

IN THIS CORNER

Groundwork for the proposed hockey league comprising six squads will likely be laid at a meeting to be held next Tuesday evening it was learned last evening.

Since the meeting held last Tuesday afternoon members of the different clubs have been busy contacting well-known sports followers of the city and the latter men will be in attendance at the coming meeting.

Idea of having these men present will be to have a state of officers to carry on the work of the league as is possible. If those interested in the league acquire the services of the men they have in mind then the league should function in a smooth manner.

Idea of the league has been getting very favorable mention throughout the city and it is the consensus of opinion that the schedule of games would go over in a big manner.

Three civilian teams will be in operation in addition to the armed forces squads and this idea too, charged from having just boys from the services from a league which was the first idea, has attracted a lot of attention and this too puts a favorable light on the league.

Result of Tuesday night's meeting will be watched for eagerly. Definite information on the subject will then be available and it is likely that opening dates of the league will also be decided upon.

News of the painful mishap to Bernie Blinn, in which the well-known Island skater suffered two broken legs in Britain, will be felt keenly and especially among the followers of the midgeting game.

Bennie was probably one of the most colorful of Island boxers. Usually when Blinn was fighting he meant big crowds and the younger always put on a good show. Courage plus a hard right hand punch were Blinn's big stocks in trade and many the time this writer has watched Blinn make two possessions pay off when the odds were stacked against him.

Whether or not the injury will mean that Blinn's fighting days are over is not known here but it will be sincerely hoped by all sports followers that Blinn will come out of it with colors flying and no ill effects will follow.

Speaking of all-star selections among former N. H. L. players a writer in the Ottawa Journal says in part:

And last but not least, perhaps, are the Smeaton all-star selections. "I've steered clear of that for a long time, but I'm through with hockey now and after all there's only my impressions. Lots of people won't agree, but I will pick two teams from the time I've been looking at them. Of the players I've watched in the early part of my refereeing career I'll name:

"Goal, Georges Veina; defence, Lionel Hitchman and Sprague Cleghorn; centre, Joe Malone; left wing, Aurel Joliat, and right wing, Harry Broadbent."

What, no Eddie Shore? "No, no Eddie Shore this time," says "Coop." "I'm naming defence players and Shore, good as he was, never would have been the player he's rated if it wasn't for Lionel Hitchman."

"Hitchy, to my mind, was one of the most underrated players of all time as a defenceman. Eddie drew a lot of the credit, but you ask any of those who played against them who they want on there if it was a one-man defence."

They'd say Shore because they could get around him. None of them ever relied the task of getting by Hitchman. Some of them may raise their eyebrows about Primeau. All right, where did Covey and Jackson get to when the quilt?

Sure, I'll take Drillon, too, at left. He scores goals. Some people think you have to be a fancy skater to be a great forward. A whizzer is supposed to score goals. Primeau's record looks good enough for me. That's what you paraff on."

Durocher To Be Manager Of Brooklyn Dodgers For 1943. Terms Not Disclosed

By Judson Bailey Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—Leo Durocher was given back his job as playing manager of Brooklyn Dodgers today, but President Branch Rickey made it clear that the new deal in Flatbush has begun. In the same press conference at which Durocher's appointment for a fifth season was announced, it was disclosed that Coach Charles (Chuck) Dressen has been given his outright release, that another coach, Fred Fitzsimmons was being offered the Montreal farm-club managership as a possible first step toward the future leadership of the Dodgers, and that gambling by high stakes by the players would be banned.

Terms not disclosed
Rickey would not disclose the terms given Durocher, but said that he had been signed for one year to a player's contract instead of a manager's. This means, besides the fact that Durocher must play ball this year, that he also can be released on 10 days notice, both as manager and player.

Durocher's former contract was understood to have called for $23,500 plus bonus provisions. Rickey said his agreement for next year had no bonus but refused to indicate how the salary compared with last year. He explained, however, that Durocher was perfectly satisfied and that terms never were at any time a serious cause for the delay in signing.

Rickey said that hereafter the Dodgers would have only two coaches instead of the three and four they have carried in recent years. He said both he and Durocher wanted John (Red) Corrida to remain as one of the coaches, but that they had agreed Dressen would be Durocher's replacement. Rickey said that Durocher was perfectly satisfied and that terms never were at any time a serious cause for the delay in signing.

Whether or not the injury will mean that Blinn's fighting days are over is not known here but it will be sincerely hoped by all sports followers that Blinn will come out of it with colors flying and no ill effects will follow.

Maple Leafs Outclass Rangers For 7-3 Victory
NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (CP)—Toronto Maple Leafs completely outclassed New York Rangers, last-place club of the National Hockey League, to win a 7-3 decision in a wide-open game played before about 8,000 spectators tonight.

After the first period, in which they took a 1-0 lead, Rangers had no more chance than a good amateur team lined up against a first class professional outfit. The Leafs put on the pressure to tie the score at 8:17 of the second period, took a 4-2 lead before that frame ended and added three more goals in the third before the Rangers scored again in the last seven seconds of play.

At the inception of the defence fell apart before the five-man attacks of the speedy Toronto players, Sweeney Schirner drove of Los Angeles in Mexico City New Year's Day.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19 (AP)—The Brooklyn baseball club, it was learned today, may lose another veteran infielder for the 1943 season—third baseman Floyd E. (Arky) Vaughan.

From Potter Valley, where he owns a 400-acre ranch, Vaughan telephoned he is not certain whether he will report to the Dodgers next spring.

Veteran Hockeyist Transferred

CORNWALL, November 19 (CP)—Cpl. Phil (Rob) McAtee, former professional hockey player who has been stationed here since last winter, was transferred today to Kingston, Ont.

McAtee was one of three goalies trying for a berth on the Cornwall army team of the Quebec senior hockey league but three of some members of his but in more kept him in quarantine for more than a month and as a result did not make the roster.

He played part of last season with Cornwall flyers and previous to that played with Pittsburgh and Springfield of the American Hockey League.
