News Briefs From P.W.C. By CHARLES E. MACARTHUR

Section B. Society debated Tuesday "Resolved that New York has more influence than London." Pro. M. MacLure, I. MacLeod, Con. L. MacKay, P. Webster. Critic, Mr. John Denny. Con. won.

Last week's Sunday evening Song Service was held in St. Paul's Anglican Church, the speaker being Mr. Lorne MacKay. Mr. MacKay spoke on the subject "Life is not futile." Mr. Gordon Douglas gave a scripture reading. Mrs. T. H. Trainor favored the audience with a solo. At the close of the service the chairman, Mr. Ralph Colder thanked all those who in any way contributed to the success of the meeting.

"Resolved that a monarchy is a better form of government than a Republic" was the subject of Saturday's debate on April 2. Pro. L. Stewart, A. Wilson and J. Jordan. Con. N. Price, George Dewar and K. Harrington. Con. won with a majority of 1. Critic, Mr. C. Colwill. Mr. B. MacCannell was President.

The mate, Norman Saunders was second on the list, followed by Charles Bentley, Frank Andrews, Doug Smith, Allan Forsyth, Leslie Stewart and James and George Burnett. These young men have taken the most sacred oath in Scouting and are now members of it's highest order.

Before I close with my thought and smile, I wish to congratulate St. Peter's Scouts on the concert which they held last week.

I am still waiting for reports from Summerside, Montague and other Scout centres. A thought for the week: To take yourself too seriously as a young man is the first step to becoming a Prig. A smile for the week: VERBS AND VERSE The burglar crept from out of his hole, His bag of "chink" he "chunk" And merrily a wicked smile he "smile" And many a wink he "wunk." Yours for better Scouting. "BUSY BEAVER."
