QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The mail train arrived last night at 9.50.
The Northumberland arrived last night at 8.35.

Mrs. R. C. Goff returned last night from a visit to Boston.
The schooner Frank has arrived with a cargo of brick for L.M. Poole & Co.

Any person having a marriage or bell tent to dispose of should read classified column.

Mr. Monbourquette, agent here of the Plant S. S. Line leaves this morning on a brief trip to Cape Breton.

The infant classes of Notre Dame Convent yesterday enjoyed themselves at a picnic held in Victoria Park.

Harry W. Weeks and bride arrived by the mail express from their wedding trip last night. They are at the Queen Hotel.

A. R. McLeod, St. Paul, Minn., and O. O. Creigh and wife, San Francisco, were among arrivals in the City last night.

The schooner Louise Selig arrived yesterday from Gaspe with a cargo of cedar and spruce shingles for L. M. Poole & Co.

In future all classified and other advertising, verbal replies to which are to come to this office, will be charged at double rate.

Chief Justice Sullivan and a number of the lawyers who have been attending Supreme Court at Summerside, returned to the City last night.

The three prohibition cases which were to have been heard at the Police Court yesterday were postponed for a week owing to the absence of counsel from the City.

Advertisers are asked to have "changes" in not later than ten a. m. each Saturday for the Morning Daily and Rural Daily, as Guardian employees have a half holiday each Saturday. The business and news departments are open as on other days.

Charles Earle arrived home last evening on a visit to his parents S. J. N. and Mrs. Earle. His sister-in-law, Mrs. D. W. D. V. Earle, and two children, also arrived and will spend some time in Charlottetown a guest of her parents-in-law.

The wedding of Francis Ramon Burke M. D. and Miss Jane Childs Reed, both of Quinoy, Mass., is referred to at length in the newspapers of that city. Dr. Burke is a rising physician and is a son of the late Walter Burke, formerly of Southport.

Deputy Minister of Railway, M. J. Butler, was expected to arrive in Moncton on Monday. He will leave in company with General Manager of Government Railways D. Pottinger, and I. C. R. Traffic Manager Timin, for Prince Edward Island, on a tour of inspection.

Correspondents should remember that to ensure early appearance of correspondence all matter sent in should be cut down as much as possible. Every attention is paid to correspondence but it is impossible to get anything in as written, especially when as of late many communications are being received each day.

There will be general sympathy for the husband of the late Mrs. Stetson (daughter of D. A. Bruce and Mrs. Bruce of this City) who was unable to accompany the body of his wife home owing to the critical illness of his mother who has been living with him in his home. This is a case of a double affliction that is sufficient to excite compassion in any breast.

Persons and firms desiring advertising in any newspaper outside of this Province are having same placed by The Guardian Advertising Agency, which is conducted in connection with this paper. They thus secure the same rates as if they placed their order direct, and have each advertisement checked to see that it gets the proper number of insertions and appears as desired.

Those who want work of any kind or are looking for help of any kind should send their names and addresses with all particulars or call at The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, New Prowse Block, Charlottetown, Telephone 1322. Those who do not desire to advertise will please send 25 cents with their request, which amount will be returned to them on application, 15c postage if sent by mail, if they do not get what they want.

The entries for the road race to take place on the 22nd inst., will close this evening at this office. Dr. Ledwell yesterday measured off the seven miles course and there will be no question as to the distance to be covered. There are now twenty entries already in, and there promise to be several others which will make the most interesting field of contestants that has ever figured in a long distance race in this Province. Dr. Ledwell and the other gentlemen with him who promoted this race have made elaborate arrangements so that the public may follow the progress of the racers and have a good view of the finish. Further particulars will be published tomorrow, and a list of the entries will be given.

British Beef Iron and Wine is unequalled as a "blood-builder" and tonic. It strengthens and invigorates the body, restoring lost health. If you are weak and run down try a bottle and prove its merits. 75c per pint bottle. A. W. Reddin, Sunnyside.

The S. S. City of London will leave for Brush Wharf on Monday morning at 8 o'clock as the marine slip at Pictou will not be ready for her till the following Monday.

The Guardian has decided to open a "Lost Relatives" column. Thus any persons who have lost trace of their relatives should send in necessary particulars to this office and same will be published in both Morning Daily and Rural Daily free of charge.

The S. S. Campans arrived in this port yesterday afternoon from Montreal via intermediate ports with 6000 packages of inward freight. She left again on return at 8.30 last night, taking 407 cases eggs; 20 barrels pork; 50 cases lobsters; 62 packages sundries and three passengers.

Advertisers should not forget that the average circulation each issue of The Guardian's Rural Daily is guaranteed to be at least four thousand. Already several firms are advertising in every issue as they find it pays them to do so. A word to the shrewd business man is sufficient.

Ottawa exchanges contain extended notices of a wedding in St. James' church, Perth, Ont., on June 8th, when George Wellington Hyndman, of the Department of Finance, Ottawa, youngest son of F. W. Hyndman, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., was united in marriage to Miss Mary Campbell Hall, eldest daughter of the late Francis Alexander Hall. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of invited guests and friends of the bride, and was performed by Rev. Canon Muckleston.

At the Y. M. C. A. Hall last night a very enthusiastic audience thoroughly enjoyed the program prepared in connection with the presenting of the cup and medals to the winners of the Patriot's recent road race. There was music by Watts' Orchestra and speeches by Mayor Falcon, David Alexander, John Brock, W. S. Lonsdale, and the presentation of his prize to the winner of the race, made a suitable speech of acknowledgment, and was warmly applauded. The audience testified their approval of the speeches etc., with a generous measure of applause.

The Halifax Chronicle of yesterday says "Hon. David Laird the First Lieutenant Governor of the Northwest Territories and now Chief Indian Commissioner with an office in Winnipeg was a passenger on the Maritime Express yesterday afternoon en route to Charlottetown to visit relatives. Hon. Mr. Laird was accompanied by his nephew, Rev. A. A. Laird who succeeded Bishop Worrell as Lecturer in English at the Royal Military College, Kingston. Rev. Alex. A. Laird is a son-in-law of Alexander Forbes of this city." Hon. Mr. Laird arrived here on Wednesday evening and is staying with his daughter Mrs. John A. Matheson.

DIET NOT THE WHOLE THING.
You table is loaded with food—digestible and wholesome yet you never can gain strength. What's the trouble? Look within and what do you find? A lazy liver, stomach overloaded with work—useless work because the bowels and the liver are not sufficiently active. Relief is quickly supplied by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They make weak folks strong by removing the cause of the weakness. Digestion improved, constipation leaves, liver takes new life, kidneys wake up—the whole system is enlivened by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. No better medicine for the sick or well, 50c at all dealers.

TRADE AND SHIPPING.
