.

At a meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade yesterday afternoon the delegates to go to Moncton were chosen as follows: Nelson Ratcliff, Horace H. Sward, Geo. E. Hughes, F. L. Hazzard, W. F. Tidmarsh, Donald Nicholson, W. W. Stanley and probably another one. The subjects suggested for discussion were: The best means of developing the fisheries of the M. P., the adjustment of freight rates between points on the P. E. I. R. and points on the I. C. R., making through rates instead of what is practically three rail rates as at present winter and summer both ways, express privileges and facilities to be given of P. E. I. R. and International to Dominion Express Company.

A fashionable and most interesting event took place in Amherst, N. S. last evening at the magnificent home of C. J. Silliker when his daughter Miss Lena became the bride of Roy C. Lee, in the employ of the Robb Engineering Co. and son of James Lee, Victoria. The nuptials were solemnized in a beautiful arch of evergreens and white banyan with palms and ferns, Rev. A. Hawkes and Dr. Chapman officiating. The bride was attired in white crepe du chene trimmed with pink and esprit lace over white tulle, and carried a snow-bonnet of white roses and maiden hair fern and was given away by her father. She was attended by her sister Miss Grace Silliker who was dressed in the green tulle with white chiffon and lace trimmings and carried a bouquet of maiden hair fern, while Miss Lillian Cole of Moncton performed the duties of flower girl. The groom was supported by his cousin Arthur Ridson of Specker Red of Togo. Miss Vera Lee sister of the groom played the wedding march continuing the intense service all through the ceremony. The large number of elegant gifts testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. The bridal party leave today to spend their honeymoon in this province remaining here two or three weeks. To the happy couple The Guardian joins with a host of friends in extending best wishes for a life of wedded bliss.
