The cement pavement is now being laid between the New Bank of Montreal and the sidewalk. The scaffolding has been taken down from the front of the building and the debris cleared up and the building now presents a very creditable appearance. Above the main entrance, sculptured in stone, is the Royal Arms with the words "Conce dia Salus" encircling it. This is quite a novelty for this town but is a beautiful ornament. The work on the remainder of the building is progressing and when finished, it will be one of the finest edifices in Charlottetown.

The weather all through this summer and autumn have been remarkable. It has been almost a perfect growing season. All crops have matured well and the yield was excellent. This fall weather is more than ordinary. Every day is a day to be enjoyed. In fact it has been so much like summer over again that plants have produced a second crop in many cases. Many beautiful crops of second growth clover hay have been cut. A great many pastures are green yet. While other provinces and parts of the mainland have been suffering from snow storms, this Province has been enjoying summer weather. At this time last year and before this, snow and sleet and cold weather had set in. The 27th of October last year was a most disagreeable day. Snow sleet and rain made it a most disagreeable day. Surely Providence is favoring this Garden of the Gulf. This province is going forward towards cleanliness in many respects, cleanliness in temperance, in jections and in the moral standing of the people. Surely this is a spot worth spending a life in, a spot where the young people can make a good, honest living, a spot where they are surrounded with everything that tends to lead them to a better life.
