DEATH OF MRS. EMMA J. DENNIS

The death took place at Charlottetown on May 12th, 1910, of Emma J. Dennis, widow of the late Hon. G. W. W. Bentley, Kensington, aged sixty-one years. Mrs. Dennis was a woman of charming personality and executive ability, especially in former years when she took an active part in church work, being president of the W. M. S. and W. C. T. U., which offices she filled with tact and efficiency. But eleven years ago the hand of disease was laid on her, and during that time she has been practically confined to her home. Here is where her true Christian character shone forth. Her sufferings were borne with patience and she was invariably bright and cheerful. Here her charity came to her and ever found wide and loving sympathy. About six weeks ago she was taken to the P. E. I. Hospital in hopes that the treatment would benefit her, but in vain, for on the evening of May 12th she passed to the eternal rest. Just thirteen months ago her husband predeceased her and to the family thus doubly bereft the sincere sympathy of their many friends will be extended. She leaves to mourn the irreparable loss of a good mother two daughters and four sons: Miss Mamie, nurse, of New York; Miss Patterson Walker, Princeton, W. E. Bentley, Charlottetown; J. Augustus, Western Canada; T. Whitfield and Charles at home. The funeral took place at her late residence, Kensington, on Saturday and was largely attended. Rev. H. E. Thomas of the First Methodist, Charlottetown, officiated at the house and grave, in the unavoidable absence of her pastor, Rev. J. B. Gough. After service at the house, the remains were taken to the church, which was nicely draped in black and purple and an impressive service was held. Rev. A. D. Stirling assisting. Mr. Thomas spoke feelingly on the words "If it were not so I would have told you." Several appropriate hymns were sung by the choir. The floral pieces, prominent among them were: A pillow, from the family; wreath, Prof. Earle and family; wreath, J. A. Moore and family, Charlottetown; wreath, W. M. S. and Circle of the Methodist Church. The interment took place in the Kensington cemetery. The bearers were: Dr. Dargatz, Edwin Proctor, J. McNutt, John Walker, E. J. Wright and Isaac Lowther. "For So He giveth his beloved Sleep."

Stringent rules were laid down for the towing and berthing of tank vessels and at all ports the storage of gas cargo is to be under municipal regulations.

PAID $120 EACH FOR TWO GIRLS

NEW YORK, May 21.—In the first of the Rockefeller "white slave" indictments cases to be brought to trial, the case of Belle Moore, a mulatto, George A. Miller told yesterday in the boldest language all the details of a bargain for white slaves in which he swore he acted as buyer.
"I want young girls," Miller said he told Belle Moore.
"I can get you babies, if necessary," Miller testified that Belle Moore replied.
Then he told in detail how the girls were later exhibited, and how he and his companion, "Frankie Fuller," inspected them as a buyer would inspect a filly. The girls were acceptable, and Miller testified that he paid $120 each for them. Both the girls said to have been bought Alice Milton and Belle Wood, were in court during the testimony.

HE BUYS A WIFE FOR $67.

WINDSOR, Ont., May 15.—The current market price on good, healthy young wives in Austro-Hungary is from $40 to $50, but Stephen Lipya, a Hungarian, was ignorant of the laws of this country when he paid $67 to Michael Jęgwich in Detroit yesterday for Felippa Radanovitch, a good-looking young woman from his native land.
Jęgwich, who is the girl's uncle, brought her to this country a few months ago at a cost, he says, of $67, the understanding being that Felippa was to have her for his wife when he returned the passage money. The money was not forthcoming, however, and yesterday morning the girl was handed over to Lipya, who paid promptly.
Lipya and the young woman crossed to this side of the river. An hour later told the story to the police here and the two were locked up. Lipya insists that the payment of the money constitutes a legal marriage and Felippa is his property. The girl accepts the situation stoically.

ANNUAL MEETING OF BOOK COMMITTEE

The following from the Wesleyan is of general interest in this Province.
The Eastern Section of the Book Committee held its annual meeting in the Wesleyan office, Halifax, on May 11th. There were present Rev. A. Hockin, Dr. H. Woodbury, R. T. Bratne and A. M. Bell, of the Nova Scotia Conference, Rev. Dr. Sprague, Geo. Steele, Secretary, and Prof. Hinton of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Conference, Mosher, Book Steward, and also Rev. Dr. Sprague was elected chairman in place of Rev. R. W. Weddall, B. A., who had removed to the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Conference. Rev. T. Marshall sent word that he was unable to be present because of the state of his health. It was reported that the Nova Scotia branch of the Bible Society had selected the Book Room as their depository, thus adding in the way of rental something to the annual income of the Committee. Mr. Mosher submitted the financial statement. This was fully considered, item by item. The volume of business had been about as usual and the result was deemed to be satisfactory. There was a margin of profit on the year's transactions. From year to year the turn-over does not greatly vary. An increase of some hundreds of dollars would entail little extra expense and would greatly augment the profits. The stock taking had been done with much care and the stock was believed to be in a healthy, saleable condition. Members of the committee expressed themselves as well pleased with the manner of conducting the business pursued by the Book Steward. During the year it had been found possible to retire part of the money on which the Committee had been paying interest. A vote of $100 was made to the Supernumerary Fund. A request was made for the Book Steward and Editor to visit the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Conference this year. Dr. H. Woodbury and R. T. Bratne were appointed to place the claims of the Wesleyan before the Nova Scotia Conference and Prof. Hinton before the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Conference. On motion, the Committee acknowledged the faithful and efficient services of the Rev. Geo. Steele, who had for sixteen years been its Secretary. Two sessions of the Committee were held.

NEW ELECTRIC APPLICATION

LONDON, May 21.—A despatch from Berlin says that an eminent firm of electricians claim to have devised an apparatus by which an electric current of the character used for the purpose of heating internal disorders, may be applied locally.
The inventors say that while the current produces no detrimental consequences to the patient in other respects, it may be applied to a diseased organ with good results.
It is alleged further, on its behalf, that the current, directed to any part of the body on which it is intended to operate, would produce sterilization and thus prevent blood poisoning.

MILLTOWN ELDER IS ACCUSED OF STEALING MONEY

ST. JOHN, May 21.—A Sackville despatch to the Boston Globe, dated May 18, says: "Some time ago the collection box in the vestibule of the Methodist church at Milltown (N. B.), was robbed of its contents. About three weeks ago the same thing occurred again. The elders of the church determined to catch the culprit and to this end rigged an automatic alarm on the box and connected it with the pastor's house, a few feet from the church.
About 3 a.m. Monday Mr. Cartwright was awakened by the alarm. Hurrying to the church he discovered a man in the act of removing the contents of the collection box. After running back to the house for his son he returned and after a brief struggle the robber was secured and taken to jail.
The culprit was a regular attendant at the church, and was considered one of the most trustworthy men in the country. He is an elder of the church and is seventy-six years of age.
He will come up for his preliminary examination Monday and it is understood that he will plead sleep walking."

WARSHIP

When the great sun sinks to his rest,
His golden glories thrilling me,
And voiceless longings stir my breast,
Then teach me, Lord, to worship Thee.
Or if in solemn forest shades,
The calm of nature steals o'er me,
And silence all my soul prevades,
Then teach me, Lord, to worship Thee.
Not in the sacred shrines alone,
Which chime their summons unto me,
Would I look to Thy heavenly throne,
But every where would worship Thee.

B., a student in the department of hygiene and physical education at Wellesley College, has accepted an appointment as instructor in the Thurston Glemis School in Pittsburg Pa. Miss Coster will be graduated next month. Already the senior girls who have been training for physical and hygiene teaching are being showered with offers from all points of America. She will take up her new duties in September and will have charge of the outdoor physical exercise of the pupils and will instruct them in hygiene.

FRANTIC WOMAN ON THE CITADEL

HALIFAX, May 21.—As the minute guns were booming forth on the Citadel last evening in connection with the military memorial ceremonies a sensational incident occurred. The soldiers were nearing the end of the salute when a middle-aged woman forced her way through the crowd and shouting in hysterical tones made an effort to break through the line of soldiers standing in front of the main entrance. She was immediately seized by a policeman and a lively scene followed, in which the frantic woman succeeded in tripping the officer and both were rolling on the ground. Followed by a crowd of nearly a thousand men and boys she was taken to the police station and conveyed to her home in the north end.

SUFFERS FROM NIGHTHOG

SOUTH EASTPORT, N. J., May 20.—Ghosts of 30,000 hogs killed by Charles O'Hagan in the last thirty-two years have arisen against him and he will slaughter no more, he says. They keep him from sleeping, and recently, so it is reported by a member of his household, they flew across his bed so hard that he caught pneumonia from the draft of the silent passing.
For a third of a century O'Hagan has been the champion hog killer of Ocean County. He dispatched 704 in the last four months. If all the sausages from all the pigs he killed were strung together they would reach, it is estimated, from Hoboken to Timbuctoo.

DANVERS MAN KILLS HOUSEKEEPER AND THEN SUICIDES

DANVERS, MASS., May 21.—The death of Daniel S. Doherty, late today, rang down the curtain on the final act of the swift tragedy which took place in his home here today. The only other actor on the fatal stage, so far as known, was Doherty's housekeeper, Mrs. Beatrice Rice, whose body was found lying on the floor this afternoon. Mrs. Rice had been strangled. Doherty calmly told a policeman who had come to investigate reports of a disturbance at the house, that he had drunk four ounces of nitric acid, and to the effects of the poison he succumbed several hours later.
While no motive for Doherty's action is known, it is believed that he strangled his housekeeper with the clothes line which was found about her neck.
Doherty, who was forty-eight years old, was a motorman in the employ of the Boston & Northern Street Railway Company. Mrs. Rice was fifty-seven years of age, and it is understood that her husband is living, together with a son and daughter.

THOUSAND MILES IN MOTOR BOAT WAS NOT ENOUGH FOR THEM

(Montreal Star, May 20.)
A thousand miles in a motor boat is the experience of two daring navigators who visited Montreal yesterday. They were not tired of it either, for they have just set out on another voyage which will add half that distance to their record.
The two venturesome travellers, Horace H. Beer and H. T. Holman, who had from Summerside, P. E. I., began their voyage at their home town and came straight up the Gulf and river to Chambly, whence they trained it in to Montreal. The vessel in which the voyage was made is only thirty-six feet in length, but she and she met some pretty rough weather in the Gulf she stood the buffering splendidly, and came through without a strain. The two voyagers were on the water nearly two weeks and spoke enthusiastically of their experiences. They recommend it as a cure for loss of appetite, they were "as hungry as bears" all the way up.
They left yesterday for Chambly where they will again take to their motor craft, en route to New York. This time their voyaging will take them by quieter waters than the stormy Gulf of St. Lawrence. They will travel by the Richelieu River, and Lake Champlain, and so on to the Hudson, which they will descend to the American metropolis.

"KISS NOT" PLEDGE BEING PASSED ROUND

CHICAGO, May 21.—The world's health organization has made a descent on the Chicago public schools with a pledge to "kiss not." This is the pledge.
"In order to encourage good health and lessen the spread of consumption I hereby pledge myself to discourage the custom of kissing on the lips whenever it is in my power."
The Board of Education is in receipt of "kiss not" circulars, with an appeal that the children of the schools be allowed to take the pledge.
The circulars say "kissing is pernicious and unhealthful. Not only is kissing the medium for the transfer of tuberculosis, but diphtheria, pneumonia and many other diseases."
The board has the matter under advisement.

NEEDS $500,000 TO RAISE THE MA-NE

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 21.—It was learned officially by Congress today that the War Department would not undertake to raise the wreck of the battleship Maine, in Havana Harbor, for $100,000, which is the amount appropriated in a bill for this purpose passed a few weeks ago and signed by the President. Mr. Dickinson, Secretary of War, transmitted to Speaker Cannon a letter from Brigadier General William L. Marshall, Chief of Engineers, expressing the opinion that it would take at least $500,000 to accomplish the feat.
Brigadier General Marshall says that $100,000 cannot even be "economically and effectively expended in initial work." He explains that it will be necessary to build a coffer dam around the wreck and pump all of the water out so as to examine the hull. This will also permit of the removal of the bodies of the men who went down with the ship. The Chief of Engineers believes that this coffer dam will cost more than $100,000.
