DOROTHY DONNELLY IN "SEALED VALLEY" AT BOSTON THEATRE.

The famous star of "Madame B", Dorothy Donnelly, one of the most powerful emotional actresses on the American stage, will make her picture debut at the Boston Theatre the week of August 9th, in a superb picturization of the absorbing tale, "Sealed Valley." Miss Donnelly plays the role of an Indian girl, a powerfully expressive role, equal to her great part in "The Garden of Allah." "Sealed Valley" is a remarkable story of Indian life, and the romance of a charming Indian maiden who loves a white prospector. It is in five parts, and over three hundred scenes, and through it all is woven a story of love, hate, revenge and lust for gold. Miss Donnelly plays "Nahna Crossfox," the Indian maid, and she is surrounded by a very strong cast. The picture, posed in the depths of the Sierra mountains, is both beautiful and spectacular. Caroline B. Nichols and The Fadettes will continue their enormously successful engagement offering daily concerts every afternoon and evening, with numerous special features and novelties of a musical character, and other attractions include Charlie Chaplin comedies; Mary Pickford in a romance; the 14th chapter of "The Goddess," and numerous other features.

TEN MILLION UNDER CONTROL OF GERMAN MILITARY ANTHORITIES.

LONDON, Aug 3.—At to-day's session of the meat cargo cases before a British prize court Sir Frederick E. Smith, the solicitor-general, produced a sworn affidavit made by Major Eric Dillon, a member of the general staff, giving a British estimate, which he says is approximately correct, showing that the number of persons serving in the army and under control of German military authorities aggregates ten million.

THIS WEEK'S MATINEE RACES

The fourth of the series of matinees held by the Charlottetown Driving Club, were run off Monday under very untavorable conditions, a heavy mist of rain falling during the afternoon. Despite this handicap, the horsemen with their horses were there showing "sportsmanship" hard to equal. The track became decidedly slow and at the latter end the horses were racing in a bed of deep mud. The drivers and owners were told they need'nt race unless they wished but they were anxious for the fun, and raced to the finish.

Hilda S., 2.16 easily beat Miss Alcyone 2.18½ in the Class A, but the latter mare showed great bursts of speed. This is Alcyone's first race of the season. Casey Cresceus beat Derby by a few feet in each heat, and won the most hotly contested race of the day. The B trot was also good Oakley H., 2.18¾, leading from wire to wire with Queen Alto, the next best Cap. Cresceus, driven by Mr. Bailey, showed a "bunch" of speed, and with a little more work will surely be seen up with the bunch. Picton S., although finishing last each heat, being a slow scorer, finished his heat each time in impressive fashion doing his final quarters around 35 seconds.

The C. pace had three good pacers Barney Mac, the free legged gelding by Aquiri 2.27½ winning first although losing the first heat to Bonny Cap., the speedy little daughter of Banito and Capitola, Mira Wonder, was a real sprinter, but proved very unsteady.

BASEBALL

Postponed from the previous day, owing to unfavourable weather, the baseball contest between teams representing Moncton, N.B., and Charlottetown, held on the ground of the Abegweit Athletic Association yesterday afternoon, proved exceedingly interesting, play being of a very high order. There was quite a large attendance of spectators, who enjoyed the excellent, manly sport provided. The game started some time after six o'clock and consisted of 5 innings. There should have been 9 innings, as originally arranged, but darkness intervened. The visitors played a fine, admirable game and made a clean, splendid endeavour to defeat their opponents; but, thanks to the remarkable training of the local men and the first-class work they put in, the honours of the day rested with Charlottetown—although not by a generous margin, the result being 8-7 in favour of the locals.

The line-up was as follows:—

Charlottetown		Moncton
	Pitcher.
Lon Campbell		Traites
	Catcher.
Carrigan		McLeod
	First Base.
Frank McCarey		Swetnan
	Second Base.
Carl Milford		J. Coles
	Third Base.
Jack Sweeney		H. Coles
	Short Stop.
Julien Konghan		Armstrong
	Centre Field.
John Conroy		Weldon
	Right Field.
L. Newsom		Stewart
	Left Field.
Jack Purcell		Herrigan

Mr Sam Murphy acted very efficiently as referee and much credit is due him for his work in that capacity. Altogether the game was quite a success, and both visitors and local men are to be congratulated for the excellence of the sport provided.

Ice cream, cakes, and the indispensable adjuncts of such a function, were all in abundant prominence and a highly enjoyable evening was spent. The proceeds amounted (roughly) to over $11.

COMPLIMENTING THE ISLAND BATTERY.—Colonel Sircom, who left yesterday for Halifax, spoke in the highest terms of the men who have volunteered for the Island Battery. Nowhere, he said, had he seen such a fine body of men, and he prophesied great things for them when they had been trained sufficiently to go to the front..

The younger portion of the community engaged in various games, while their elders indulged in conversation and exchanged experiences.

SIR CHARLES DAVIDSON AND THE VOLUNTEERS. — The Royal Commissioner on War Contracts, Sir Charles Davidson, is a soldier as well as a distinguished jurist. For many years he commanded as Colonel the famous Victoria Regiment, Montreal, and he has given two sons, one a Colonel and the other a Major, to the fighting forces at the front. While here Sir Charles was greatly interested in what the Island was doing in the way of recruiting, and he carefully observed all the men in khaki he saw in the streets. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the demeanour of the men, and complimented the Island on the excellent behaviour of the soldiers in the city. He said, "that is the stamp of men who will make their mark at the front," and hoped there would be two batteries instead of one recruited.

He never bullied his witness, but nevertheless always succeeded in obtaining the information he desired.

POLITICS TABOO.—The Halifax Herald, one of the mot rabid political journals in Canada, has eschewed all politics, even in its news columns, during the whole of the past week, and is devoting its pages entirely to the war and the stimulating of recruits. As a result there has been a big boom in recruiting throughout Nova Scotia—hundreds have enlisted. The Herald has done the Guardian the honour of republishing in its entirety the recruiting advertisement from our columns which had been drafted by that master-hand in advertising writing, Captain W. B. Prowse. It describes the advertisement as "a pointer for Halifax."

CORNWALL METHODIST CIRCUIT.—Patriotic services Sunday, August 1st, anticipating the important commemoration of next Wednesday, Aug. 4th, which marks the completion of a twelve-months struggle in war, the pastor, Rev. George Orman availed himself of the opportunity of addressing large congregations at North Wiltshire, Kingston and Cornwall on the lines laid down for the celebration of the anniversary. The order of service at North Wiltshire was special, following the programme prepared for June 27th. This was participated in by the Sunday School under the leadership of Mr. J. Howard Balderston, Superintendent, and Miss E. B. Balderston, organist. Several appropriate recitations were given by the scholars.

THAT SUBMARINE HAS LIMITS NOW AMPLY PROVEN

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The following tribute to Italy had been signed by 162 British men and women distinguished in science, art, literature, law, the Church and politics.

"We whose signatures are here appended, desire to place on record our admiration and respect for the conduct of Italy at this supreme crisis

"Italy and Great Britain are now companions in arms, fighting side by side for the triumph of the same cause. Circumstances drew our country into the conflict from the beginning, while the ghastliness of the magnitude of the task before us were still only dimly manifest. Yet none of us will regret the crisis of decision through which we passed in the first days of August, 1914.

"Italy has had a still harder path to tread. Immediate action was not her part, and she had to bear the strain of nine months' suspense before her hour of decision arrived. During these nine months she saw all the established regulations and mitigations of warfare swept away by the enemy's systematic and cold-blooded resort to methods of a cruelty to non-combatants unprecedented in modern history.

"Yet, i nspite, or rather because of all which she knew, she would have to face in a conflict with the Germanic powers, Italy nerved herself to the ordeal, resolved to do her utmost toward securing that such horrors as Belgium saw, and as the ocean has seen, should never again threaten the civilized world.

"She made her decision at a moment when the prospects of early victory seemed remote, and only the arduousness and the imperative necessity of the task were apparent, and she had to reach this decision through a series of the most complex diplomatic negotiations, which demanded the coolest judgment and most perfect mutual confidence from both Government and people.

"At last thè suspense is over. Since May 20, 1915, Italy stands in arms at our side, and we feel sure that an expression of this comradeship on the part of a few among her British friends,—we say a few, because every one of these islands is Italy's friend—would be both welcome to her and congenial to ourselves.

"The Italian people is at war to liberate its own brethren fron an old oppression, and to avert from the whole of Europe the threat of a new military domination. Italy has staked all that she has for the same principles of nationality, humanity, and public right that inspire our own endeavors in this war. We hope with all the earnestness in our hearts that her national aspirations will now be consummated, and we wish the heroic Italy of 1915 to know from our lips that we feel toward her as our fathers felt toward the heroic Italy of the Risorgimento."

Among the signers of the documents are the Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Sir C. B. Ball, Sir Thomas Barlow, Sir J. M. Barrie, Arthur C. The Clergyman's Safeguard

The clergyman gives his life to his people. When old age comes to him he has no built-up business to rest upon; he has amassed no fortune upon which he may comfortably retire. His success is marked by the church he has built up—for other people.

When he dies his family must look to such savings as he has been able to make—probably not more than enough to keep them in straightened circumstances.

Life insurance is the sole satisfactory means of dealing with this question, and it should be the duty of every congregation to insure the life of its minister. The clergyman will know he has protection that is absolutely sure, and the congregation will know their money is getting the utmost in value if the policy be issued by the
