PIN-UP POEM

A haze on the far horizon, an infinite tender sky, The rich ripe tints of the corn, field, and the wild geese wheeing high, And all over upland and lowland the charm of the goldenrod, Some of us call it "Autumn," but others call it God.

Like tides on a crescent sea-beach when the moon is low and thin, Into our hearts high yearnings come welling and surging in, Come from the mystic ocean, whose rim no man hath trod, Some of us call it "longing," but others call it God.

A picket frozen on duty, a mother starved for her brood; Socrates drinking the hemlock, and Jesus on the road, The million who, humble and nameless, the straight, hard pathway trod.

Some call it "consecration," but others call it William H. Carruth

Cut tops from hard dinner rolls, scoop out centres and fill with leftover meat mixture. Replace top. Pour gravy, over rolls and heat in oven.

For comfortable formal footwear buy a pair of new ballet slippers and about three yards of matching satin inch-wide ribbon. With your sewing machine, attach a length of ribbon to each side of the shoe towards the instep; then cross the ribbon, tie in a bow at the ankle, ballerina fashion.

Although music has never played very strong part in British culture (mainly because it has been regarded as a luxury and a privilege for certain classes, and Jesus on the road, The million who, humble and nameless, the straight, hard pathway trod.) the profession is now in a healthier state than for some years past.

Clear plastic purses featured in the season's fashion mart, call forth a warning: give the contents of your purse a thorough house cleaning before transferring to the public gaze. Shabby contents and lipsticks should be replaced and odds and ends discarded for a good housekeeping effect.

Here comes winter again! Why not use your summer's gardening time to do over your closet, making it a really attractive part of your room? Sparkling walls are an easy accomplishment if you use one of the water color paints available and select a rich, warm tone. Investment in a shoe box or rack, matching pretty-print hatbox, garment bag and cardboard chest of drawers will give you a decorator's result on a housewife's budget.

Try substituting dainty veiling in butterfly patterns for hairnets over your chin or poppamours curts. Limp tired veiling (on your hats too) may be crisped like new by placing under a sheet of waxed paper and pressing with a hot iron.

Ornamental sterling silver spoons fashioned into lapel pins can serve a double purpose for the modern miss. Used to transfer loose face powder into your compact, they save powder, time and disposition.

Kitchen scissors are preferred to a knife for such jobs as slicing celery, green peppers, or parsley. They also trim fish easier and cut meat quicker.

Dorothy Dix Says—

Philanderer Pays, Too

WOMAN PAYS AND PAYS BUT MAN ALSO PAYS PRICE

It is a generally accepted theory that in illicit love affairs the man goes free, while the woman has to pay and pay. It is quite true that the woman does pay the heaviest score, for society shuts its door in her face, while it invites her partner in sin to dinner. Probably all men philanderers go on the comfortable belief that they can dance without having to pay the piper, but in this they are wrong. There comes a day when they have to settle with life for their fling, and they have to pay for the fun they have had with broken health and remorse and lovelessness and loneliness and the contempt of all who knew them. And in all the world there is no more forlorn creature than the broken-down old roue.

MUST PAY PRICE

When we look at the philanderer we can but wonder if he never thinks of the big account he is running up against that day when every man must settle for the

MODERN ETIQUETTE

By Roberta Lee

Q If a husband and wife are invited to a dinner, and it is impossible for the man to attend, should the woman accept?

A No; as this would oblige the hostess to arrange for another dinner partner for you.

Q What should the ushers wear at a six o'clock wedding?

A Full evening dress; this, of course, includes a plain white waistcoat, white tie and gloves, plain black hose, and patent leather shoes.

Q How far in advance should one make traveling reservations?

A Reservations should be made a month in advance if possible.

MORNING SMILE

MODERN WAY

The prodigal son had returned. "Father," he inquired, "are you going to kill the fatted calf?" "No," answered the old man, looking the youth over carefully. "No, I'll let you live. But I'll put you to work and train a lot of that fat off."

NON-STOP

"I have come to join my husband," said Mrs. Smith, arriving at the Golden Gates. "Delighted to meet you, ma'am," replied the Keeper. "What was your husband's name?" "Joseph Smith," she replied. "I'm afraid that will not be sufficient for us to identify him. You see, we have a lot of Joseph Smiths up here. Are there any other means by which I can identify him?" "Well, before he died he told me that if I ever kissed another man he would turn in his grave." "Oh! I know the chap. Up here we call him 'Whirling Joe!'"

COOK'S CORNER

GREEN TOMATO PIE

This inexpensive pie filling is easy to make. It is easy to eat, too—something of a cross between a mince and a raisin pie, with no flavor of the green tomatoes which provide the bulk of the mixture.

1 medium-sized, unpeeled green tomatoes, chopped
3 medium-sized tart apples, peeled and chopped
1 cup seedless raisins, washed and dried
1/2 cup brown sugar, lightly packed
1/2 cup corn syrup
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon whole cloves
2 tablespoons white cider vinegar
1/2 cup crushed corn flakes
Rich pie paste

Combine the brown sugar, corn syrup, salt, cinnamon, cloves and vinegar and add to mixture in saucpan. Mix thoroughly. Cook, uncovered, simmering until tender—about 25 minutes. Remove from heat and add the corn flakes. Line a nine-inch pie plate with pie paste and fill with prepared mixture. Cover with top paste, seal, trim and crimp top. Slash top for escape of steam.

Bake in a hot oven, 450 degrees, 10 minutes, then reduce to moderate oven, 350 degrees, and bake 30 minutes longer.

Q How can I take good care of linoleum?

A When washing the linoleum, add a teaspoonful of paraffin to the water. This not only removes the dirt, but preserves the linoleum.

Q How can I cut citron easily?

Q May I use meat tokens in any butcher shop or must I take them back to the butcher who gave them to me?

A There seems to be some misunderstanding about the use of tokens. They can be used in exactly the same way as ration coupons. They are valid for the purchase of meat in any butcher shop in Canada.

Q Recently I ordered a pound of beef from my grocer who refused to sell me the pound unless I agreed to purchase a dollar's worth of other groceries in his store. Is he allowed to do this?

A Your grocer would be within his rights if he were to refuse to sell you a pound of beef, offering to sell one article with several others in a conditional sale which is prohibited by the Prices Board. You should advise him to this effect.
