THE Dominion Cook Book

By Anne Clarke.

Preeminently the Best Collection of Cooking Recipes Published.

A Household Necessity.

HOW to cook, and what to cook, are the two topics discussed in this volume. The suggestions given are not such as an inexperienced editor might collate and combine in quantity, regardless of quality; but they are the results of long and careful domestic experience in houses where these two arts were studied and practised. Skilled housekeepers of large experience are responsible for every recipe and hint here given. They have tried and tested these matters of which they write, and happy is the young housekeeper who can profit by their wisdom.

In order to profit thus, care is needed and much study. This book on a shelf in the kitchen will not act as a charm to prevent burning the beefsteak or toughening the pie crust. Nor will the mere reading of it transform the careless girl into a thrifty manager of the home. The book must be read, studied and obeyed. Do the things here directed and realize the benefits here portrayed. "Practice makes perfect,"—provided it be wise practice. Otherwise it spoils everything.

Cook books are numerous, but it is believed this, the latest and best will surpass them all. A valuable chapter is given entitled "The Doctor," in which are recipes selected from eminent authorities, and which will be found invaluable where the doctor is not readily available.

Each Recipe Prefaced by List of Ingredients—A New Feature in Cook Books.

This work is a veritable ENCYCLOPEDIA, containing 1000 Practical Recipes WHICH ALWAYS COME OUT RIGHT!

—The annual meeting of the Summerside district of the Sunday School Association was held in the Baptist Church, Summerside, on Monday the 30th ult, The meeting opened at 7.30 o'clock. In the absence of the president Rev. R. G. Strathie, provincial secretary, J. C. Jardine, presided. After devotional exercises led by the chairman the following were appointed district officers for the ensuing year: President, A. S. McKay; Vice-President, Rev. W. B. Addresses, interspersed with suitable music, were then made as follows: "How the district association may encourage and help build up Sunday Schools within its bounds," by E. H. Wright; "Why teachers' monthlies and other helps should not be taken to the Sunday School" by A. S. McKay. Both speakers ade apt illustrations of their subject, and those who did not hear them were certainly losers. A very interesting part of the program was a round table on Teacher Training, conducted by the Field Secretary, Rev. J. B. Ganong. Those having partially studied Hulbert's Normal Lessons may complete their book and receive a diploma upon passing a satisfactory examination. Those starting the work are required to study Hulbert's Teachers Training Course. Text books for the e courses may be obtained from the Provincial Secretary.

"A Monday morning in Coney Island police court" the comedy part of the program, which showed the different characters, who appear before the Marshall on Monday morning, would call forth a hearty laugh from any audience. The illustrated song and accompaniment by Miss Durant is always fine, Saturday night being no exception. A new feature introduced Saturday was the giving of a souvenir to every person attending which, as was noticable Saturday night, was the means of largely increasing the audience at this popular place of amusement.
