Chasing Rainbows Tuneful Romance

THE INIMITABLE MARIE DRESSLER SCORES BIG HIT

No stage on earth could put on such a show as Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has brought together in "Chasing Rainbows," a new musical romantic drama which opened yesterday at the Prince Edward Theatre. This gripping picturization of theatrical life takes you behind the footlights as well as before them, bringing before your eyes dazzling spectacles of beauty.

Charles King and Bessie Love are brought together again in the feature, which was directed by Charles F. (Chuck) Riesner, who recently filmed the "Hollywood Revue of 1929." In the cast are such favorites as Jack Benny, Marie Dressler, Polly Moran, Edna Lee, George K. Arthur, Nita Martin, Eddie Phillips and Youcca Toubetsky.

Sammy Lee, who staged the spectacular dancing ensembles, filmed in technicolor, has created living pictures of pulchritude and color that apply a contrasting background for the drabness of the scenes backstage where joys, sorrows, tragedies and romance are intertwined.

SPARKLETS

Continued from Page 4. "Because Canada has had one poor year with wheat—because Canada had only half a crop and a poor market for that—there has been a decline in trade!" (Patriot, July 23)

Then it is not government, but the wheat crop, that controls Canada's trade. All our vast resources, our minerals, our fisheries, our factories, our forests, our dairying, fruit raising, meats, eggs and general agriculture have nothing to do with the rise or decline of trade. For Mackenzie King Government's ignoble failure in all these things—which has brought about unemployment and trade stagnation—a goat must be found; and that goat, per the Liberal organ, is the wheat crop.

Contending against Hon. John A. MacDonald's charges of extravagance of the King Government, the Liberal Patriot gives this as an excuse:

"Allowing for the depreciation in the purchasing power of the dollar it will be found that the actual expenditure for ordinary purposes has been actually decreased."

What sophistry? Doesn't that superficial bluffer know that since the war the purchasing power of the dollar has increased about fifty per cent—that government material and supplies which cost the Borden-McEighen Government $6,000,000 can be bought "at the lower prices" prevailing, by the King Government, for $4,000,000? It is not a depreciation, but an appreciation of the purchasing power of the dollar.

People living in glass-houses shouldn't throw stones at a stone fortress. The Liberal organ a few days ago, catching at a straw for comfort, hoped for gain by an alleged disagreement in a Conservative poll. Of course there was nothing of the kind. It was only a shadow, or reflection, of the great volume of discontents in the Liberal Camp. Conservative organization was never stronger, in both City and country, never before was the party more solidly united, never has there been so many workers, including large numbers of former Liberals, in their Committee Rooms, and never has their enthusiasm ran higher than in this contest.

Things are different in the Liberal glass-house, where they are put to their wits end to get together a working force big enough for the bare clerical handling of the polls. Discontent with their policy and the autocracy of their leaders is rife, and their organization, both in city and country saturated with indignation and demoralization. Even those who are working are doing so with heavy and dissatisfied hearts.

UNUSUALLY BUSY—The Publicity Bureau has been unusually busy during the past few days, especially on Wednesday, when they were working up till 8.30 endeavoring to find suitable accommodations for a number of tourists who arrived by the late boat Wednesday evening. During the course of the day a number of tourists from the yacht Camargo, owned by Mr. Fleischman, visited the Publicity Bureau and bought several rugs, and home spuns. The Publicity Bureau would be very grateful to anyone having home spun to bring it to their office as there seems to be a shortage in this material.

NOT SNOBS, ANYWAY—The Patriot yesterday saw fit to find fault with Messrs. Myers and McLure for being seen on Elm Avenue and being mistaken for traffic policemen. Of course there is no truth in the latter allegation, but there is this to be said, that "John and Chester" are no snobs and are on as familiar terms with the people of Elm Avenue and other parts of the city and country all the year around as they are at election time. They do not require to wait until they have been designated from Ottawa as candidates in order to make themselves acquainted. They are hall fellows well met from one year's end to the other, and when they are returned as members for Queens they will be as accessible to their constituents as they are today.

EBENEZER W. I.—The July meeting was held at the home of Mrs. William McKee with seven members and three visitors present. The sick committee reported that fruit had been sent to the sick. The Secretary gave a financial statement showing that about $30.00 had been cleared from the festival, $1.80 paid for the toxoid and 80 cents for fruit. $20.00 was then handed to Mrs. Lois McKee, the School Secretary, to help buy a furnace. Music, by Mrs. Norman McRae and Miss Florence was much appreciated. Next meeting to be held at the home of Miss Margaret Buchanan. Meeting closed with the National Anthem. Lunch was then served by the hostess. (Patriot please copy).

GILLIS — MCGUIGAN WEDDING — St. Matthews Church, Dorchester, Mass., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on June 28, 1930, when Miss Mary E. Gillis, of Glendale, N.S., was united in marriage to Mr. Francis McGuigan, of Kelly's Cross, P. E. Island. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Driscoll. The bride was beautifully gowned in white satin with tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lillies-of-the-valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Gillis, who wore orchid chiffon and Meleen hat and carried a bouquet of pink and yellow roses. Mr. Joseph McGuigan, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The groom's gift to the bride was a blue fox scarf, to the maid of honour an emerald ring and to the best man a ruby ring. After a sumptuous breakfast had been served to the immediate relatives at the home of the bride's parents, the happy couple left for Montreal and other points of interest. On their return they will reside in Dorchester, Mass. Their many friends wish them many years of happiness.

Miss Maude Wilson, Portland, Maine, arrived home Tuesday evening to spend her holidays with her mother, Mrs. Hazel Wilson, Southport. Miss B. Glenn Campbell, Burlington, has returned to her home, after spending a pleasant holiday with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. MacNeill, Hunter's River.

MONCTON, N. B., July 24—The combined funerals of Albert Johnston and James MacFarland, employees of the A. G. Barnes Circus, who were killed on Sunday last when the special circus train was wrecked at Canaan Station, with a resultant list of eighteen injured and four killed, was held from the funeral chapel of Tuttle Brothers this morning.

It was an impressive ceremony and was attended by hundreds of members of the Show and citizens. Following the rites at the funeral home, which were conducted by Rev. S. J. McArthur, the cortege proceeded to Elmwood cemetery, where the circus authorities have purchased a lot which will be kept in perpetuity by the circus and where monuments will be placed by the company.

The procession was one of the largest ever seen in the city and one that probably has never been seen before and perhaps will never occur here again. It was led by the tall man of the circus followed by the hearses, attended by the pall bearers who were selected from the fellow members of the show and who appeared in white and blue uniforms. Following came a long line of automobiles filled with mourning show people among whom men and women unashamedly wept.

GREAT MEETING AT ST. LOUIS

(Special to The Guardian)

SUMMERSIDE, July 24.—There was a rousing and enthusiastic meeting of the Conservatives held at the St. Louis Hall on Wednesday, which was addressed by Hon. J. E. Wyatt, K.C., and Hon. A. F. Arsenault, Mr. Wyatt was the first speaker and after explaining that he was present to fill in during the absence of Mr. Arnett, who was detained at a meeting in another part of the district, but expected to be present before this meeting was over. Mr. Wyatt incidentally thanked those present for the support which they had accorded him at the last election and he was glad to learn that at this election more favorable results were confidently looked forward to. He then, in his characteristic, forcible, clear and convincing manner dealt with some of the issues between King and Bennett. With reference to Old Age Pensions, he said that there was a great difference between the pension scheme of Mr. King and that of Mr. Bennett. Mr. King would only pay one half from the Federal funds, the other half being raised by direct taxation in the Province adapting his scheme. Mr. Bennett on the other hand proposed that the whole pension should be paid out of the Federal revenues where a man had for 70 years given of his strength and vigor in the upbuilding of Canada and the increase of her material wealth. In his declining years he should receive consideration from the country that he helped to build and relieve him of anxiety as to his daily bread. Mr. Wyatt then showed that on P.E.I. the proportion of those between the ages of 60 and 70 was three and four times that of the other provinces; and if Mr. King's policy was adapted, $35 out of $100 of the revenues of the Island would have to be applied to Old Age Pensions and would have to be raised by increased direct taxation. This would be avoided if we accepted Mr. Bennett's proposal. By voting for Mr. Arnett, standard bearer for Mr. Bennett in this county, the benefit of Old Age Pensions would be obtained without further taxation. Mr. Wyatt also dealt with Mr. MacLean's claim for having obtained $125,000 additional subsidy from the King Government and showed that this was an award by the Duncan Commission based upon a brief and representations of the Hon. J. D. Stewart, the Conservative Leader in this Province. That this was only a temporary amount and did not represent all to which we were entitled and so admitted by Mr. MacLean, when he said that we are to receive between four or five hundred thousand dollars a year under that report.

Great Applause

Great applause followed when Mr. Wyatt asked if Mr. MacLean had such influence as he claims. Why did he not obtain the whole of the subsidy under the report of the Duncan Commission instead of taking credit for the smallest amount recommended by the Commission. If this report has been attended as required by the Commission, the increased bonded indebtedness by the present local Government might to some extent have been avoided. Mr. Wyatt also showed the disadvantage to this Island by reason of the recommendations in this same report regarding the iron and steel industry at Sydney, N.S., having been carried into effect.

In treating on the countervailing duties he showed in a convincing manner as evidenced by the way in which his remarks were received by the audience, that the King Government had placed this power in the hands of the President of the U. S. to be used by him in the interests of his own people and beyond the intervention of the Canadian Government, thus making us practically an adjunct of the U. S., subject to the will of the President, without the will of the President, without the
