WAS RUN DOWN AND IN TERRIBLY NERVOUS CONDITION—BY USING DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD GAINED REGULARLY.

In this letter is told once more the story which comes from many thousands of women. It is the story of exhausted nerves, of a run-down system and of all the accompanying misery of sleeplessness, headaches and loss of energy and vigor.

But there is a silver lining to this cloud. There is the light of new hope and courage which comes with the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

This letter is so representative of the kind we are daily receiving that you can judge from it what you might expect from this treatment under similar circumstances.

Mrs. Conrad Schmidt, R. R. No. 1, Milverton, Ont., writes: "Two years ago last spring I was run down, had nervous prostration, and was in a terribly nervous condition. I could not sleep or eat. Could scarcely count the nights that I passed without sleep, and if I did eat, had sick headaches and vomiting spells. My limbs would swell so badly that I hurt me to walk. I would jump up

Barn at Marshfield Destroyed by Fire

Mr. Heber Crosby, the well known farmer of Marshfield, had the misfortune to lose his barn by fire Monday morning.

The fire started about 10 o'clock in the loft over the horse stable. The cause is unknown. There was nothing on the loft except a light litter of straw and chaff and nobody had been up there for 4 or 5 days.

Mr. Crosby had left for the woods with his horse about 20 minutes before the fire was noticed by his mother, who was the only one in the house at the time.

The neighbors hurried to the scene and succeeded in saving all the live stock consisting of 20 head of cattle and 11 horses, also the machinery.

About 30 tons of hay, 200 bushels of oats, 25 bushels of wheat, and a quantity of straw valued in all at about $600 were destroyed. The barn which was about 100 x 25 was an old building, valued at about $500.

This will make the total loss about $1100 and there was no insurance.

Attack Allies From Three Directions

ATHENS, February 7.—It appears certain that within a week the central powers will resume the attack against the allies. The onslaught will be made from three directions to prevent the Anglo-French from retreating. The Bulgarians will participate and will be accompanied by German artillery and Turkish infantry. Newspapers state that representatives of the entente, replying to the Greek note concerning the occupation of Kara Burnu, declared there would be no further occupation of Greek territory.

MILAN, via Paris, February 7.—A dispatch from Athens to the Secolo says that French aviators report confined concentration of adversary forces on the Greek frontiers. German reinforcements are advancing from Uskub to the northwest of Giannelli, fresh German regiments have arrived at Monastir and Austrian forces are concentrating around Tchevikovo. A Bulgarian division says, the dispatch finally, has left Kustendill, going southward and the transfer of heavy artillery from Willish to the Bulgarian frontier is confirmed.

MORGAN MUST PAY THE DAIRYMAN $20,000.

MINEOLA, L. I., Feb. 5.—Michael Killlea, a dairyman, who was employed by J. P. Morgan on his estate at East Island, Glen Cove, has won a verdict for $20,000 damages against Mr. Morgan for injuries suffered on the night of July 13 last when Mr. Morgan was shot by Frank Holt also known as Eric Muentner.

After the shooting a rope was stretched across a bridge leading to Mr. Morgan's house to prevent automobiles from entering the grounds. Killlea, who was riding a bicycle, ran against the rope and was thrown suffering injuries which physicians say dooms him to blindness. He sued Mr. Morgan for $50,000, but a jury gave him a verdict for $20,000.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

In presenting this statement of the P. E. I. Students Gift Fund accounts to date, it may be well to mention that the Fund is by no means closed, but that as one of the two field kitchens, the fund aims to supply has been purchased and presented, in order to lighten the work and give a statement to those who have so far contributed, it was considered wise to have the books taken now. Although at a very busy season, the task was kindly undertaken by the Secretary of Education.

The chief expense in running the fund was having the letter circulars and contribution sheets printed; then mailed to each school in the Province, but the Committee agreed it was the only way in which to place the undertaking before the younger boys and girls. The material used, however, thanks to Mr. Irwin, was supplied at barely cost.

The success so far attained is solely due to general co-operation. Those school boys and girls, with the older students who have contributed to the Fund to date, have built up a splendid memorial for themselves, in the Field Kitchen they have presented to our Highland Regiment. The parents who encouraged their patriotism have also a share of the glory. The many teachers who have taken charge of donations brought to them by pupils, filling out sheets and forwarding both, have given invaluable assistance which needless to say has been so greatly appreciated. The three daily papers have been and are still doing a big share, by publishing lists of charges, notices and acknowledgements of all money received. Space in the newspaper we all know represents so much cash, and words fail to pay the debt.

In continuing the fund there are a few points to remember. The original undertaking was for the school boys and girls, with the older students to supply two field kitchens for Island Soldiers, with provision that any surplus was to be given to the "Soldiers' Disabling Fund" (Headquarters, Ottawa). (One kitchen has now been supplied by all ages. Of this number 7948 are pupils in the public schools. There are, however, about 18000 pupils enrolled in our public schools, thus leaving at least 10,000 in these schools. (Not to mention how many older students outside) among whom the cost of the second kitchen can easily be made up. There are upwards of 150 schools and institutions from which no individual subscription has yet been received, and so the outlook is still cheerful. On the schools from which we have heard, there are a number of pupils (as many as 70 p.c. in some) who missed sending with the regular list, but they can now send a contribution direct to the Secretary-Treasurer at 70 Prince St., Charlottetown and have their names down on the list for the 2nd Kitchen. This is the last opportunity, and it is safe to say that any boy or girl attending school can give at least ONE CENT if nothing more. There are some names on the list already only represented by one cent, and insignificant as it may seem, these one-cent contributions all helped by that first kitchen. The fund has been built up by small contributions and it is our aim to have each

FATAL SHOOTING AFFAIR IN HALIFAX

HALIFAX, Feb. 7.—Sergeant Alexander Williamson, of the 63rd Rifles Battalion, was shot and instantly killed in the military quarters at Lawlor's Island on Saturday night. Private Charles Fielder, a member of the same battalion, is held a prisoner at the police station on a charge of wilful murder. The motive for the crime is not known.

The shooting occurred about ten o'clock in the dining-room of the barracks, and was witnessed by a number of men of the battalion. Sergeant Williamson is well known in Halifax, having resided for many years at 10 Falkland Street, and is survived by his widow and six children.

Charles Fielder is an Englishman, and a former Imperial soldier. He claims to be the son of Rear Admiral Fielder, of the British Navy.

Yesterday morning the military authorities at McNab's Island commanded by Chief of Police Tudland and notified him that a soldier had been shot dead on Saturday night, and requested that a police officer be sent down to investigate the case. Detective Hanrahan was detailed to make an investigation.

The detective on arrival at McNab's Island found that Charles Fielder, the man accused of the crime, was in the custody of the military authorities.

The detective learned that Charles Fielder on Saturday night about ten o'clock came from his room and walked into the dining-room with a rifle in his hand, saying a word or giving any warning, he raised the rifle and fired at Williamson who was about forty feet away. Williamson was killed instantly, the bullet striking him on the right side of the jugular vein, and coming out at the throat.

The military men present seized Fielder, and escorted him to McNab's Island, where he was held in close custody.

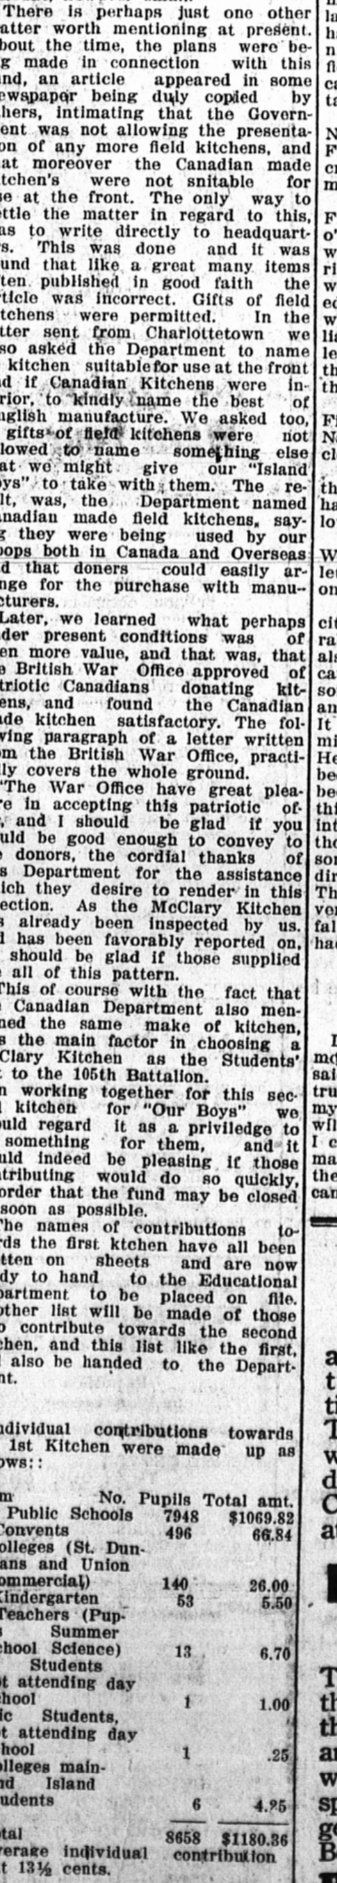

A jury was empanelled and after the evidence of several witnesses had been heard, brought in the following verdict:

"That the deceased, Alexander Williamson, met his death by a bullet fired from a rifle in the hands of one, Charles Fielder."

The prisoner was brought to the city in the custody of Detective Hanrahan last evening. Colonel Vidito also furnished an escort, every precaution being taken to guard the prisoner, in case that he should make an attempt to do away with himself.

It is stated that Fielder after being mitted to the hotel had been lying in bed in his room and that he had not been able to sleep very well. Some time came over him, and he went into the big room rifle in hand. He thought that he had heard Williamson speak, and saw Williamson fall. The prisoner also said that he felt very sorry when he saw Williamson fall, and that he (Fielder) after he had a good cry, felt better.
