Happenings of the Week

Mrs. Stewart, wife of Hon. J. D. Stewart left Thursday on a visit to her daughters in Montreal.

On Friday afternoon, April 11th, Mrs. Luke W. Keish gave a very pretty tea at her home in Needham, Mass., in honor of her sister, Mrs. Gavin Walker of Crapaud, Prince Edward Island. Mrs. Walker has been the guest of Mrs. Keish for the past few months. Among the guests present was Mrs. William Pugsley, wife of the late Hon. William Pugsley, a former Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick.

Premier and Mrs. C. A. Saunders and Miss Mona Saunders, of Summerside have gone on a visit to Vancouver.

Rev. Mr. Phillips of Alberton spent the week end in Halifax meeting his brother who arrived from their old home in Wales on a visit to Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harris have left to spend the Easter season in Montreal.

Mrs. T. A. MacLean, of Antigonish, N. S., who is a guest at the Chateau Laurier, Ottawa, was the guest of honor at a supper bridge last Saturday given by Mrs. R. H. Jenkins of Charlottetown.

The sympathy of many friends is extended to Mrs. McCready and the family in the death of Mr. McCready.

Hon. John A. Macdonald, M. P. for Kings, was receiving the congratulations of his friends last Saturday the occasion of his 55th birthday.

In New York furred coats only have been shown lately, with galeak, blue and silver fox appearing and reappearing on the avenue. Covert fashions the tailored models, telga and woollen crepes the afternoon ones. The silhouette most seen is the slightly fitted coat tied at the normal waist by a string belt. Though on the whole, the windows have been featuring black first and beige second, one very exclusive shop proudly showed two green tweeds with grey fox collars.

Miss Helen McMillan left Thursday morning on a Easter visit in Moncton and Halifax.

Miss Sue Nash's many friends regret that she is still confined to the P. E. I. Hospital, but are hoping for her early complete recovery.

Regretful farewells were said to Mrs. P. T. Strong who left Thursday to spend the summer at her old home in Halifax.

Keep Them Happy By Keeping Them Well

It is natural for children to be happy, active and full of fun. When they are fretful, fussy and disinclined to play you may be sure something is wrong. Almost invariably that something lies in the digestive tract.

It is to meet the need for an absolutely safe corrective of childhood ailments that Baby's Own Tablets have been designed. They gently regulate the stomach and bowels and thus drive out constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and allay teething pains. Concerning them Mrs. W. E. Forsyth, Dover, N. B., writes:—"I would not be without Baby's Own Tablets as I know of nothing to equal them for fretful, fussy babies who are troubled with colds or sour stomach."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicinal dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Teachers Federation brought a great many welcome visitors to the city this week.

The Queen's car is to be fitted with a hooter which sounds distinctive musical notes. It has been found that identification disc on the car has not been sufficient to secure for the Queen a clear road through London traffic and she has been late for appointments. Special instructions are being given to the police so that they will be able to recognize the peculiar notes of the new hooter.

Miss Ethel Stewart spent the week end pleasantly in Summerside the guest of Miss McKelvie.

Many friends here will be interested to hear that Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Leatham and Miss Moira Leatham, and Rev. Dr. George E. Ross, Mrs. Ross and their daughter, Miss Marjorie of Ottawa motored to Montreal last week where they attended the convocation of the Presbyterian College at which Rev. Mr. Leatham was honored with the degree of Doctor of Divinity (honoris causa).

Mrs. Wm. Brehaut's many friends will regret to learn that she has been ill with an attack of blood poisoning.

Mrs. Priscilla Manderson Smith and Mr. Joe R. Smith are being welcomed back to their home in Margate after a very pleasant winter in California and other places on the Pacific Coast. Mrs. Smith's sister Mrs. Alfaratta Cotton, of Arcadia, California, is considerably improved in health, and expects to be able to visit her old home in Prince Edward Island, this summer.

Although the word "traditional" is frequently applied to brides and their costumes, Paris has once again come to the fore and put another of these fashion proverbs to flight. For Lanvin and a number of others have put their heads together and in a number of interesting suggestions have arrived in New York to bedeck the blushing bride on the eventful day.

Madame Lanvin has an idea that it would be nice if a bride could keep her bouquet for a souvenir, and in order to enable her to do this she has created a bouquet of wax flowers with green bud sheaths and yellow flower centres. It is completed with a lace paper frill and a tulle bow. It is quite a Victorian touch.

About the prayer book, if the bride chooses to carry one? They are being shown in white kid, gold edged and lined with silk paper. It also contains the marriage certificate.

Opera pumps in white satin are favored. They are slenderized considerably by the addition of herringbone lines which are woven into the surface. Others displayed in the New York shops are of white brocaded satin and are completed with a pearl buckle.

And gloves, sixteen-button variety are advocated by those who know. Some are in suede and are completed with three pearl buttons in addition to the sixteen.

For the headdress, wax flowers and pearls in narrow bandeau effects are being shown and, according to all reports, have created a veritable bridal furor.

Talk of June brides already? Well it is certainly being done. And as for the bridesmaids, here is a suggestion gleaned from somewhere in fashiondom. They will look very attractive if they proceed up the aisle on a certain June day wearing pink tulle hats trimmed with blue ribbon. In addition, she may also carry a fluffy little muff of tulle, lace and ribbon to match her hat instead of the now old-fashioned flowers.

Whether your formal frock is mint green or blush pink, your ankles must match it. Clad in hose of pastel shades, the ankles are daintily reserved about their appearance—leaving the toes of the opera pump to play that role celebrated in verse. In a day when it was smart to be demure, one's feet beneath a lengthened frock "like little mice stole in and out." Pastel hose are also an excellent idea for the pastel slippers that are worn with light frocks for afternoon.
