ALBERTON NEWS

The doings of the Alberton Dramatic Club are at present shrouded in mystery. The writer on behalf of the reading public, interviewed one of the leading spirits of the club and we may say it was a pleasure to listen to the perfectly rounded and euphonious sentences which poured from his lips. He evinced not the slightest hesitation. Upon telling him what we would like to know, namely, just when the next drama was to be put on, our friend broke out in smiles. Joy beamed from his countenance; pleasure radiated from his eyes. "Why, certainly," he would be only too glad to give us all the information he had. We had come to the right person and he really thought the "Alberton Notes" made the Guardian doubly interesting. At any rate he always turned to them before reading anything else and was disappointed more than once to see nothing in some particular issue.

As for Lloyd George, he could not find the central figure at Geneva but he was horrified to learn that Agnes McPhail used a powder puff.

Upon reminding him that we would like to know just when the next entertainment was coming off, he answered that they were preparing but that he did not consider the matter a moral matter of society, as for prohibition, well! it is long as there were hope there were always hopes.

We took a long look at our friend—one of those long, calm, steady, impersonal sort of a stare, but he never blinked an eyelid and well, we were unable to find out anything about this entertainment.

But we know it is coming off and we haven't given up hope of finding out something in the near future, for we'll be anything short of brooking and entering to keep the public informed.

A somewhat peculiar incident has taken place in Alberton for the purpose of having a reported protest forwarded to the Lieut. Governor protesting against the high handed and autocratic methods employed by a certain individual in prohibiting the people of the town from going out to this particular place and shooting wild ducks during the season. This individual referred to, placed a fence up and maintains that anyone crossing it is trespassing. Not only that but it has been his custom in the past to threaten and so scare the boys and other sportsmen, that all the pleasure was taken out of the sport. The citizens of the town

—We have at last got busy and we believe this will be the largest petition which ever left Alberton, carrying as it does, practically the name of every man in the town.

The petitioners ask that the matter be settled, once for all and that the real boundaries of this individual's land be clearly defined, so that the petitioners may know just where they stand and what they may and may not do.
