MR. W. D. MCINTYRE,
The newly appointed School Inspector for Queen's County.

THE St. John Sun says: Rev. Messrs. Palmer, Campbell, Sprague, Kirby and Whiteman of P. E. I. and Revs. R. W. Weddall and Geo. Steel of this city left for St. Stephen yesterday afternoon to attend the Methodist Conference held in that place. The stationing committee meet this morning, and during the day other ministerial business will be disposed of.

In a letter to Mr. W. W. Clarke, Mr. Chipman says: Every indication points to the Grande Duchesse having a large list of passengers for Charlottetown, and fears are that the accommodation for the people will not be sufficient. Every effort will have to be made to secure additional hotel accommodations throughout the Island as well as in Charlottetown. President Plant will visit Charlottetown on the first trip.

QUITE a large number of visitors assembled in Freeland school at the semi-annual examination. Mr. Hensley Stavert being present was asked to examine the scholars. This he did very satisfactorily and pleasing to all. The scholars showed a very good knowledge in the several subjects in which they were examined. Miss Bessie McKay is to be congratulated in bringing the school to its present proficiency, as it is quite a large one.

REMEMBER the garden party on Thursday 29th June, on the beautiful grounds of Henry Candall, Esquire, from 4 o'clock to 8.30 p. m. The tide will be in and the Band of the 82nd Battalion have kindly consented to give their services for the afternoon. Ice cream, cake and lemonade will be the refreshments. Admission 10 cents. Proceeds in aid of the P. E. I. Hospital. Should the weather be unfavorable it will take place on the following day.

St. John's church was the scene of a brilliant social event at 10.30 Saturday morning, when Percy Walter Thomson, only son of Robert Thomson, was united in holy matrimony with Miss Maudie Sherwood Skinner, youngest daughter of A. O. Skinner. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John de Soyres, and the choir of the church was present and sang appropriate music. The church was filled with invited guests and spectators. As the bride entered the church upon the arm of her father, the choir sang "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden." Miss Skinner was charmingly gowned in white satin trimmed with chiffon. She wore a veil and orange blossoms and carried a large shower bouquet. Her maid of honor, Miss Jean Smith of Windsor, N. S. wore a pretty gown of white organdie with white picture hat. The bridesmaids, Miss Edith Skinner and Miss Mona Thompson, were dressed respectively in pink and blue organdie, with silk and lace trimmings, and white hats. The maid of honor and the bridesmaids carried bouquets of pink carnations. The groomsmen were Alexander McMillan, and the ushers J. Harrison, Walter Foster, Roy Thompson, and Roy Skinner. The wedding was one of the prettiest of the season. After the ceremony, coaches were taken to Mr. Skinner's residence, Coburg street, where a reception was held and a light wedding breakfast served. Mr. and Mrs. Thomson left by the C. P. R. for an extended trip through Nova Scotia. On their return they will reside on Princess street. The presents from friends and relatives were many, and in many cases very costly and beautiful. Substantial remembrances were sent by friends in England and other distant spots.

Flags were flown in honor of the event by many of the vessels in port, for the groom is one of the most popular young men in the shipping business.—St. John Sun.
(The bride is well known in social circles in Charlottetown.)
