Good Racing Witnessed
At Covehead Race Track
Yesterday Afternoon

What was fully expected to be the best football tussle of the season turned into a farce in the closing innings Tuesday night.

Summerside won out, but whether or not it meant the Island title for them still remains to be seen.

That is strictly up to the agreement entered into by the two teams previous to the start of the series but what we are coming to is the exhibition of poor sportsmanship.

Instead of playing the game for everything that was in it and attempting to get it over as quickly as possible with the best team winning.

To some of the fans it was funny to see grown men making a farce of the game but to the majority of them they walked away in disgust.

Of course a lot of the trouble could have been avoided if the game had been called when it should have been called.

And this was where Umpire Savaria erred. Had he called the game on account of darkness when he should have called it when it was a wonder the players could see a glimpse of the ball at all so rapidly was darkness descending.

At that the umpire still has to warn either team for their actions. That was his first duty and if he had done it he would have had the game to the opposing team.

Therefore it must have been on account of darkness that the game was called. The result of the series now hinges upon whether the game had to go the full nine innings or not.

Both teams were away off their form all through the game. A lot of time errors were committed by each squad and every one of them were damaging.

But notwithstanding they put lots of pepper and ginger into the scrap all the way up until the stalling began—we just can't seem to get away from that—and it is aptly that it had to end on such a sour note.

It didn't go the same any good; rather it is a lot better than let's hope that things straighten out satisfactorily for both sides and if another game should have to be played officials of both clubs should make it a point to see that it gets underway in plenty of time to avoid any repetition of Tuesday's fiasco.

The Montreal Canadiens, at this moment, have been changed from a team of champions to what now appears a mediocre one by the ruling of the National Hockey League.

An unofficial estimate has revealed that about ten Montreal players are affected by the new order, termed by Tommy Gorman, general manager of the Canadian Arena Company, a "miserable plot to break up a great hockey team."

Probably the fact that more than half of the Montreal team were engaged in vital war work last season, but still were able to make lengthy road trips, had a great deal to do with the ruling.

Half of the games played by N. H. L. teams are away from home and some call for two-day train rides. And then, too, it likely seemed a little odd for the Canadiens to play a schedule of over 30 exhibition games of football this summer when the same players were still classified as essential war workers.

Good racing with close finishes marked the matinee race meeting at Covehead yesterday afternoon.

A fast track, great racing weather and ideal surroundings made the afternoon sport a great one for the good crowd of fans in attendance.

Closest finish of the day was provided in the first heat of the No. 4 Classified Race when Miss America, George Mac and Peter McKinney ended the mile almost in a tie with the heat being given to Miss America.

Officials in charge of the meet again did a splendid job with the races, started by Doug McLeod, being completed shortly after 6 o'clock.

Chicago Cubs And Cincinnati Split Twin Bill

CHICAGO, Sept. 13 (AP)—A three-run homer by rookie Frank Secory gave the Chicago Cubs a 3-2 victory over Cincinnati in the second game of a doubleheader today.

The win ended the Chicagoans' dropping temporarily into the second division when the Reds won the opener 4-1 on a three-run rally in the ninth inning.

Secory, who recently reported from Milwaukee, got his big blow when he hit the first home run of the season in the sixth inning after Don Johnson singled and Bill Nicholson walked.

Cincinnati's lead in the game was 2-0 when they had Claude Passeau hit his 12th victory. Shoun, who pitched five-hit ball, suffered his eighth defeat against the Cubs.

Navy Team Edge Out All-Stars 6-5

Navy baseball team last night took a close 6-5 decision from the City All Stars in an exhibition game played at the Park diamond.

It was the second straight win for the Navy and by their victory last night captured the exhibition series from the City squad.

Last night's game was probably the best of the three played. Navy broke into the scoring with a three run rally in the second to take the lead.

All Stars held the lead in the fourth but the Navy regained their lead in the fifth. Another counter in the sixth again drew the All Stars within two runs of their opponents but two runs by the winners in the seventh the last inning of the game offset the determined three run rally the losers staged in their last turn at the plate.

Baseball Tonight

There will be an exhibition game of baseball at the Victoria Park diamond this evening between the Navy nine and the City All Stars.

The game last night was the best yet between these two teams and quite a number of fans were on hand to watch the contest.

There were quite a number of good plays made during the game. Some were quite interesting and should be quite interesting to watch.

Tonight's game, which will get underway at 8:30, should be an interesting contest.

Senior Quoits
The senior K. of C. quoits tournament for the Campbell silverware will take place over the weekend and great interest is being shown in this event.

Leonard McDonald, the present holder has only to add another win to have it for keeps. Needless to say the rest of the boys think differently.

Some are afraid to overtrain, while others are getting the occasional practice by themselves.

McDonald is confident he will retain the platter and the rest are just as confident they are going to delay the day of ownership.

The tournament should prove quite interesting and exciting.

BUOTE - FRAMPTON WEDDING

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in the chapel at Ruston Convent on Aug. 29, 1944, when Mrs. Elizabeth Buote of Malpeque and Mr. Frank Frampton of Ruston were united in marriage.

The bride looked winsome in a shoulder length dress of white tulle with a train of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of gladioli and fern.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Frank Smith of Malpeque and Mrs. Mary Lester of Ruston. The groom was accompanied by Mr. Frank Smith.

The ceremony was presided over by Rev. C. P. Fife and the wedding music was played by the wedding quartet.

After the ceremony the party returned to the home of the bride where a sumptuous breakfast was served by the mother and sister of the bride Mrs. Lester.

During the forenoon the wedding party motored to Charlottetown where they partook of a lunch at the Queen Hotel after which they returned to the home of the bride.

A large assemblage of friends and relatives awaited the return of the bride and groom. The ceremony was a most pleasant social evening and the bride and groom were most happy.

Many beautiful presents consisting of silver, linen, and glassware were received. The bride and groom were most happy and the wedding was a most successful one.

Wears Baby Shoes
The son of Norwegian parents of normal stature, Dick is a year and a half smaller than those of his five-month-old brother who weighs 21 pounds.

Even his size-two shoes are too big for him. Weighing only 10 pounds and a half pounds at birth, Dick has neither grown nor gained weight in the last nine months.

Chief worry of Mrs. Sorenson, Dick's mother, is the youngster's education. "The authorities won't touch it," she says. "I've had to get him out of public school because of his size," she said.

However, Mrs. Sorenson doesn't fret about her son's size. "He's a good boy," she says. "And we can't afford to get him a private tutor."

He won't listen when his sister reads him stories. Mrs. Sorenson said. "He begins telling her stories. Dick has a vivid imagination and likes to make up all kinds of small-boy adventure yarns."

This young Tom Thum doesn't mind living in a huge world peopled with giants. He knows his limitations and isn't afraid of anything or anyone. And as soon as he gets back to Prince Rupert, his mother and father have promised to buy him a pony because Dick wants to learn how to ride.

Constable Released, Then Re-Arrested

Before the court met today for the continued hearing, he had been released under discretionary powers given Ennes.

Fellow R.C.M.P. officers immediately arrested him on the drunken driving charge, which will be heard before the regular courts August 14 before R. E. Inglis freed Hannah on bail.
