HELD CHRISTMAS PARTY - The Eromanga Group of the Summerside Presbyterian Church held a Christmas party in the Church Hall on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Carnegie in charge. Mrs. Charles Carnegie was assisted by Mrs. Cleve Whalen. The Hall was attractively decorated for the occasion with red and green streamers and the supper table centred with a Christmas tree. Many games and contests were enjoyed.

DOING EXCELLENT WORK - The Girls' Auxiliary of St. Mary's Church, Summerside, held its regular meeting in the parish hall on Wednesday evening with the vice-president, Adele Baker in the chair. An hour was spent at the making of fancy articles from various kinds of work, including small shells. A gratifying report was given on the sale of fudge on December 6. The meeting closed with prayer by the vice-president.

GUIDERS MEET - The monthly meeting of the Summerside Guiders was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Carrie Holman, Commissioner. Miss Carrie Holman, with fourteen Guiders present. Miss Lucille McQuaid presided. It was decided that each of the three companies in English should adopt a company in English and adopt a company in English to help them in their activities and to find out what is most needed, in the meantime to make layettes, etc., to be sent to the needy families in Britain. Mrs. Maurice Hill reporting for the local association stated that as the Guiders were giving so much of their time and energies the association will help in the financing of the uniforms. On Saturday afternoon, December 13, will hold a party sale at Holman's Ltd. for that purpose. Mrs. Reay, Provincial Commissioner, who has retired, has offered a shield to be competed for in offered for singing games. It was moved that a choir be chosen from the three Guide Companies who will sing Christmas carols at the Prince County Hospital and over the radio, and continue as a permanent choir. The Brownsies, as usual, will sing in the corridors of the hospital and present Christmas decorations and treat to the patients. With such an increased attendance of Guiders and Brownsies, new companies will be organized in the near future and extra leaders will be needed.

BOY SCOUTS - A meeting of the recently formed Summerside Boy Scout Local Association was held in Leo Coyle's Restaurant on Wednesday afternoon with the president, Rev. Charles Carnegie presiding. A proposed set of by-laws for the Association were read and adopted. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for adequate quarters for Scout work. The committee members are: A. S. Hopkins, W. A. Currie, Edwin Taylor, Assistant Commissioner. A. Currie reported that a Cub Pack is to be started with Lowell Hancock as Cub Master. At present two Scout troops are functioning and it is proposed to have a third at a later date.

HOCKEY MEETING - A meeting of the Summerside Hockey League was held on Tuesday evening in the Town Hall with the president, Mr. Harold McIvor in the chair. There was a general discussion on the matter for practice time in the rink and a committee was appointed to seek terms from Kensington with the request that a team from Kensington be admitted to the league. The meeting was called later they decided to admit Kensington for a trial period. Henry Bernard handed in the list of players of the Legion team. Windy Steeles promised to have his team ready for the next day for he is heading which has not been named. The delegate from the R.C.A.F. station reported that they would definitely have a team. Ways and means were discussed and it was decided to hold a bingo and a lottery.
