ALL NEWS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Reporters and Correspondents Everywhere.

Lady Coghane, sister of Lord Dundonald, Miss McLeod Clarke and maid-Outawa, are staying at the Hotel Victoria.

The Robert B. Mantell Co., who open in the Opera House on Tuesday night have had an exceptionally large sale of tickets for the opening performance "The Light of Other Days." In conversation with The Guardian a gentleman from Montreal, who saw Mantell in that city, speaks very highly of him and says he was recognized as the greatest actor to visit Montreal for some time.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made of the marriage, Jan 16th, in Boston, of Louis C. Beckwith and Miss Celia M. Skerry, both of Malden. Louis C and Mrs Beckwith of 20 Even St street are spending a few days in New York City.—Malden Evening News. [Mr. Beckwith is well known in this city. He holds a position with the Auditor of Passenger Accounts, Boston and Maine R. R., Boston, Mass.]

The death occurred at her home Bay View, May 28 E, of Annie Stanford Ling, beloved wife of James Graham in the 32nd year of her age. She leaves a sorrowing husband, one son and three daughters to mourn the loss of a loving wife and a kind and affectionate mother. She was the second daughter of the late William Ling of Wheatley River and also leaves two sisters and two brothers residing in Missouri. Her death has cast a gloom over her home where she was much loved.

ROBERT B. Mantell, the celebrated romantic actor, who has never appeared in this city will be seen in his latest success "The Light of other days" in the Opera House for four days' engagement commencing Tuesday evening June 14th. Years ago Robert B. Mantell earned the reputation, which he still bears, of being the best romantic actor of the present day. He is still the same graceful, fascinating and impressive personage he then was then and retains his hold upon the people. In his latest success "The Light of other days" he has plenty of opportunity to bring into full play the qualities that made him a popular favorite and with his wonderful voice his splendid physique, and magnetic personality is as admirable as ever before.

The intercollegiate sports recently held at St. John, were in every way a decided success. The committee who had these sports in charge have decided to hold a similar meet on June 24th, Tercentenary and Old Home Week, when large crowd of visitors are expected to that city. The sports will be open to all bonafide amateurs in the Maritime Provinces whether belonging to colleges or otherwise. A handsome cup will be offered to the club making the most points and probably gold and silver medals for first and second prizes. The meet will be under the sanction of the M.P.A.A.A. The events will include: 100 yards dash, high jump, running broad jump, 220 yards, hammer throw, 400 yards dash, shot put, 120 yards hurdle race, pole vault, 1/2 mile run, 1 mile run. Entries should be sent at once to Tercentenary Sports Committee, Box 62, St. John, N. B.

The marriage took place at a quarter past two o'clock Tuesday afternoon of Lillie Mildred, daughter of the Rev. R. W. Weddall, pastor of Grafton street Methodist church, and Charles Robert Racine, cashier of the Canadian Drug Company, St. John, N. B. The wedding is one in which a very large number of people in St. John, as well as in Halifax, feel a special interest. During the short period of Miss Weddall's residence here he has become a general favorite. Mr Racine is one of the best known young men in St. John, and an official in the Queen street Methodist church, of which, previous to his appointment to Grafton street, Mr. Weddall was pastor. The parlors were decorated with plants and flowers, and in front of the window was a rail of lilies and white blossoms. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Weddall assisted by Rev. Mr. Langille of Brunswick Street Church, President of the Methodist conference. Mr. and Mrs. Racine went to Wolfville last evening and they will spend ten days in the Valley before taking up their residence at St. John. Among the many wedding gifts received by the young couple were handsomely bound copies of the bible and hymn book, from Grafton Street Sunday School, of which the bride was a pupil teacher.—Halifax Chronicle. [Miss Weddall has many friends on the island, her father Rev. R. W. Weddall, being stationed on different circuits here for a number of years.]

A curiosity among cattle was born on the farm of James McDonald, Royal, Monday morning. The calf had two heads and a back resembling a camel, whilst the creature's legs were more than ordinary length and much deformed.

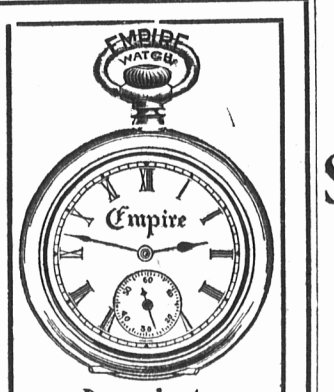

At the second match of the series Capt. W. W. Jenkins wrestled the handsome challenge trophy from Dr. Stewart. F. J. Solomon was a close second being only one point behind. Considerable enthusiasm is being exhibited by the members of the Georgetown Rifle Club, and no doubt some very accurate shooting may be expected this season.

PLAGUED WITH POOR DIGESTION

Don't Suffer Any Longer—Follow the Advice of Others and Use Ferrozone. It Cures Permanently Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

Mr. Louis Meehan, familiar to every one in his native city of Peterboro, writes: "About three years ago I had a gripe, which left me in a run down condition. My symptoms: Indigestion, and I suffered considerably from indigestion and dyspepsia. I was only able to eat a few things. I had to give up treating with doctors, because they didn't help me. On the advice of a friend, I used Ferrozone which not only cured my dyspepsia and biliousness, but built up my strength. I can recommend Ferrozone as an ideal remedy for the digestion."

Mr. Ernest V. Jordan, of Trenton, writes: "I had a severe attack of stomach trouble and indigestion which completely upset me. I was advised to try Ferrozone and did so. Since using Ferrozone I have not had any further trouble, and can recommend it as a positive cure." We guarantee that Ferrozone will cure any case of chronic indigestion or dyspepsia. It has made more lasting cures than any other remedy, and can be used with perfect confidence. Don't waste money on cheap, inferior articles; get the best at once and be cured quickly. Ferrozone has no equal; it does its work thoroughly. Don't be imposed upon by anything represented "just as good" as Ferrozone. It alone can cure thoroughly. Price 50c per box or six boxes for $2.50, at all reliable druggists. By mail, from N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont. and Hartford, Conn., U. S. A.
