THURSDAY

RUNAWAY HORSE.—Some excitement was caused yesterday evening when a horse belonging to Messrs. F. J. Holman & Co started to run from Euston St. by way of Prince to Mr. Holman's store and on the corner of Kent and St. George Sts. the wagon collided with a post; the two axles and wheels being broken and the vehicle altogether badly smashed. The horse, however, was none the worse of the run.

MILTON WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.—The Milton Women's Institute held a very enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. John Pierce, Thursday afternoon, March 26th. Future work was discussed by the Supervisor, who was present, after which she gave a demonstration on Cream Puffs, and Cream Filling, to the satisfaction of all present. Delicious afternoon tea was served by the hostess. It was decided to hold no more meetings for the present on account of the condition of the roads. @

MOTOR CARS INCREASING.—There are now something over thirty motor cars in the Island. At any rate, the number of licenses that have been issued for the running of these machines was thirty-two up to yesterday. Of these, six were taken out since the beginning of the present year; those to whom they were issued being Messrs. George L. Prowse, B. R. Holman, W. K. Rogers, R. H. Sterns and the Y.M.C.A. Automobile School (2). The probability is that this number will be considerably added to during the present summer. Indeed, another car arrived last night—a seven-seater Russell for Mr. E. H. Sterns. This is the second car, and of the same make, that Mayor Sterns has got within the week.

IMPORTANT APPEAL.—The Court of appeal in Equity sits on Thursday next at the Court House, Charlottetown, for the purpose of hearing the arguments in a very important appeal. The case in question arises out of some prohibition cases which were instituted in King's county and came before Mr. Arthur F. McQuaid, the Stipendiary Magistrate of that county. An objection was taken by Mr. J. J. Johnston, K. C., to Mr. McQuaid trying the cases on the ground that he had no jurisdiction or authority to do so, and on application made to him in the matter the Vice-Chancellor, Mr. Justice Fitzgerald, upheld that contention and issued a writ of prohibition against the Magistrate, ordering him to desist from further proceeding with the cases in question. It is against the Vice-Chancellor's decision that the appeal is being brought which is to come on next week.

MILBURN.—Mr. J. A. Nicholson has purchased a beautiful driving horse from Mr. James McAreevy of St. Mary's Road.—Misses Ella Campbell and Mabel McKinnon intend returning to Boston in the near future.—Mr. D. D. Hicken and family, Alliston, were the guests of Mr. Neil McKinnon.—Mr. George Acorn and William McLeod, were visiting in Glen Martin the guests of Mr. Jack McPherson.—Miss Bridget A. Mahar, is seriously ill but a speedy recovery is hoped for.—Mr. Archie Matheson intends building a new barn this summer.—A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. David Stuart, Commercial Cross, when the young folks of Milltown went in on them unexpected. The evening was spent in games and dancing, after which they presented Mrs. Stuart with a beautiful parlor lamp.—Although Mrs. Stuart was taken by surprise she thanked them for their useful remembrance. After a very dainty lunch was served in Mrs. Stuart's best style, the young people drove to their homes in the wee sma hours of the morning.

HAIR ALL FELL OUT
RINGWORM ON HEAD

Also on Neck, Big Bare Spot on Crown of Head, Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

198 Chaplain St., Montreal, Que.—"When my brother and I went to school we got ringworms from the other children and our hair all fell out. We had them on our heads and on our necks. For months I had a big bare spot on the crown of my head the size of a fifty-cent piece. Mother tried everything, all kinds of ointments, to cure but everything seemed no good until one day she saw an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. It was Cuticura Soap and Ointment that cured us." (Signed) Mrs. M. Blake, May 21, 1913.

ITCHY RASH ON HANDS

Fergus, Ont.—"Cuticura Soap and Ointment completely cured me of a rash on my hands. The rash was red like water blisters, very itchy and sore. Scratching made them worse. The sensation was bad at night. I tried many remedies which did not do any good. I used Cuticura Soap as a wash in warm water night and morning with Cuticura Ointment and in less than a week it was all gone." (Signed) Mrs. Isabella Gibson, May 22, 1913.

The regular use of Cuticura Soap for toilet and baths not only tends to preserve, purify and beautify the skin, scalp, hair and hands, but assists in preventing inflammation, irritation and clogging of the pores, the common cause of pimples, blackheads and other unwholesome conditions of the skin. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. For a liberal free sample of each, write to book, send post-card to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. D, Boston, U.S.A.

DRAW OPENED.—The draw span the Hillsborough was opened for the first time this season on Monday. This was a precaution necessary to be taken against the likelihood of the East River navigation in being opened up shortly, the ice being now almost gone. Mr. Silas Gorveatt has charge of the draw and the gatekeepers are; at the Charlottetown side, Mr. John Burns and at Southport, Mr. Smith.

CONFEDERATION CELEBRATION.—It is now definitely decided that the Canadian Athletic Championships, which are fixed to be held here this year, will be arranged to take place in connection with the celebration of the inception of Confederation, which is to be held in Charlottetown on the 18th, 19th and 20th August, next. The Championships will be included in the programme for the second day of the celebration and, there is no doubt, will greatly serve to enhance the attraction and interest of this great event in which all Canada will be vitally interested.

WEDDING BELLS.—St. Joseph's Convent, Charlottetown, was the scene of a happy event yesterday morning, when Mr. A. C. McKenna of Newton, Lot 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McKenna, led to the altar, Miss Mary Rachel Monaghan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Monaghan, Charlottetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. S. Daly, in the presence of immediate relatives, including the parents of the bride and groom. The bride wore a handsome tailored suit of navy blue, with hat to match. She was attended by Miss Mary Corish, who also wore a becoming navy blue tailored suit. The groom was supported by his brother Mr. W. P. McKenna. After an elaborate wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents, the happy couple left in the afternoon for Emerald Junction. They will be given to the residence of the groom's parents, where a reception will be held, for which fifty invitations have been issued. The many valuable wedding presents testified to the high esteem in which the young couple are held. The groom's present to the bride was a gold watch and fob, and to the bridesmaid a cameo ring.

FRIDAY

LOBSTER SEASON OPENS.—The season for fishing lobsters opened on Monday last and many fishermen put out their lines. However, the water as yet is too rough for any large catches to be made.

AMERICAN CONSULATE.—During the period between U.S. Consul Frost's departure and the arrival of his successor, who will be here in about six weeks' time, the duties of the Consulate will be performed by Dr. Serickland, the American Vice and Deputy Consul. Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock Dr. Strickland took possession of the archives of the Consulate, relieving Mr. Frost, who leaves this morning for Cork, Ireland, where he goes to assume the duties of Con-

WEDDING BELLS.—Tuesday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock in the Carmarthen Street Methodist Church, says the St. John Globe, Rev. Howard Sprague, D. D., Dean of the Theological Faculty at Mount Allison, united in marriage Miss Janet Deinstadt, daughter of Rev. T. J. Deinstadt and Mrs. Deinstadt, to Mr. Lawrence B. C. McMan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyd McMan. The church was decorated with palms and potted plants. As the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage, appropriate music was rendered. During the ceremony, which was attended by a large number of the friends of the parties, wedding music was softly rendered. The bride was beautifully dressed in white satin trimmed with rose point lace, with veil of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lily-of-the-valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Hazel Deinstadt, who was gowning in pale blue brocade satin, with white French hat, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Misses Dorothy and Helen Bell, daughters of Mrs. R. P. Bell, Halifax, and nieces of the bride acted as flower girls. They wore dresses of white and pink and carried baskets of pink sweet peas. The groom, who was formerly of St. John, but now of Toronto where he is manager of a branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, was assisted by Mr. W. C. Sinclair, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Charlottetown. P. E. I. Mr. Charles Fairweather and Mr. Edward Crawford of St. John, acted as ushers. After the ceremony the bridal couple held a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 242 Duke street. Among the guests who attended the happy event were Mrs. R. P. Bell, Halifax, sister of the bride; Mrs. W. W. Beer, Toronto, the bride's aunt; Mrs. E. C. Bates, Houlton, Maine; Mrs. George Fisher, Chatham; Miss L. Tweedie, Sackville; Miss Jane Allen, Yarmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Garfield White, Sussex. After a wedding luncheon, the couple left on the Montreal train for Montreal, Ottawa and other Canadian cities which they will visit before going to their future home in Toronto. Many beautiful presents were received. The groom's present to the bride was a gold watch bracelet, to the bridesmaid a cameo ring, to the flower girls, signet rings, to the best man and to the ushers, pearl pins.
