BIG CIRCUS SERIAL
AT THE PRINCE EDWARD

Francis Ford and Grace Cunard
 the Stars in this Great Attraction.

What appears to be the most novel as well as one of the most successful, obtain ever screened in this City opened at the Prince Edward yesterday in the capacity houses. The story promises to be one of intense interest from the pen of Grace Cunard, which directed by Francis Ford who play the leading roles. None of the exponents of the silent drama have had the success as this pair of stars, and there is no doubt but "The Broken Column" one novel feature is the circus side of the story which follows very closely the like and doings of the circus people as they travel from city to city across the continent. It also shows the high priced acts that are seldom seen outside the larger cities. The lack of space will not permit a detailed account of this unique serial, but it has the same "Punch" "Dash" and vigor for which Ford and Cunard are famous.
 Another feature of the programme that was as much responsible for the big turnout, was the first of the new Chaplin comedies "The Floorwalker". This is the same Chaplin in the same role, that of making laughter, there was one continuous round of laughter from the start to the finish of the two reels. Too see Chaplin on the moving staircase would make a wooden cigar store Indian laugh? This comedy was all that was claimed for it. Two other excellent pictures "The Capital Prize" a two detective drama and one of the famous "Nestor" comedies rounded out a splendid evening's entertainment which will be shown for the last time to-day, afternoon and evening. At the matinee souvenirs of "Peg O' the Ring" will be given away to the children. Send the "Kiddies."

THE LAZIEST of lawyers are always ready to work with a will.

IN the dead letter office at Ottawa may be seen some foolish things entirely uncalled for.

DON'T blame the cook when the steak is raw. Remember a woman's work is never done.

STRANGE how the cabmen of Charlottetown can drive away their customers and still keep them.

QUESTION? Can a man who has been fined time and again by His Honor be considered a refined man?

GERMAN airmen have again dropped bombs on England. Suppose the British should retaliate by flying over Germany and dropping aitches?

BRITANNIA rules the waves. Does this mean then that the German submarines are trying to operate under the rules.

ALL Charlottetown girls do not get down-hearted when their sweethearts are ordered off to war. A good many with wonderful military instinct simply fall back on their reserves.

THAT young man of 17 who married the widow aged 38 in Wisconsin the other day says he will never marry so young again if he lives to be as old as Methuselah.

WITTY PAT.

Pat (watching recruits drilling): "Begorra, it's a soldier I'd sooner be than a farm hand."

Mike: "An' Why so?"
 Pat: "Ye'd be a long time workin' for a farmer before he'd tell ye to stand at ease, I'm thinkin'."

THE BEST WAY to kill a falsehood is to let it lie.

THE ITALIANS have taken Tymentisa. Wonder did they have to take it all in one dose!

THE KYTE charges quite naturally have gone up in the air. The investigation will cost the country over $60,000. Went high all right!

THE TALKATIVE man who has nothing to say is the most tiresome critter on earth.

A SCIENTIST advances the theory that happiness is an indication of longevity. That seems plausible considering the fact that bald-headed men seldom die.

THE MOTORISTS mean well. But if they wouldn't raise such a dust when passing the poor plodding pedestrian said motor-tourists might not be so apt to cast the mote into their brother's eye.

 Applicant—"No, sir."

ONE VIEW OF IT.

You will find it a difficult matter
 To move with the people of rank.
 For to work on Society's tight-rope
 Your balance should be at the Bank.

WHEN the Italian hurdy-gurdy men return to Canada after the war. Wonder will the most of us still have the nerve to hand out the measly sum of two cents to the monkey? And again on the other hand wonder will we have the two cents?

BUT WHERE ARE THEY?

They were gathered from the hill-side
 They were brought in from the glen—
 New P. E. Island potatoes
 We had reference to just then.

MERELY HEARSAY.

Actual evidence I have none.
 But my aunt's charwoman's sister's son
 Heard a policeman on his beat
 Say to a housemaid in Downing street
 That he knew someone, who had a friend,
 Who knew when the war was going to end.

FAME'S LADDER.

It's top and then to struggle down
 we round again—

HOT WEATHER REFLECTIONS.

Same old summer.
 Same old heat.
 Same old dust on
 Each same street.

(Excuse us, this is an error. We have the new motor sprinkler which will not permit the dust to lie on the street.)

Same old going
 Out of town
 Same old getting Done up brown.

(This of course to the hot sun's work—and not to the proprietor.)

Same old hammock
 Same old tree
 Same old falling Rapidly.

Back to town
 Same old bills
 Same old little
 Bunch of chills.

Same old verselot.
 Same old trick
 Same old poet
 Same old kek.

SHOCKING INCIDENT.

In a certain provincial town where everything is up-to-date, and the people are always planning some new scheme a shocking thing happened.

One of the popular society women announced a "white elephant party."

Every guest was to bring some thing that she could not find use for and yet too good to throw away.

The party, however, would have been a greater success but for the unexpected development which broke it up.

Eleven of the 19 women brought their husbands.

A FILLER.

 And no fair flowers from family field
