THE CLOCK, 1947

We wound our clock today. Each New Year's day... We do this little chore. And that is finished for the year.

ferent. The purse may be all but hidden in the muffs bed and thus protected from too much wear and tear.

SPRING HATS TO BE SMALLER

NEW YORK - The new hats won't bump on the taxi roof, they'll be almost invisible to wind and the Easter churchgoer.

Which isn't to say that hats won't be hats - just less of the same. "Smaller and simpler" is Lilly Dache's spring 1947 prediction.

Neutral colors, grays, beiges and a smart smattering of yellow and orange tones, are picked by designers.

Off the Face

The shapes will continue to stay well off the face. Tiny draped pill-boxes are favored by a number of milliners.

The daytime hat will go on without too much primping. It'll look well with the "what to do" side of the problem.

INSOMNIA OR SLEEPLESSNESS The patient being bothered by insomnia or sleeplessness wants to know what to do to get some relief.

Deck paint gives a fine finish to the basement floor. It comes in many colors and gives a most attractive appearance to this sometimes neglected room.

Finely chopped apples may be added to a standard waffle batter for variety in flavor and texture.

HANDBAG OF FUR CAN BE PRACTICAL NEW YORK - Make sure that your fur bag is going to be practical.

Mix meat, onion, butter. Sift together dry ingredients, mix in shortening; add liquid to make soft dough.

Morning Smile Coach: "You're doing well, son. The way you hit that line and the way you dodge and tackle and worm through them is marvelous."

Mrs. Brown: "How children's tastes change." Mrs. White: "Yes, when my two were small, Junior just loved soldiers and Mary was crazy for dolls."

Football Player: "It comes easy to me. I used to play with any number of the bargain sled."

James and my baby-sitting last night, when small grand-daughter had been left to our care, was no trouble at all.

ANSWER: It looks to me as if your girl was just marrying to be a-marrying and that one man looks as good to her as another if he is willing to give her a wedding ring.

MOTHER IS RIGHT I think you will be a lucky man to have the other gent take the impatient girl off of your hands.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I have been going with a girl three years older than myself, for the past two years.

ANSWER: Not. This girl is not for you, and it is a good thing that you are getting a close-up on her faults while you can sidestep them.

DEAR MISS DIX: Why do mothers play favorites among their children? Why do they love one child more than another?

UNLOVED CHILD haired darling whom they love better than they do any of the others of their flock.

Q. How can I preserve paint in open cans?

A. Paint can be kept in open cans if the paint is stirred thoroughly, then the can filled to the top with water.

Q. How can I stimulate the growth of plants?

A. Put coffee grounds around the roots about two or three times a week. Then once a week give them a tablespoonful of olive oil.

Q. How can I remove the tarnish from silver?

A. A very good cleanser for tarnished silver is to use a piece of raw potato, dipped in baking soda.

Q. Should one refuse to tell one's preference in food when the hostess asks?

A. No. If your hostess asks if you prefer light meat to dark, or cream instead of lemon with tea, don't hesitate to give your preference.

Q. Is there any certain number of bridesmaids one should have at a church wedding?

A. The number varies from four to eight at large formal weddings, but one or two will serve just as well at a small wedding.

Q. Is "How do" the correct thing to say when acknowledging an introduction?

A. No; say, "How do you do?"
