'BLIND JUSTICE'

Under the above caption, but really to show that big money weighs heavily in the scales of justice sometimes, and in some places, the Boston Post cites two instances from the proceedings of the law courts across the border. The first of these is the case of Al Adams, better known as the millionaire Polley King of New York. He made his money by fleecing the poor in the illegal polley gambling shops.
Brought to trial, he was sentenced to a year in Sing Sing prison and the payment of a heavy fine. The Post says an appeal will very likely be "allowed". In the meantime the millionaire convict is taking his meals at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, walking and driving about town at his pleasure, living in luxury and without restraint except as some sheriff's officers are keeping him in sight most of the time!

Another incident that came to light upon the proceedings in regard to divorce.
Eight years ago the wife of William K.
Vaanderbilt, and her husband was prohibited from marrying again during her life. A justice of the Supreme Court of New York has now modified the decree, Senator Chauncey M. Depew making affidavit to the "good conduct" of Mr. Vanderbilt during the past five years, and he is free to marry if he pleases. These and other instances lend color to the Post's contention that justice discriminates between the rich and the poor, and that "money has weight in the scales of justice."

We feel obliged to The Patriot for the highest compliment it could pay us—its dispraise. Although somewhat clumsily written, the object of rendering us a service was made sufficiently apparent. We are also sorry that our contemporary is still far from feeling well.

During the past three years the exports of the United States have stood pretty nearly stationary while the imports have very largely increased. During the past twelve months for the first time the imports of foreign merchandise have exceeded a thousand million dollars, and this in the face of a most exacting and oppressive tariff. The only real reason for TURNING DOWN THE DOCTORS.

The marvellous cures of Catarrhones are being much talked about. Thousands are daily recognizing the exceptional merit of this simple inhaier treatment, and instead of running to the doctor with their winter flus they protect themselves by Catarrhones; it kills colds in the head in ten minutes, quickly relieves Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Lung Troubles, and cures even though all other failed. Catarrhones is very pleasant, safe and convenient to use. Its best recommendation is its enormous sale; try it to-day. Price $1.00, small size 50c, at Druggists.

the rapid increase of imports has been the prevailing high prices of commodities in the United States when compared with commodity prices in other parts of the world. This shows that the manufacturers of the Republic are exacting from consumers the last dollar and the last cent which a very high tariff enables them to exact. In the meantime the same manufacturers are selling their products to foreign countries at a much lower rate than the American people are compelled to pay.

The threat of Premier Peters to pass an act to restrain the press was probably one which he would not have made except in a perturbed moment. But be that as it may we beg to point out to the Premier a more excellent way. Let the affairs of the Government be so conducted as not to call for severe criticism. Let its public acts be not only upright and honorable, but such as will appear upright and honorable. The press had been for years either altogether favorable or most lenient in its criticisms, until some members of the Government and of its party became tangled up in transactions which did not wear a favorable or creditable appearance. Mr. Peters could not gag the press if he would. It would be most impolitic for him to attempt to do so.
There is nothing that the people would recoen with so quickly or so effectively.
It would be the beginning of the end, and the end would not be long delayed.
In many years of journalism we have not met such undue sensitiveness to fair criticism, or such a snarling, irritable and angry attitude toward the press as has characterised the present session of the Legislature. Why is this?

feeling of exhaustion, weakened nerves, headache and a dull brain. The proper cure is one Ferrozone Tablet after each meal. Ferrozone clears and beautifies the scription of one of the newest styles.
