Among those present was Mrs. Lulu Cunningham of Augusta, Maine, an aunt of Mr. MacNeill. Much merriment was caused by a number of humorous readings by Mr. Silas MacFarlan and the singing of the old songs. Messrs Norman and Sidney Mills furnished enchanting music on the violin and guitar. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by the ladies, after which a jolly dance was held. As the guests departed they wished Mrs. Harris "Godspeed" and requested her to return soon to her native province. - S
