

The Doctor's Question

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 98 per cent. of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Rexall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant, and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Through the efforts of W. R. Tobin, barrister, and others, Capt. Edward Dicks is to be released from Dorchester penitentiary to which he was sentenced for four years over a year ago by Judge Loughey, on a conviction for smuggling. Mr. Tobin received word this morning from the Secretary of State that the Minister of Justice had granted an order for Capt. Dicks' release. The Guardian has received a letter signed by five passengers who sailed by the Minto on April 16, from Charlottetown complaining that they did not arrive at Pictou till 9 p. m., were then unable to secure lodging at the hotels at any price, and alleging that on return to the Minto and offering to pay for lodging there they were refused by the captain. The letter is signed by Edmund Vickerson, E. R. Bowman, "Norman McKay and family" and Geo. A. Cudmore. The circumstances seem to be quite exceptional and may be explained perhaps on sufficient grounds. The sleeping accommodations on the winter steamers are limited.

Olga, wife of F. A. Robertson son of the late Dr. Robertson, Crafaud, and daughter of Alfred Anderson of Port Blakeley, was married Monday night at eleven o'clock, March 25, aged twenty-one years, four months and eleven days. Obituary services were held at Port Blakeley church, the Rev. Mr. Lewis of Seattle and Rev. J. M. Robinson of Port Blakely officiating. The church was crowded to the doors with friends of the deceased, many of whom had known her from childhood. Girl friends who had known her for years had decorated the church beautifully with flowers, the altar platform being entirely hidden under a mass of fragrant blossoms, and the windows were filled with them. The casket was laden with floral tributes, and upon the floor and surrounding the casket were flowers in heaped baskets, wreaths, pillows, hearts and many other handsome pieces expressing the sympathy of friends. The sermon and burial rites were touchingly rendered, and a choir sang some beautiful musical selections, which were greatly appreciated. The pall bearers were as follows: Jack Seaborn, Ever Windhall, Lawrence Cunningham, Jurdon Williams, Arthur Chapman and Clyde Beetham. Honorary pall bearers were girl friends who had known Olga for years. The deceased had lived at Port Blakeley the greater part of her life, and hosts of friends mourn her early death.
