Minimium Export Prices Of Wheat Plan

By A. E. Stuntz,
Associated Press Foreign Staff
(By Guardian's Special Wire)

ROME, April 14—The plan for establishing minimum export prices on wheat, drafted by a sub-committee of the World Wheat Advisory Committee in session here, was revealed tonight to the Associated Press.

Betterment on export prices as proposed in the report, the sub-committee begins with saying, must be judged according to their values as necessary steps and an integral part of a more complete system of regulation of production.

Such a system, the report indicates, is indispensable in or to bring back that degree of confidence without which it will be difficult to apply in an effective manner a policy of adjustment of supply and demand, and liquidation of excessive stocks.

The report indicates that wheat importing countries believe that positive betterment of prices must come before putting into execution their principal engagement in the London Wheat Agreement, namely reduction of tariffs and at least partial abrogation of their quantitative restrictions applying to imported wheat.

NOTHING IMPOSSIBLE

"Patience and perseverance will accomplish all things," said a passenger in a railway compartment.

"Nonsense, sir," said a fellow-passenger. "Will patience and perseverance enable you to carry water in a sieve?"

"Certainly!"

"I would like to know how"

"Simply by waiting patiently for the water to freeze."

WARNED

"What's happened, Henry?" she asked her husband, who had left the car to investigate.

"Puncture," he said briefly.

"You ought to have been on the look-out for this," was the helpful remark. "You remember the guide warned you there was a fork in the road.

"PACIFISTS" IN RIOT ROLE

Student Pacifist Demonstrations End in Showers of Overripe Fruit and Eggs.

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, April 14 — Student "pacifist" demonstrations were anything but peaceful on a dozen campuses in the eastern United States today.

In New York, Cambridge, Worcester, Springfield and Amherst, Mass.; Syracuse and Baltimore, the meetings proceeded with oratory and catcalls, accompanied by such missles as hose streams, eggs and overripe tomatoes.

But nobody, anywhere, was hurt.

The "anti-war" strike, supposed to have been nationwide, was called by the Student League for Industrial Democracy, the National Student League and sympathetic groups.

Grapefruit and onion barrages marked the demonstration at Harvard. It might have been peaceful except for the unscheduled attendance of the Mullins Chowder Club and the Harvard Marching Club. They came shouting "we want war" and "down with peace" and got both. It all ended when everybody joined in a rousing Harvard cheer.

In New York, students marched on three campuses — City College, Columbia University and Hunter College for women. The women's meeting was orderly; the others were disorderly.

At City College, students ignored a "no speeches" order and melees ensued with police and the college football team, which was anti-pacifist to the extend of rescuing Dean Morton D. Gottshall from the none-too-gentle peace-lovers.

At Columbia the battle was mostly oral because a detective confiscated a large sack of eggs. Here, too, it all ended in cheers and song.

Dalhousie Board Of Governors Discussed

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

HALIFAX, April 14—Disputed legal jurisdiction of Dalhousie University's Board of Governors would be established definitely under legislation now ready for presentation to the Nova Scotia Legislature.

The measure was drawn up by the Board, which hopes to clear up a puzzling situation revealed recently by Premier Angus L. Macdonald. The Nova Scotia Premier, a former professor at the University's law school, told the Legislature the board was not constituted in accordance with the statutes of the Province.

For a half century, the Premier said, it had lacked legal jurisdiction. In answer to questions tabled in the House, he said the Board now had 25 members though since 1881 statutes had provided for only fifteen.

This number could be exceeded only through appointment of members recommended by bodies or individuals endowing chairs or professorships. And the Premier's return showed that no appointments had been made under this clause.

Members of the Board did not reveal today whether the new legislation contemplated a reduction in its personnel to 15 representatives. It was learned only that the Alumni representation of three members had been dropped, this despite the fact the Alumni had sought further representation only recently.

HIS ACTUAL WORDS

He had popped the question, and all that was needed was father's consent. She said she would approach him on the subject. The following day the young man met the apple of his eye.

"Well?" he asked.

"What do you think father said when I told him I had accepted you?" she asked.

"Give it up my dear," he replied.

"Why, how ever did you guess?" she exclaimed.

STARTLING

The film star approached her publicity man.

"Look here, I don't seem to be much in the news at present," she said. "Can't you think of something really startling for me?"

The publicity man looked thoughtful.

"What about being seen out with your husband one day next week?" he suggested.
