The late Mr. Power left this province about thirty three years ago and settled in Boston, where he has been employed by the Boston Elevated Railway up to the time of his death. About three years ago, he visited his native province and spent some time renewing old acquaintances, all of whom will regret to learn of his death. He leaves a widow to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband.

CRIG-SUNTER WEDDING.—A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday morning at six o'clock in the Methodist Church when Miss Helen May Craig, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Craig, City was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. William W. Sunter of Toronto. Rev. Mr. Ryan conducted the ceremony with Prof. Fletcher at the organ. The bride, given away by her father, and carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern, looked charming in a tailored suit of navy blue serge and pale yellow fox fur, the gift of the groom. The bride's only attendant was her cousin, Miss Doris McKee, who was attired in a navy blue serge suit with gray hat and ermine cape, and wearing a corsage bouquet of pink carnations and maiden hair fern. Mr. George Craig, brother of the bride, acted as groomsmen. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pearl necklace and to the bridesmaid a pearl scarf pin. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents which included a silver tea service and a number of substantial cheques, also silver cut glass, and china. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Sunter left for St. John where they will take passage on the S. S. Metagama on a three month honeymoon trip to Glasgow, London and Paris. On their return they will reside in Moncton. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sunter wish them a long and happy journey through life.

Do Your Rugs Look Drab and Dull? They Need a Hoover-Cleaning

It is surprising how the colors in a rug become dulled through the winter. In almost every home there are invisible sooty, greasy particles in the air that settle upon the rugs and gradually rob the colors of their natural brightness and freshness.

A Hoover-Cleaning will brighten these colors surprisingly. Also The Hoover will beat out all the embedded gritty dirt which shortens rug life so materially. In addition, it sweeps up litter and surface dirt and powerfully air cleans, all at the same time.

By this thorough process rugs are cleaned through and through. Entirely free of the sooty, greasy dirt, they regain their natural beauty. Let us Hoover-Clean one of the rugs in your home—free—and see if its appearance is not noticeably improved. It will not obligate you in any way.

Sunday School Lesson

Lesson I. April 1.
On the Way to Emmaus (Easter Lesson.)

Golden Text—Why seek ye the living among the dead. He is not here but is risen.—St. Luke XXIV: 5, 6.

Lesson Text—St. Luke, XXIV: 13-31. For entire lesson see St. Luke XXIV.

The Time: Jesus rose from the dead Sunday, April 9, A. D., 30. He ascended Thursday, May 18.

Place:—Jerusalem, the village of Emmaus; seven and a half miles distant and the road between. Also Galilee and the Mount of Olives.

The crucifixion of our Lord had taken place on Friday. He had been buried in the tomb by Joseph of Arimathea. On Sunday morning had come the resurrection when He had twice appeared to certain women who rapidly spread the report of the wonders they had seen. "And behold two of them went that same day, in a tailored suit of navy blue serge and pale yellow fox fur, the gift of the groom. The bride's only attendant was her cousin, Miss Doris McKee, who was attired in a navy blue serge suit with gray hat and ermine cape, and wearing a corsage bouquet of pink carnations and maiden hair fern.
