QUEBEC, August 8—A miracle was witnessed at the famous shrine of Ste. Anne de Beauspre yesterday afternoon by some three thousand pilgrims who make a yearly visit to Ste. Anne's, a young lad of eight named Paul Howard, belonging to Cummings bridge, near Hull, who came on the pilgrimage in a crippled state, only able to walk with the aid of crutches, recovered the use of his limbs and left the crutches at the shrine. The cure is said to be one of the most complete and self-evident miracles ever witnessed there.
